

Brandeis Store for Men and Boys

THE STANDARD OF ECONOMY IN DESIRABLE CLOTHING Business Suits for Men and Young Men $15-$17.50-$20

Exceptional Values in MEN'S TROUSERS
Sample Pants—All sizes, in plain or peg top; many patterns at $1.69, $1.98 up to $3.98

At these prices we make unusual efforts to combine durable fabrics, serviceable linings, good workmanship and correct styles into thoroughly desirable garments, recommended to men who seek to dress well at moderate cost. All the new shades of grey and blue fabrics made up into two or three-button models. Included are several recent purchases of higher grade lines, giving unusual attractiveness to our display at $15-$17.50-$20

Thousands of Blue Serge Suits —for Men and Young Men— Guaranteed Absolutely Fadeless

MEN'S LOW SHOES AT $2.85
Tan and black calf, blucher and button styles; well made shoes in the newest lasts—all sizes $2.85
Brandeis Stores are sole agents in Omaha for Hurley Bros. Shoes for men. Many handsome styles, at per pair $5.00

Strictly hand tailored—all newer models—values that cannot be duplicated at $10.00, $12.50, $15.00 up to $25.00

Brandeis Store Has Been Designated Official Agent for The Best Ready Made Clothes in America

Hirsh-Wickwire Suits for Men at $25 to $40

Rogers-Peet & Co. Clothes for Men at $25 to $35.00

Society Brand Suits for Men at $20 to $35.00

New York Retail Stock of Men's Hats

Through our New York buyer we secured at a bargain these choice lots.

Hats worth up to $2.50 and $3, go at $1

All the season's styles including soft and stiff hats, imported Velour hats, new Cloth and Silk Stitched Hats and the new Corduroy effects—these hats retailed at $2.50, $3.00 and $3.50, your choice at $1

Men's $2.00 Automobile and Golf Hats at 50c—From the New York Retail Stock—fine cravenette and cloth hats—values up to $2.00, in one lot, at 50c

English Golf and Auto Caps at 45c—From the New York Retail Stock—values up to $1.50, in one lot special at 45c

Boys' and Children's Hats and Caps at 25c—From the New York Retail Stock; excellent hats and caps in the newest styles—values up to $1.25, in one special lot at 25c

John B. Stetson Hats at $3.50—Brandeis Stores are agents for the famous John B. Stetson Soft and Stiff Hats—all the newest spring styles, will go at a moderate price of $3.50

Base Ball & Bat Free With Every Boys' Wool Suit.

Dependable Clothes for Boys

Second Floor Old Store

Manhattan Washable Suits for boys, in linens, reps, kindergarten cloths and galateas, at $1.25 to $3.98

Boys' Long Pant Suits, all new shades and fabrics, at $7.50 to $12.50. A special Serge Suit at stock—worth $6.00 to $8.50

Boys' Knickerbocker Suits—Short lots from the present season's stock—worth $6.50 to $7.50, splendid values at 4.45

Spec'l Boys' Waist Section
$1.00 Pongee and Soisettee Blouses with the high military collar—tans, white, blues and fancy stripes, at .50c
Boys' 15c Hose at .10c
Boys' 50c Belts at .25c
Boys' 50c overalls at .30c
Boys' $1.00 Knickerbocker Pants at .65c

Base Ball Suits
Blue trimmed in grey. Grey trimmed in red. Blue trimmed in white. Grey Stripe trimmed in maroon.
Shirts have short sleeves—padded pants, at $1 to $1.50
Stockings to match given free with every suit Saturday.

Saturday Specials in Brandeis Basement

Boys' $3.50 and $4.00 Suits in grey, brown and tan shades—ages 8 to 16, also Russian and Blouse Suits, at $1.98
Boys' $2.50 and $3.50 Long Pants, special values, at $1.85
Boys' Washable Suits in Russian or Blouse styles, at .60c
Boys' Base Ball Suits in blue flannel, trimmed with white, 50c
Boys' 50c White Waists—black saten, blue chambray, black and white percales and fancy madras, at .21c
75c Rompers in tan, blue and brown chambray—all full cut 15c

Men's Furnishings

Musung Union Suits—Largest variety of styles and fabrics—short or long sleeves—regular or knee length at $1.00 to $3.00
Superior Union Suits for Men of extra fine quality, at per garment $1.50, $2.00 and $3.00
Men's Spring Union Suits—Light or medium weight—long or short sleeves—made to sell at $1.00 and $1.50, in basement, at .75c and 98c
Sample Lines of Men's High Class Shirts—Values up to $2.00, at .50c, 69c and 98c
New Manhattan and E. & W. Shirts—Many with detached Soft Collars.
Madras and Percalé Shirts at $1.50 and $2.00
Imported Madras and Russian Cords $2.50, to $3.50
Silk Shirts—excellent quality, at each $4.98
Men's Derby ribbed shirts and drawers—values up to 75c, in basement, at .80c and 50c
Men's Negligé Shirts—worth up to $1.00, in basement, at .50c

