NEW LOAN COMPANY FORMED

Articles Filed for $2,000,000 Concern, with Headquarters Here.

T. R. McPHERSON IS PRESIDENT

Well Known Financiers to Make Up the Board of Directors—Officers to Be in The Bee Building.

Articles of Incorporation of the Bankers Mortgage Loan company, authorized capital $2,000,000, have been filed in the office of County Clerk Frank Dewey and in the office of the secretary of state at Lincoln. The company will loan money on real estate and furnish capital for public utility projects which can properly secure loans in Nebraska and the northwest.

Officers of the company are: President, Thomas R. McPherson, president of the South Omaha Live Stock exchange, director of the Union Stock Yards company and director of the Corn Exchange National bank; vice president, F. McGivern, president of the Commercial National bank of Fremont and president of the Nebraska Bankers' association; secretary, E. M. Reynolds; directors, George N. Seymour, president of the State Bank of Elgin and the Atlas bank of Neligh; H. A. Peters, banker and live stock dealer of Hay Springs, Neb.; W. E. Farlow, capitalist, New York City.

Offices have been established in suits 301, Bee building.

Speaking of the new corporation Secretary Reynolds said: It is the intention of the incorporators and directors to make the Bankers' Mortgage Loan company the largest company of its kind in the west, and the company will eventually have a capital of $2,000,000. The company is not a bank, but its business is similar to that of a bank. It will loan money on real estate, furnish capital for public utilities and be a great factor in the upbuilding and developing of the great northwest. National banks are not permitted to loan on real estate, thereby taking away from the borrower a source from which they can secure loans, and the rapid growth of the northwest is now calling for more money than our present financial institutions can supply, this applying more particularly to borrowing of money on real estate.

The Bankers' Mortgage Loan company through the sale of its mortgages will bring a great deal of money to the state of Nebraska and the northwest, and greatly relieve the demand now existing. At the present time it is almost impossible to get favorable terms in this territory, which might be producing millions of dollars of crops every year and making great additions to the business of the city. The area of cultivable lands in the northwest runs into the millions, requiring only a little capital and energy rightly directed to be made extremely productive. The business of the company will be in the hands of a board of directors, the individuals of which will be men who are very prominent and successful banking and business men. They have had the experience that will enable them to handle the affairs of the company with the highest efficiency and thereby return to the stockholders the greatest possible dividends. In many respects this is the most important undertaking ever set on foot in the northwest, and we shall watch with interest every step of the progress made.

IMMENSE CHORUS WILL SING

Thousand Voices Will Welcome Sunday School Workers June 17.

REHEARSALS TO BEGIN SOON

Largest Body of Young Women Singers Ever Assembled in the Auditorium Will Give Special Numbers.

Probably as many as 1,000 voices will be heard in chorus at the Auditorium June 17 to welcome the Nebraska State Sunday School association. Known as the Ladies' Festival chorus, this will be the largest body of singers ever appearing in concert at the Auditorium. It comprises women between the ages of 16 and 20 years of age chosen from the Sunday schools of Omaha, South Omaha, Benson and Dundee, and will be directed by John R. Holgren. Rehearsals will begin Tuesday night, the enormous choir being divided in three parts so each division may practice the numbers more thoroughly. Singers in the north part of the city will meet at the North Presbyterian church; from the south side, at the Castellar Street Presbyterian church; and from the central portion of the city the singers will assemble at the Young Men's Christian association auditorium. It is expected that 1,500 representatives of Sunday schools from all over the state will attend the convention, which opens June 18 and lasts until June 20. The committee to arrange for the convention have been appointed as follows: Executive Committee—Judge W. W. Slaughter, chairman; Frank E. Mayer, vice chairman; J. Edson Heath, secretary; Bert A. Wilcox, treasurer; Dr. W. O. Henry, J. J. Dodds, G. G. Wallace, T. F. Sturgess, G. W. Noble, J. P. Jerpe, Frank H. Garvin, Byron K. Eaton, George T. Lindley, J. Dean Ringer, L. E. Orcutt, Robert Smith, J. Fred Smith, Dr. H. E. King, J. L. Duff. Publicity and Advertising Committee—T. F. Sturgess, chairman; Dr. H. E. King, J. Dean Ringer. Program Committee—J. J. Dodds, chairman; L. E. Orcutt. Finance Committee—George T. Lindley, chairman; J. Edson Heath, Byron K. Eaton.

Temporary Rooms Are Secured by the National Guards

Temporary quarters have been rented in the old Germania hall between Eighth and Nineteenth on Harney street by the Nebraska National guards, where each Monday evening the men will meet and the roll called. This was decided on by a meeting of the officers of the guard Friday. In a month they will know whether or not they can have their old quarters back which were destroyed in the fire that wrecked the old car house at Twentieth and Harney streets Wednesday evening. As the national guards lost upwards of $22,500 in the fire, entailing a complete loss, upon which they still owed the state $400, they quite abandon hope of ever again getting on their feet such as they were before the fire. "We haven't very much money and we have to go slow," said Lieutenant Colonel William H. Baehr, "but we will continue to pull along for awhile in these new quarters. They are not much to speak of, but the rooms will answer the purpose of getting the men together for roll call and to talk things over. "If we can get our old quarters back I think we will go back to them, but if the building is torn down or for any reason we can't go there it is probable the men will disband."

Certainly it is a serious and pathetic outlook for the national guards. The state has already given the guards $1,400 on which the organization added $800. They still owe $400 of this amount and to equip new quarters or at the best reequip the old presents a not too hopeful outlook to maintain the functions of the army as they were before their quarters were destroyed. As the national guards lost upwards of $22,500 in the fire, entailing a complete loss, upon which they still owed the state $400, they quite abandon hope of ever again getting on their feet such as they were before the fire. "We haven't very much money and we have to go slow," said Lieutenant Colonel William H. Baehr, "but we will continue to pull along for awhile in these new quarters. EASTERN SUIT HOUSES ARE UNLOADING STOCKS

The unseasonable spring weather throughout the country is having a telling effect upon big New York manufacturers, especially those who operate in ladies' wearing apparel. This is significantly shown in a purchase made this week by Mr. J. B. Orkin, resident New York buyer for Orkin's Douglas street store. Mr. Orkin bought over 1,500 new spring suits in the latest models and popular materials at a price so much lower than half that it shows clearly the eastern cloak and suit houses are preparing to unload their immense stocks at any sacrifice. Mr. Orkin anticipated this condition of the market and watched for the most favorable opportunity to buy these fine tailored suits at his own price. These suits will be placed on sale at Orkin's Douglas street store Saturday. The range of styles and colors is by far the largest shown in Omaha, which will no doubt be greatly appreciated by the women of this vicinity. Mr. Orkin is highly elated over this unusual purchase and expects that this will be the greatest suit sale in the history of the store.

INCREASE SHOWN IN ARRESTS

Report Indicates Largest Number Ever, with One Exception.

MORE RESIDENCE COPS NEEDED

Chief Donahue Recommends that Legislative Action Be Taken to Have Police Apportionment Raised.

Eleven thousand one hundred sixty-seven arrests were made in 1911, according to the annual report of Chief of Police John J. Donahue, made public yesterday. The chief says that this is a larger number of prisoners ever arrested in Omaha with a single exception, that of 1910 when 11,726 were arrested. Of this number 5,306 were men and 1,981 women. There were 2,147 colored persons, 1,363 men and 884 women. The list also shows 22 Indians and 28 Asiatics.

The value of stolen property reported was $28,828.02, of which $22,572.58 was recovered. The total amount collected through fines, levies and incidentals was $129,981.45. After every expense had been paid Chief Donahue reports a balance of $38.87.

The chief says that the department has made great strides during the year, despite the fact that the numerical list of employees was smaller.

Larger Force Needed. He reports very little trouble from strikes, and concludes with a strong recommendation for the employment of additional officers to patrol the residence districts. He says that the business men should petition the legislature to increase the proper funds so that the apportionment can be increased.

The statistical report shows 166 different kinds of crimes, that of drunkenness coming first with 1,999 offenders, and vagrancy second with 1,967. There were thirty-seven nationalities represented among the number, 2,460 being Americans. There was one prisoner each to the Armenian, Bulgarian, Spanish and Welsh races.

The police court records show that more prisoners were arrested and tried in September than any other month. One thousand, one hundred and five were tried in that month. February claimed the least, with 77. Two hundred and two persons were bound over to the district court for serious offenses; seventy-four were appealed, and 117 were still to be tried after December 31. Twenty-seven thousand, eight hundred and sixty-five meals were served to city prisoners. The report also shows various other statistics. The report is believed to be the most thorough and comprehensive yet issued by Chief Donahue.

Labor Issue Makes Commissioner Slate

A new slate of five candidates for city commissioner has been made and approved by the Labor league since the primaries disarranged the former alignment. Those endorsed for the election are John J. Hyder, James C. Dahlman, A. C. Kugel, Charles H. Withnell and Thomas McGovern. "We agreed upon these five men several days ago," said President Robert Bender, "but have been withholding the announcement. There is no objection to the men we have endorsed as far as labor is concerned." Commission candidates have been working quietly for the last two weeks. The homes of residents are flooded with literature and display cards have been posted wherever the law allows and the citizens tolerate.

"THE JUNIOR" PRESENTED BY MERRYMAKERS' CLUB

"The Junior," a college comedy in three acts, was presented at Jacob's hall Thursday evening by the members of the Merry-makers' Dramatic club. The particularly bright spots in the performance were the portrayals of "Violet," by Miss Grace Murphy, and of "Demosthenes Merwyn," by Francis Perkins. A musical program was presented between the acts and this portion of an entirely delightful evening was featured by little Miss Helen Croner's graceful dancing.

OFFICER'S UNIFORM FOOLS A MAN FROM WINNIPEG

Charles Morris, who asserts Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, is his home, owes his being upon the city work pile, to his mistaking Traffic Officer Emery for a soldier. Emery was standing at Twelfth and Dodge streets, Thursday night and Morris approached and begged for a dime for a meal. As Emery turned about Morris saw his mistake. He was arrested and sentenced to thirty days.

CLAUSE IN WILL MAY COST HEIRS THEIR SHARE

Having failed in an attempt to break the will of the late William Hopper, two of his children, Daniel G. Hopper and Mrs. Lomila McLean, may be cut off with practically nothing. Executors of the will have asked County Judge Crawford for a construction of a clause of the will which it is believed means they shall receive only $100 each. The court will rule within two weeks. Mr. Hopper left an estate approximating $300,000. Daniel Hopper and Mrs. McLean were dissatisfied with bequests of $12,000 and contested unsuccessfully. The clause in question sets out that if any legatees shall contest any part of the will they shall receive $100. The language is a trifle ambiguous, though the belief of the executors is that the testator meant they should be cut off. The contesting legatees deny this and demand their shares under the will.

NEW YORKER ARRESTED FOR BEATING HIMSELF

John O'Riley, late resident of New York City, was arrested at Eleventh and Farnam streets for fighting with himself and other imaginary things which he appeared to see floating around in the air. O'Riley, who had partaken freely of liquid refreshments, was evicted from a saloon near Eleventh and Farnam streets. He became very angry because of the way he had been treated and standing in the center of the sidewalk offered to take on all comers for a fight to the finish. Finding no one who would battle with him he threw off his coat and gave himself a good beating, and had just started in on the fifth round when time was called by a policeman.

CONDITION OF MISS COLL CONTINUES TO BE SERIOUS

The condition of Miss Julia Coll, a stenographer, who was injured Thursday afternoon by a speeding taxicab driven by Robert Lambert, is said to be critical. Miss Coll suffers considerable pain, and Dr. Elmer R. Porter is hopeful that an operation will not be necessary. A charge of speeding and reckless driving has been preferred against Lambert. He will probably be tried in police court Saturday morning.

WOMAN SUGGESTS A MONUMENT FOR BRANDEIS

An Omaha woman in a letter to "Samson" suggests an appropriate way for the people of Omaha to honor their merchant prince, Emil Brandeis, who went down with the Titanic. She suggests that a monument be erected on the grounds of the new court house when the old building is torn down. If this does not prove popular to the people she suggests a drinking fountain on the grounds or a plot of ground set aside for a "breathing place" in the heart of Omaha.

REV. ALEXANDER CORKEY TO SPEAK HERE MONDAY

Rev. Alexander Corkey will address the regular quarterly rally of the Tri-City Baraca union at the First Baptist church, Twenty-ninth and Harney streets, Monday evening on "Bible Literature in the Public Schools."

The plan to secure from the new city commissioners an ordinance providing for a social service board will be discussed. The attendance banner, held for the last three months by the Second Presbyterian church of Council Bluffs, will be awarded to the class having the largest attendance at the meeting.

Farm Worth $100 an Acre Year Ago is Now Part of River Bed.

MISSOURI IS STILL ON RAMPAGE

Valuable Tracts of Land Thought to Have Been Above Flood Stage Are in Some Instances Washed Away.

The Missouri river continues to eat away at the bank in the vicinity of Folsom, opposite Bellevue, and all efforts to stop erosion have been without success. Since the water in the stream commenced falling a week ago the current has moved east more than half a mile, completely engulfing a number of valuable farms. The Richardson farm, containing 140 acres, which was between the Burlington tracks and Folsom, has been entirely washed into the river. This land a year ago was half a mile from the river and was considered cheap at $100 per acre.

Eighty acres of highly improved land west and south of Folsom owned by a Mr. Godsey, together with all of the buildings, has been eaten away and is now a part of the river bed. South of the Godsey place the Kemp tract of twenty acres of alfalfa meadow has been washed away and the current is rapidly cutting into the balance of his farm to the east.

TRACKS ARE WASHED OUT

At the south end of Folsom, where the Burlington track is washed out, the current set in toward the east and has worked inland, not even stopping when it reached the bluff. Where a few days ago there was a wide bottom between the foot of the bluff and the river now this land has all been washed away and the current has cut against the hill, washing down its side. Here there is a sheer precipice of 125 feet and at the foot the water is thirty feet deep. The Burlington tracks were laid across this bottom and were supposed to be high above any water line.

Below Folsom the river curves to the east, following the base of the hills. Here it is heading directly for the open country, its purpose apparently being to reach a low valley or creek bed that extends almost south, connecting with the river below Plattsmouth.

How Build Today To Replace the Worn-out Parts of Yesterday?

Each day thinkers use up cells of the Brain. Each day active workers destroy cells in the nerve centers. If the food lacks the things Nature demands for rebuilding, Nervous Prostration and Brain-fag result. Suppose a bricklayer tried to build a wall and the boss furnished brick, sand and water, but left out the lime? Suppose you eat plenty of albumin and take sufficient water, but neglect food which contains Phosphate of Potash? Nature cannot rebuild gray matter in nerve centers and brain without Phosphate of Potash which binds together albumin and water to make it. Phosphate of Potash, as grown in the grains by Nature, is more than half the mineral salts in Grape-Nuts.
