

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA
Council Does Not Meet Being Divided on Building Inspector.

JOHN DEVINE MAY GET JOB

Maize City High School Debating Team Will Meet Weeping Water Friday at High School Auditorium.

Although a meeting of the city council was to have been held last night it was impossible for the members to decide who to put in as building inspector. Two men are trying hard for this position, Ed Trapp and John Devine, and it is rumored that the latter will be chosen.

Funeral of Mrs. Couch.

The funeral of Mary A. Couch, who died suddenly Tuesday evening as the result of a shock caused by a brush between her son Joseph and James Cullen, a boarder at the Couch home, who came home in a rage, will be held Friday morning at 8:30 o'clock from the residence, 323 North Twenty-sixth street, to St. Bridget's church. Burial will be made in St. Mary's cemetery.

High school Debate.

The South Omaha High school debating team will debate with the Weeping Water high school team on the question, "Resolved, That the movement of organized labor for the closed shop should receive the support of public opinion," tomorrow evening at the local high school auditorium. South Omaha will have the affirmative side of the question and will be represented by John Orchard, Winthrop Lane and Edgar Kidood. Judge Sutton will preside.

The winning team will be declared the champion of the eastern district and will take part in the finals at Lincoln on May 19 for the state championship. South Omaha has won two debates, one from Fremont and one from Blair. Weeping Water, however, is said to have a strong team.

Death of James Kreeck.

James Kreeck, 28 years old, died yesterday evening of pneumonia after an illness of one day at his home near the Sarpy county line. He is survived by a widow, two sons, mother, five sisters and three brothers.

The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence. Burial will be in Laurel Hill cemetery. Mr. Kreeck was born on board a steamship and has resided in South Omaha for thirty years. He was a member of the local Fraternal Order of Eagles, the Fraternal Union of America, the Bohemian Turners and the Cecile lodge.

A social and entertainment was held by Division No. 3, Ancient Order of Hibernians at the hall Tuesday evening. The ladies' auxiliary were guests. P. A. Woods was chairman and promised that there would be several similar socials in the future.

The dancing of J. J. Cunningham and Dominic Loftus would have become men of younger years, and Peter Gausman proved to be quite an entertainer. He played a number of violin selections accompanied on the piano by Miss Catherine McGuire. T. M. Dowd gave a reading and Miss May Hallahan sang a number of vocal solos. She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Victoria Vana.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO PREPARE FOR CONTESTS

As acting chairman of the republican national committee, Victor Rosewater is notifying the members to prepare for a meeting early in June to take up the question of contests. His letter reads as follows:

"In view of the certainty of a large number of contests, I write now to advise you that I will call the national committee to meet in Chicago some time during the first week in June to take up the work of making the temporary roll for the convention. This is not the formal call convening the committee, but merely a personal notice that members may have ample time to arrange to be present. The importance of having a full attendance will, of course, be appreciated by all."

POLLS CLOSE AT NINE O'CLOCK

County and State Primaries Are to Be Held Today.

NEW VOTERS MUST BE SWORN IN

Registrations Made for the City Primaries April 9 Will Not Entitle Voter to Exercise His Right Today.

Polls will open this morning at 5 o'clock and close at 9 o'clock in the evening. Voters who have not registered will be required to make application at the office of the city clerk. If two fresh voters of the precinct in which a voter resides take oath to his right to the ballot a certificate which will entitle him to vote will be given him.

Those who were sworn in at the primaries April 9 must be again sworn in, as that registration does not hold good for tomorrow.

Women may vote for members of the Board of Education. They will apply at the polling place and ask for either a democratic or republican ticket. There are three democratic and two republican candidates.

Water Works Case Rests With Master

Testimony on the appraisal of the Omaha Water company precedent to the city taking over the works was concluded before Master in Chancery George H. Thummel yesterday. The counsel for both the city and the company closed, saying that if they did not return in the afternoon the master could consider the case rested in his hands. The proceedings will be submitted to Judge Munger of the United States district court some time next week.

BONDING EXPERT PRAISES STATE TREASURER GEORGE

John M. Gilchrist as public accountant, acting for the different bonding companies which have gone surety for State Treasurer George, has made a report of his examination of that office from January 5, 1911, to January 21, 1912, attesting the correct handling of the public funds, and concluding with this statement:

"The present treasurer has had wide experience as county treasurer and banker. He is thoroughly reliable and competent, his office force is capable and the records are in excellent shape."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
Has Been Helping Women For Forty Years
Over 40 years old! Why? Because it has been a boon to suffering womankind. It has survived forty years of ignorance, prejudice and jealousy, and is today more popular and doing more good than at any time in its history.
For woman's peculiar weaknesses and derangements causing headache, backache, dragging-down pain or distress and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a successful remedy.
It tones the system in general, and the organs distinctly feminine in particular. Makes the weak strong, and banishes mental worry. Makes life worth living.
Contains neither alcohol nor narcotics. Ingredients printed on wrapper of every bottle.
Every sick woman may consult us by letter, absolutely without charge. A regular graduated physician will carefully read and answer your communications. All replies are mailed sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing or advertising whatever, upon them.
Write without fear as without fee, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

The One Perfect Food
The whole wheat grain is the one perfect, complete food given to man. This is affirmed by dietetic experience. It contains all the chemical elements that are found in the human body and in about the same proportion. As it is a complete, perfect food, why mix it with other grains? Nothing could be purer, more wholesome or more nutritious than
Shredded Wheat Biscuit
It is the whole wheat, nothing added, nothing taken away—no yeast, no baking powder, no grease and no chemicals of any kind—just pure whole wheat made digestible by steam-cooking, shredding and baking.
Egg breakfast heat the Biscuit in the oven a few moments to restore crispness; then pour hot milk over it and salt or sweeten to suit the taste. It is delicious for any meal with stewed prunes, baked apples, sliced pineapple, berries or other fruits. At your grocer's.