From Our Near Neighbors

Waterloo.
Daphne Rohwer visited relatives in Omaha from Friday afternoon until Monday morning.
Willard Fry has finished his school work for the year, having been taking law at Creighton.
Miss Kellogg of Council Bluffs, who was visiting Mrs. Teal the last week, returned home Tuesday.
Amy Lewis went to Omaha Friday afternoon and visited friends there and at the Bluffs until Sunday afternoon.
George Todd sprained his back severely Thursday forenoon while lifting sacks at the Robinson Seed company's warehouse.
James Calvert left Waterloo Tuesday morning, his destination being the west, though he had not yet found a new location.
Mrs. Merryweather of Valley, sister of Mrs. David Niel, visited the latter and family over Sunday and returned home Monday.
Lawrence Robinson and two of his university friends, Walter Knoop and George Hansen, came here Friday night from Lincoln.
John M. Christensen, who had been in Idaho the last week looking over the country, returned Monday evening from the west.
Miss Della Robinson went to Lincoln Saturday to visit among university friends several days. She returned home Thursday.
Miss Mable Doherty, who teaches at Elkhorst, and Miss Myrtle Doherty, clerking at the Rogers' Merchandise company, Valley, spent Sunday with the home folks, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doherty.

The members of the Mystic Workers had a social affair at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Appleby, west of town, Tuesday night.
Fred Brown and O. J. Meyer drove in Saturday night from Richardson county, where they had gone two weeks before to work at ditching and tilling.
J. G. Herrington went to Omaha Saturday afternoon to visit his daughter, Mrs. Luton, and family, over Sunday.
Last Saturday afternoon John Graff had three ribs broken and was severely bruised in a fall while helping to load a car of corn at Waldron Seed company's plant.
J. E. Hinesley was here last week visiting friends and left Friday for Stuart, where he now lives and is in business. Ed Cobb, who was formerly at Stuart, is now living at Schuyler.
The regular meeting of the Masonic lodge was held Tuesday evening with a good attendance. There was considerable work, after which the members enjoyed a lunch at the Wilkins confectionery.
Mr. and Mrs. Jess Harris left Waterloo Wednesday evening for Columbus, where they will stay a short time before going to Canada. They expect to locate in the Alberta country, where Charles Maynard is now working.
E. E. Hooper was at Waterloo several nights the last week putting in the days at Omaha, where Mrs. Hinesley has been in the Emanuel hospital since last Thursday, having gone there for an operation.
Eph Sumner went to Omaha Sunday to see his wife, who has been at a hospital for the last two weeks. Mrs. Sumner underwent an operation for appendicitis and recovered nicely, being able to leave the hospital Tuesday.
E. E. Mendenhall came in from Omaha Tuesday evening and visited over night and Wednesday forenoon with Shelby Crink and family and other friends. He went to Fremont Wednesday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Robinson in their car.
Carl Wraga of Omaha, nephew of Charles Doherty, came from Omaha Wednesday at 2 o'clock and went to the farm. Carl drew a number in the Dakota land lottery last fall and his uncle is going up with him to help make a selection.
At the congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church held Monday evening of last week all the former officers were again elected as follows: C. B. Noyes, elder; E. Swan King, deacon; E. P. Noyes, clerk; C. L. Stebbins, treasurer; B. F. Bell, trustee.
C. E. Hammarstrom brought his brother Oscar and wife to Waterloo Sunday morning and they returned to their home at Council Bluffs after a visit of several weeks at the brother's home. Mr. Hammarstrom lives on the former Tom Hartford farm, west of the Neils Brown homestead, and was in the track of the flood, being damaged quite heavily.
The village board met Tuesday night at the drug store, all members present. The bond and application of B. F. Johnson for saloon license were acted upon favorably and license granted for this year. The license and occupation tax are the same as last year. $1.20. License for pool tables was granted C. B. Augustus, and the clerk authorized to notify the proprietor that the pool hall be closed at 9 o'clock each night.

