Christian association auditorium, Sunday, May 6, at 4 o'clock. The doctor is a native Armenian and was formerly a photographer to the sultan of Turkey. He is thorough versed on conditions in Turkey which make his addresses very interesting.

On Thursday evening, May 2, about 20 working boys assembled as guests of the Boys' department. As fully two-thirds of the boys had never been in the association before they enjoyed the program, which consisted in a game of indoor base ball, a wrestling and a boxing match, which was followed by a swim in the pool. Before the boys left for home they were served light refreshments and invited to return next Thursday evening provided they would bring a friend with them who had never been in the association before.

The captains of the Garden club met Mr. Lomenager, president of the Douglas County Agricultural society, who talked to them relative to exhibiting their vegetables at the next county fair. Mr. Turner delivered to the captains full instructions as to the Garden club competition.

The delightful weather of the past days has wakened among the boys a desire for hikes. On Thursday evening, May 2, the Epworth league, a wrestling and a boxing match, which was followed by a swim in the pool. Before the boys left for home they were served light refreshments and invited to return next Thursday evening provided they would bring a friend with them who had never been in the association before.

A large number of men are taking advantage of the special summer membership in the association so that they may use the pool and showers during the hot summer days which will soon be here.

The Young Men's Christian Association (Glee and Glee) report to the Educational department, showed that it was a very enthusiastic organization in point of attendance, work done and concerts given. During the last year they have assisted different religious organizations of the city in giving eleven concerts and singing before 1,500 people. On account of conflicting dates they decided further invitations to sing, but have three more concerts on the accepted list. On Thursday evening, May 2, the Epworth league of Hancock Park Methodist church will give a concert in which they will appear. Mr. Lee G. Kratz is the director.

Y. W. C. A. Notes. Sunday—The vesper service program at 4:30 will be a Victrola concert of sacred music. The whole afternoon will be devoted practically to the musical program. All young women are cordially invited. The building is open from 2 to 5 p. m. C. U. CANDIDATES HAVE MEET

Speak to Scandinavian Voters at Washington Hall.

Does This to Prove that He and His Associates Do Not Belong to the "Silk Stockings" Brigade.

Candidates of the Citizens' union at the mass meeting at Washington hall last night scored Mayor Dahlman and touched briefly on the other six candidates as well.

While the meeting was supposed to be a general mass meeting for the people of the city at large the majority of those present were Scandinavians, and two of the speakers addressed the assemblage in their mother tongue.

"This election is a conflict between honest government on one side and gang rule on the other," said Mr. Redick.

"Mayor Dahlman says he is working for the interest of the plain people. The plain people our distinguished friend refers to are the residents of the Third ward. The police protect these people. Is this what we pay them for? We pay them to protect our lives and property, but instead of doing this they have been turned into a political machine. We are going to change this condition if elected, and the first man we are going to scrutinize is the chief of police."

"I have been sized up by the chief executive of the city as the bell wether of the flock. The reason for this is due to a verdict I gave against James Dahlman when I was serving on the district court bench for $5,000."

Judge Redick also objected to having the Citizens' union candidates called the "silk stocking brigade" by the mayor, and had several of them display his hose to prove this was not true. He also took issue with the election boards appointed by the mayor, saying that the latter had claimed that they were the same as served at the primaries, when in reality there were 12 new judges and clerks appointed.

C. A. Aiden had not yet recovered from the shock caused by Mayor Dahlman's statement of his short residence here and his great activity in politics. He again dwelt on the many things he had done to uphold the city, saying no objection had been made to his services while in this capacity, although strenuous objection was made to his participating in politics.

Long before the candidates had ceased to speak of their opponents a large number had left the hall, and by the time Mr. Aiden had completed denunciation of the seven men on the "silk stocking" ticket, but a scattering of the audience that had at first greeted the speakers remained.

The meeting approached the nearest to enthusiasm that has yet greeted the members of the Citizens' union. As this will practically be the last meeting that will be held before the election Tuesday, all endeavored to say in a polite way something disagreeable about their opponents.

John J. Ryder Candidate for Commissioner At Election to be held Tuesday, May 7

I assert that indorsements from any source do not change the man. His daily life among his fellow workers, and in the sight of his friends and neighbors, must indicate whether he is a good or a bad citizen.

As State Statistician and Labor Commissioner, under an unsolicited appointment from Governor Sheldon, I had official dealings with many business men of Omaha. Let them say whether or not I was courteous and fair.

As a member of the Public Library Board, I will let the librarian and the other directors say whether or not I have been faithful, efficient and willing to work.

For a quarter of a century I have given as freely as a wage-earner could of my time and money to real, practical welfare work. My efforts may not come under the head of great service—but they were exercised freely and earnestly, without hope of pay or reward.

I have been paid a substantial salary as a newspaper man to gather statistics and dig out facts concerning Omaha's municipal affairs, for special articles, as well as in the ordinary course of the day's work. Thus I have learned where the present system is weak, and have pointed out to interested parties where the commission form can be strong. I claim to be equipped by experience and training to go to work at once as a commissioner, intelligently and effectively.

All the interests I have in the world are anchored here—my family, my home and one other piece of property.

I am FOR OMAHA absolutely, sincerely and without pledge or promise of any kind, to any person or body.

With no powerful family or financial connection, I ask your support on my knowledge of city affairs, on my ability to do things, and on my standing as a man of good credit and decent, useful life.

Trained newspaper men, wherever entrusted with public office, have "made good." I have a pride in my profession that will impel me to strive for a record of good work honestly done.

I wear no man's collar, whether he be high or low. I will be OMAHA'S MAN all the time.

JOHN J. RYDER.
