

IOWA REPUBLICANS IN FIGHT

Warm Contest on for Control of State Convention Wednesday. EACH SIDE CLAIMS MAJORITY

Decision of Contests in Four Counties Will Determine Instruction of Delegates-at-Large to State Convention.

DES MOINES, April 21.—(Special.)—Iowa republicans have scheduled before this week another state convention and if it comes up to the preliminary advertising matter it will be an interesting event in state politics.

The preliminaries for the convention were conducted with decorum and fairness, or at least as fair as possible under the circumstances, and there are very few sore spots left as the result of the various county contests.

Closest of Convention. There can be no doubt whatever of the closeness of the state convention between the two factions.

To Welcome New Bishop. Preparations are being made for a royal welcome to Bishop Dowling when he reaches Des Moines, May 1.

Seed Corn Controversy. An interesting controversy that is sure to be valuable to the state has been started about the agitation for seed corn testing.

MacVicar on Lecture Platform. John MacVicar, former member of the council, started today for a long trip in which he will deliver several lectures on the commission form of government.

To Prevent New Rates. Legal action to restrain the collection of the new insurance rates by the Modern Woodmen of America officials will be taken unless the officials heed the demands of the Iowa Modern Woodmen assembly to repeal the action of the Chicago head camp.

Loyalty Not Questioned. As a business man he was generous to a fault. He not only gave liberally to all deserving public interests.

Good Predominates. "Death is the great adversary which makes us all sinners. Distinctions of creed, race and wealth sink into oblivion in its presence.

Loyal to Friends. Senator Hitchcock called attention to the useful deeds unostentatiously performed by Emil Brandeis.

I have said before, within business he was a thorough believer in publicity and advertising, the help he was constantly extending to others was carefully kept under cover.

Another great epoch was marked by the erection twenty-five years ago of the two great office buildings that rise within this block.
