GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Wheat Values Hold Strong Because of Bad Weather Reports.

CORN PRICES ARE READJUSTING

Considerable Selling Pressure on the Corn—Traders Are Playing for a Reaction—Cash Corn Two Cents Lower.

OMAHA, April 22, 1912.

Bullish sentiment and bad crop reports from states west of the river held wheat values strong, with the more distant futures showing the most strength.

The situation is serious enough to make the market depend entirely on the crop news, while sharp reductions in wheat stocks at primary points also encourages buying for a further advance.

Barring natural reactions, due from overbought conditions, the situation is even more bullish than a week ago.

There is a readjustment of prices and holdings going on in the corn trade. The southwest demand is not so urgent and cash prices do not show the strength they did owing to the free selling of reserves by farmers. However, the feeding situation is still bullish and sellers should use caution in making sales.

While crop damage reports kept wheat values from declining there was less buying, as prices have had a sharp advance and sentiment does not favor purchases at these levels. Cash wheat was 1½c lower today.

There is considerable selling pressure on the corn and while the situation warrants high prices traders are playing for a reaction. Cash corn was 1½c lower today.

Primary wheat receipts were 424,000 bushels and shipments were 400,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 515,000 bushels and shipments of 243,000 bushels.

Primary corn receipts were 662,000 bushels and shipments were 410,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 620,000 bushels and shipments of 516,000 bushels.

Clearances were 81,000 bushels of corn, 400 bushels of oats and wheat and flour equal to 377,000 bushels.

Liverpool closed ⅝ to ¾d lower on wheat and ¼d to 1d lower on corn.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, April 22.—Alarming crop reports from Nebraska brought about buying today in wheat. The news was contradicted, however, and the market closed irregular, varying from ¾c lower to ⅛@¼c advance. Corn showed a net decline of ⅛@¼c to ⅝c. Oats finished ⅛c off to ⅛c up and provisions unchanged to a gain of 10c.

What stirred up the wheat bulls was a statement from an expert that in Nebraska the crop loss was sensational in some counties and prospect poor in nearly all. It was declared the abandoned plantings in the two states would probably reach 1,000,000 acres. These assertions were later denounced on good authority as false in part and misleading as a whole.

July fluctuated from $1.09⅛@1.10⅝, finishing at $1.10, a rise of ⅛@¼c net.

Leaders in the corn crowd were positive in their views that the edge was off the big bull market of the last few weeks. Cash concerns persistently selling deferred months had many followers among scalpers in the pit. July ranged between 76¼c and 76⅝@76⅝c, closing ⅛c down at 76⅜c. Spot grades held steady. No. 2 yellow was quoted at 81c.

Wet weather developed considerable strength for oats. It was a favorite theory that the rain meant postponement of seeding and increased the proportion of fields that would go into corn.

July ranged between 54½@54¾c to 54¼c with the close at 54¼c.

Speculative demand absorbed the offerings of provisions and more than offset a decline due to large runs here and west. Lard led the advance.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

Uncertainty as to Engineers' Strike Situation Foremost Factor.

TRADING DULL MOST OF DAY

Closing Prices Wipe Out Majority of Material Declines and Net Losses Are Scarcely More Than Fractional.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Uncertainty concerning the outcome of the differences between the eastern railway managers and the locomotive engineers was the the foremost factor in today's business on the stock exchange. There were other developments in the course of the day that served to check any manifestations of a bullish character. Advices were that flood conditions are graver; that winter wheat in Illinois, Ohio and Indiana had been severely damaged and that general trade conditions are not quite up to the same period of last year.

The adoption of a resolution by the United States senate calling for a review of the American Tobacco company case as decided by the United States circuit court caused an abrupt decline in some of the former subsidiaries of the company. The senate also took a hand in the proposed dissolution of the International Harvester company and the United States supreme court rendered a decision the effect of which makes for more reasonable rates to shippers.

The market was dull and sagging for the greater part of the day in the first hour and the last. More or less pressure was directed against the standard stocks especially, in the latter session, but a sudden buying movement in Reading stiffened the entire list. Closing prices wiped out a majority of the material declines and net losses, except in a few instances, were scarcely more than fractional. It is not unlikely that the strength and activity of Reading was due to the fact that it sells ex-dividends tomorrow, which in itself would naturally induce some short covering.

Relaxation of foreign demand for cash resulted in another reduction of time rates here, the quotation for three and four months being ¼ per cent under last week's.

The subtreasury was again the medium for the shipment of currency to New Orleans and San Francisco.

The bond market was inclined to sag with some support in the better known issues. Total sales, par value, $2,384,000. United States government bonds were unchanged in call.

Number of sales and leading quotations on bonds today were:
