

Supposing the Trees Were to Wear Last Year's Leaves!

Wouldn't that be queer? Of course it would—all nature would be out of tune. The same with your last year's clothes. They're out of date, have seen their service and you need new clothes, same as the budding trees putting on their new suit of foliage in the different beautiful shades.

Follow nature's example—our new suits for young men and boys are in full bloom with their varied beautiful colorings and patterns and made by the most skilled tailors in the world.

ELECTION BOARD CASE TODAY

Judge Leslie Will Hear Petition on Mandamus Suit.

COUNCIL MAY NAME THE BOARD

Petition Recites that Mayor Has Named Some of His Appointees and Some Who Are Incompetent.

Petition for a writ of mandamus commanding Councilman Louis Serka, president of the city council, immediately to submit to the council a list of judges and clerks of election to serve at the city election May 5 was filed in district court by the seven Citizens Union candidates for councilman Friday. The case was assigned to Judge Charles Leslie of the equity division and came up for hearing at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

In the petition the candidates declare that under state law the mayor and city council together are required to make such a list and the mayor has attempted to name the judges and clerks without the approval of the council. The council has rejected the mayor's list and it now is the duty of the president of the council to submit a list and ask the council to approve it.

The petition that the mayor's list was unsatisfactory because it included the names of many men who held positions by virtue of appointment by the mayor or other officials of the present administration, and many men who are incompetent to serve as judges and clerks of election.

DAHLMAN PUTS ON NEW NAMES

Adds Lists Presented by Labor League and Gate City Club.

Special committees from the Labor League and the Gate City club called upon Mayor Dahlman Friday and demanded to know if their respective lists of judges and clerks for election had been submitted by him for confirmation. When told by the mayor that their lists had been duly considered and the majority of names they had given him were included in his list of 230 judges and clerks, and the whole had been turned down by the council, they asked to know what alternative they had.

"I can say to you, however, that as far as I am concerned every one of those names on that list I submitted are going to stay there."

The executive committee of the Gate City club was the first to call upon the mayor, Robert Houghton, as chairman of the committee, was the principal spokesman.

"We want to know, mayor, if the list of names for judges and clerks of election we submitted were received by you," he asked.

"Yes," answered the mayor, "I received your list and appointed most of the men you named. Your list and the list submitted by the Labor League were given to me in time to include in my list. The Citizens Union never submitted any list to me. They waited until after the time had passed and then came in to scratch out the names of 230 men and denounce all those men as crooks."

"Well, mayor," said Houghton, "we came here to tell you that we still urge the appointment of those men."

Mayor Dahlman told the committee the question of the electorate probably would not be decided before Saturday afternoon, and they would have to await the outcome.

TITANIC'S SPEED BASIS OF INQUIRY

made a record the boilers burst. Buckley did not know the name of the fireman. Buckley said that he thought steamer passengers were given as good an opportunity to escape as the first and second class passengers.

The witness said he got into the sixth lifeboat to leave the ship and that when the order came for men to leave the boats he was crying. A woman who he thought was Mrs. John Jacob Astor saw him and covered him up with a shawl in order that he might escape. He testified the officers fired at men in the lifeboats and made them come back to the ship.

F. A. S. Franklin, vice president of the International Mercantile Marine, issued a statement this afternoon in which he declared that he had no authority information that the Titanic had sunk until he received a wireless message at 6:30 o'clock Monday evening.

Evidence Taken in Morley Case

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, May 3.—(Special Telegram)—The Morley case went to the jury at 2:45 o'clock.

LINCOLN, May 3.—(Special)—The hearing in the case of Charles Morley, on trial for the murder of Warden Delahanty of the penitentiary was concluded this forenoon and the attorneys for the defense moved for an instructed verdict of acquittal on the ground that the state had charged Morley directly with the killing of Delahanty and had failed to prove that he fired the fatal shot.

County Attorney Strode argued it was immaterial who fired the fatal shot so long as it was fired by one of the three who were shooting simultaneously. Judge Stewart overruled the motion and the argument to the jury was commenced. Only three witnesses were examined today, two for the state and one for the defense. M. Wilson, a convict bookkeeper at the prison, told of the shooting of Delahanty as he saw it from the prison office, the shot which killed the warden being one of a number which were fired from the turnkey's room.

Deputy Sheriff Eikenberry testified Morley told him, shortly after the capture, that Gray gave him the gun with which he was armed. Mrs. R. B. Dickman at whose house the convicts stopped shortly after the escape from the prison, was the only witness called by the defense. It was sought to show by her that at the time the men were at her house that Morley acted as if he were under the influence of liquor or opium, but she was not permitted to tell, the court ruling that too much time had elapsed between the commission of the crime and the appearance at her house to make it material.

Heaney Divorce Case Settled Out of Court

CHEYENNE, Wyo., May 2.—(Special.)—As the result of an agreement reached this noon between General Hugo Donzelman, representing Mrs. Alta Heaney, and Lacey & Lacey, representing Colonel Thomas Heaney, Sr., the celebrated Heaney divorce case will undoubtedly be settled out of court, so far as a division of the property is concerned. The taking of testimony was concluded last evening, and arguments of attorneys were to have been heard by Judge D. H. Craig, upon his return from Casper next week, but all that will now be necessary apparently will be the signing of a decree by the court, giving Mrs. Heaney a divorce and the custody of the minor child, Geraldine.

This morning General Donzelman called upon Mr. Heaney and his attorneys for the purpose of making a settlement, and at the close of the conference, it was stated Colonel Heaney had agreed to give his wife about $10,000 cash, in full settlement of all claims upon him, it being understood that out of this sum Mrs. Heaney is to pay her attorneys' fees and her costs in the case. It is also agreed that Mrs. Heaney shall have the custody of the little daughter.

Colonel Heaney, who has for many years been a prominent business man here is at present proprietor of the Capitol avenue and Atlas theaters. He and Mrs. Heaney were married about ten years ago, Mrs. Heaney being his second wife.

NONPARTISAN ELECTION BILL PASSED IN WISCONSIN

MADISON, Wis., May 2.—The Wisconsin assembly today passed a nonpartisan elections bill to apply to all cities of the state. The vote was 71 to 14, two republicans, Bell and Draper, voting "no" with the socialists. The assembly defeated a socialist amendment to permit grouping on the ballot the names of all candidates designated under the same principle to be voted for as a group.

The socialists characterized the nonpartisan movement as a conspiracy to drive the socialists out of office.

Harmon is Delighted.

BALTIMORE, May 2.—In a speech at Belair, Md., Governor Harmon declared that "Government could only be conducted by parties."

"The question for the democratic party to decide in this nomination is whose nomination will offer the greatest chance of success and who will rally about him the greatest number this fall. The president and former president are engaged in recrimination and controversy, which is undignified, to say the least, but we are delighted it is in the ranks of our opponents and not in our own ranks."

Fifty-Nine Burials at Halifax.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 2.—Protestant and Roman Catholic memorial services for the Titanic victims were held here today.

DEATH RECORD

Mrs. W. F. Fritch. STELLA, Neb., May 2.—(Special.)—Mrs. W. F. Fritch, for more than thirty years a resident on a farm northwest of Stella, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Volker, in Johnson, after a two days' illness of pneumonia. She was born in Germany eighty-seven years ago and married there in 1848 to W. F. Fritch, who died in 1866. They came to America in 1869 and lived in Jackson county, Iowa, until 1874, when they moved to southeastern Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. Fritch celebrated their golden wedding in 1898. Seven children, forty-five grandchildren and twenty-four great grandchildren survive.
