Hillisdale Baptist church at Forty-third and I streets vesterday afternoon.

The ceremonies began at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and the capacity of the edifice tion that had assembled for the tirst service ever held in the building.

Mrs. R. O. Haskins opened the service by the rendition of several beautiful soles adapted to the occasion. Taking as his point of approach the consecration of the building the reverend speaker an nounced that the plain, unvarnished gospel of Jesus Christ was the one solu-tion of all the problems of life and the world. Business life, political life and social life each had its own peculiar problems, the speaker contended, and

God was not a mere religious spasm the speaker said. It was not the mere empty bejief in a set of doctrines, but was the Dr. Stackhouse is a classmate and and late in order to bring the building of the new church to a success. The charge is really a mission and, for its blad, is considered the most complete in compenent and convenience within the three cities.

Rev. Stackhouse will remain in the city Appointments to Be Made.

It is probable that the city council will be called upon to settle the appointments made application for positions of more or less importance under the city regime. Although these appointments have not been officially announced, it is understood that the present chief of police will be retained over the protests of a number of aspirants. John Jackman is said to be slated for street commissioner and the city hall will probably be retained Eddy: as superintendent of the city hall or in a Gust subordinate capacity.

Another matter that must be settled without delay is whether the increases of salary allowed by the recent amendto stand.

Willis Oldham Says Clark is Demo Hope

Judge Willis D. Oldham of Kearney is in Omaha lining up the supporters of Champ Clark for the presidential non-inee on the democratic ticket. The judge believes the Missourian is democracy's high hope. Purther, he holds a firm con-liction that if Calcard President viction that if Colonel Roonevelt were nominated by the republicans Clark would beat him to a frazzle.

"It would be doubtful if President Taft is nominated, for Clark's chances of election would be decreased, but he can beat Roosevelt," said the judge, "Why Roosevelt wouldn't carry six states." never stood a chance, according to Judge Oldham, because he isn't the kind to "finish the fight." Therefore, Clark will meet with almost universal approvat.
Harmon's campaign in the state didn't help him much, in Judge Oldham's opinion.
While he thinks Taft will be nominated and Nebraska will be for him, Judge Oldham is certain that Mr. Roosevelt's visit is going to muss things up. Howcarrying the Nebraska delegation are slim. Judge Oldham will spend two or three days in Omaha and will then go to Lincoin in the interest of Clark's candidacy, He is accompanied by T. B. Garrison, Jr., a banker at Kearney.