Lincoln.
Gretta Saturday to see Mrs. Smith's mother, who is ill.
The regular meeting of the Valley Women's club was held at the home of Mrs. W. C. Friday afternoon.
The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church will give a seaside bazaar and food sale Saturday afternoon at Hubbard's hall.
Dr. J. C. Agee sold his residence to R. T. Caldwell and has moved into the Aaron Wickland house until he builds on the lot adjoining his former residence.
Aaron Wickland finished loading his car and left with it Monday for Minnesota, where he recently purchased a farm. The family will go the first of the week. Miss Ruth Peterson will accompany them.
Miss Mabel Johnson, Eva Harrier, Bulah Cyara, Einar Anderson and Clifford Edmister are expected to come home Friday to attend the class play, "Emerald," which will be given in the opera house by the class of 1912.
Elkhorn.
Mrs. Anna McGrew visited in Omaha Friday.
Mrs. D. E. Quinn visited relatives here Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. Albertson arrived from Manila, Ia., Friday.
Julius Schmidt moved his family Tuesday into the Hickay house.
Mrs. B. B. Baldwin and sons, Cedric and Carroll, went to Dunning Tuesday to visit.
Misses Eunice and Marguerite Richardson of Waterloo visited Miss Marie Goodhard Saturday.
John Purcell and brother, Charles, went to North Bend Saturday to visit with their uncle and aunt.
Mr. Fred Lebbert and sister, Miss Augusta of Bennington, visited the J. A. Gibbons home Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rodgers of South Omaha visited several days this week with Mrs. Van Aist.
Mrs. H. Meyers celebrated her birthday Monday by entertaining her many friends at cards and luncheon.
Robert Baldwin came in from Dunning, Neb., Thursday. He will take back a load of cows to his ranch.
Mrs. J. A. Gibbons visited in the country a couple of days this week with her brothers James and Charles Betts.
Louis Neiman moved his family to the William Schmidt residence this week. Mr. Schmidt will go to Herbert, Canada, in a week to join his son, Henry, on his homestead.

Springfield.
Low Bishop of Neigh is in the neighborhood visiting relatives.
J. M. Ewell is a juror in United States court this week at Omaha.
Ed Hoyt has sold his farm machinery and moved to Springfield.
J. C. Miller, editor of the Monitor, left Tuesday for a three weeks' trip in California.
John Seer bought the farm machinery and lease of Ed Hoyt and will farm again this year.
David Armstrong of Warrensburg, Mo., was here to attend the funeral of his brother, Aaron.
Mrs. John Schaal was called to Louisville Wednesday by the serious illness of her mother.
Cyrus Laine and family left Thursday for Alliance where they will make their future home.
Aron Arbestrom, aged 78 years, died suddenly Monday morning. The funeral was held Wednesday.
Surveyor Patterson was here Wednesday helping to lay out some new lots in the Springfield cemetery.
Mrs. E. G. Schaal has moved to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lee Blodgett, where she will reside in future.
A. V. Rogers was appointed a member of the village board to take the place of Dr. Britton who moved to Exeter.
August Gleesman caught his foot in a revolving pulley of a gasoline engine and suffered a badly sprained ankle.
Miss Gertrude Rich, a former Springfield teacher, was married Wednesday in Omaha to Mr. Clifford Patterson of Akron, Colo.
Work commenced Monday on the new postoffice and jewelry store which will be ready by July 1. John Natterman is the contractor.
The Platte river bridge between here and Louisville is completed and traffic has been resumed. The high water took out about 60 feet of the structure.

