NEW YORK, April 30.-New York defeated Brooklyn today in an exciting game that ended with a first fight and near riot. The Brooklyn men had taken the lead in their half of the ninth on bases on balls, a single, a sacrifice Wilson's error, the last a throw over zog's head which let in two runs. In Herzog's head which let in two runs. In New York's half Groh singled off Rucker, who had replaced Black in the box, and Wilson, who had just handed Brooklyn two runs, drove the ball into the upper right wing of the grandstand for a home run, scoring Groh ahead of him and win-ning the game. Catcher Erwin claimed the hit was Catcher Erwin claimed the hit was Catcher Erwin claimed the hit was foul. Manager Dahlen of Brooklyn ran up to Umpire Rigier, nudging him, and Rigier retorted by putting his fist to Dahlen's face. The two men were engaged in a hot fist battle in spite of effects of Catcher Erwin and Coach Wilbur-Robinson of New York to separate them. Robinson of New York to separate them, when the crowd surged upon the field. Bigler was swept away and rather rudely handled, but finally was got to the club house little the worse for the scrimmage. There was considerable argument all through the game, both Fletcher and Mayers being ordered off the field. Manager McGraw of New York was suspended five days for his argument with Umpire Finneran yesterday.

President Ebbets of the Brooklyn club later sent a formal message to President

NEW YORK TRIES HARD IN VAIN

Boston Wins to Eleventh by Score of Seven to Six. BOSTON, April 20.—New York made a straight game in an eleven-inning battle with Borton, 7 to 6. Boston's new grounds were opened before a big crowd.

"Buck" O'Brien, pitching for Boston, allowed New York runs, in the first taree innings and was taken out after the fourth inning, following a lucky escape with three men on bases. Hall, who suc-ceeded him, pitched masterly ball, Boston used up three New York flingers. Caldwell was driven from the box in the fourth inning, after he allowed Boston to mered for six hits and Boston twice tied the score during his occupancy of the box. and tenth innings, but was unable to score on Vaughn until Speaker sent erkes home with a single, after Yerkes had got on base through Dolan's error. Yerkes hit -afely the first five times at but, twice for doubles, but fielded poorly. Wolter injured his ankle and