Arlington.
Miss Lizzie Elmer spent Friday and Saturday with Fremont friends.
Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Baldwin were transacting business in Fremont Tuesday.
Mrs. C. J. Anderson was the guest of Omaha friends last week, returning home Saturday.
Mrs. C. P. Masters and Miss Gertrude Masters were Fremont passengers this week. The family will go the first of the week. Mrs. Ruth Peterson will accompany them.
H. L. Andrews arrived in town last Monday, took a course of the Review Herald as lease and manager.
W. J. Crane has again appeared on the streets after being confined to his home by a prolonged spell of sickness.
Lillian Hollenbeck of Wayne came down Tuesday evening for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Abraham of Elk City.
G. F. Unland returned the last of the week from Los Angeles, Cal., where he has spent the winter among his sons.
F. A. Reynolds and son, Frank, were called to North Bend to attend the funeral of Mr. Reynolds' cousin, R. Clay Rev. and Mrs. Esplin departed Monday for Minneapolis, where Mr. Esplin will attend as a delegate the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. Grandma Gaines after spending a few weeks at Creston, the guest of her son, O. E. Gaines, returned home last Saturday. Mrs. Gaines' daughter, Lynn Gaines, who remained here over Sunday.
Millard.
Miss Tina Harmon of Papillon, was a guest last week of Margaret Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Peters gave a party Tuesday, where many guests gathered.
Mrs. Nolte and daughter, Nina, of Elkhorn were visiting with friends Tuesday afternoon.
Mr. Headley Stuart returned Monday from Florida, where he has been visiting for several weeks.
Miss Gladys Baldwin of Omaha was at home several days last week recovering from a slight illness.
Miss Lois Anderson of Elkhorn visited Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Anderson.
Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Anderson, who has been taking the agent's place during his absence returned Wednesday.
Dr. Bender of Omaha has been taking care of Dr. Foster's condition during the latter's stay at the hospital.
Mr. F. A. Baldwin returned Tuesday morning from Pueblo, Colo., where he was called by the death of his nephew.
Dr. Foster returned from the hospital at Omaha Monday, where he was taken last week, suffering from a severe illness.
Mr. and Mrs. Westphalen of Omaha and their daughter, Mrs. Herbert Armstrong, of Dodge, Wyo., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Flahback Saturday.
Wednesday of last week the marriage of Miss Edith Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Anderson took place to Mr. J. W. Anderson of Rich Hill, Mo., at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. P. Krebs. The young couple returned Wednesday.
Tekamah.
Mr. and Mrs. John A. Singhaus were Omaha visitors Tuesday, going down and back in their auto.
John Pease and Charles Petersen returned Wednesday from their trip to inspect Florida lands.
Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Houston left Thursday evening for a month's trip to the Pacific coast.
Mrs. Carson left Friday for Bloomington, Ind., her home town. After a winter's visit in Tekamah at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Richard Houston.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Tuttle arrived home Tuesday from their winter's stay in southern California. Mr. Tuttle says he is so well pleased with the west that he may decide to go there and live.
Henry Goll went down to Omaha last Friday and returned in sister, Mrs. A. P. Krebs. The young couple returned Wednesday.
Miss Rich of the Tekamah high school was united in marriage last Friday at Omaha to a Mr. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson will continue in her position until the close of the school year, when she and her husband will take up life on a ranch in Colorado.

Bennington.
G. W. Giandt has purchased a new automobile.
Masons are busy getting in the foundation for the A. White house.
Dr. C. W. Hickey was transacting business at Omaha Wednesday.
Adolph Ott of Rosalie, Neb., was calling on friends here over Sunday.
P. Mangold returned Thursday morning from a business trip to Denver.
Irvington.
Mrs. Maggie Kitchen visited in Omaha Tuesday.
Mrs. Claud Brewster of Canada is visiting relatives in Irvington this week.
Mrs. Green of Omaha visited with her daughter, Mrs. Elton, Saturday and Sunday.
Mrs. Andrew Christopherson spent

shot gun. The charge took off his lower jaw and cut away part of his face.
Mr. Janssen had been acting peculiarly for some time and had been threatening to shoot some of his neighbors who lived directly across the road. They came to town and swore out a warrant for his arrest. When the constable reached his home to take him into custody, he found the almost unrecognizable body lying on the floor of the shanty with the gun near it.
For several years Mr. Janssen has been considered a little off on some points, but never considered dangerously so until recently. During the past week he had sold off all of his stock, giving as a reason that he could not get along with his neighbors. Then he got his gun and shot promiscuously and talked about time to die. He has no relatives that are known of by the people here.
Key to the Situation—Bee Advertising.

We are suiting Omaha because Omaha men are looking for clothes MADE IN OMAHA.

$15

Buy any suit in the shop. We are the only fifteen dollar tailor making clothes in Omaha.

WE TRY ON EVERY COAT IN THE BASTING.

Mid-West Tailors

Arthur L. Lemson, Mgr.
Phone Douglas 8124.
1305 Harney St.

Delight of All
JETER

Orkin Brothers

318 - 320 SOUTH 16TH. ST.

Over 1000 Stylish Dresses

Worth from $19.50 to $7.50

to $25.00

Serges, Whipcords and Worsteds

This sale will be appreciated and remembered as the grandest dress sale of the season.

It is impossible to tell in print of the wonderful selection of beautiful new styles and all are so perfectly tailored that alteration will scarcely be necessary—you will find models to suit every figure and every taste in plain or fancy designs—made of all Wool Materials.

Dresses worth from $19.50 to $7.50 to $25.00, on sale at . . .

Sale Starts Saturday, Promptly 8 A. M.

shot gun. The charge took off his lower jaw and cut away part of his face.
Mr. Janssen had been acting peculiarly for some time and had been threatening to shoot some of his neighbors who lived directly across the road. They came to town and swore out a warrant for his arrest. When the constable reached his home to take him into custody, he found the almost unrecognizable body lying on the floor of the shanty with the gun near it.
For several years Mr. Janssen has been considered a little off on some points, but never considered dangerously so until recently. During the past week he had sold off all of his stock, giving as a reason that he could not get along with his neighbors. Then he got his gun and shot promiscuously and talked about time to die. He has no relatives that are known of by the people here.
Key to the Situation—Bee Advertising.