Wyoming Sheepmen Take Possession of Hay and Grain

CHEYENNE, Wyo., May 7.—(Special.)—Reports from central and eastern Wyoming, where recent storms raised havoc with the live stock industry, tell of the desperation of stock owners when, with the ground covered deep with snow and facing certain heavy losses unless food was provided, they went out and stole hay and grain wherever they could find it and fed their sheep and cattle. It mattered not who the food belonged to; they needed it, and they took it, intending to settle with the owners afterwards.

J. A. Delfelder, who for many years has been one of the largest live stock operators of central Wyoming, and who years ago saw the necessity of providing hay and grain for winter feeding, two years ago built large depots at convenient places on his ranges and filled the buildings with hay and grain to be used in case of emergency. This spring Delfelder moved his flocks towards these depots, arranged in a line between his winter and summer ranges, but to his surprise he found that several of these depots had been robbed of all hay and grain. The theft had been committed but a few days before and Delfelder followed the thieves into their camp, where they were busy feeding the hay and grain to the flocks. They said they were caught out many miles from the railroad and had to have the food to save their sheep, even though they knew it did not belong to them and that Delfelder might need it for his own sheep. They admitted the theft and said they would settle just as soon as they could.

Delfelder also lost several hundred tons of baled alfalfa hay near Riverton in the same manner. Delfelder had provided, but the others had not, and it was an easy matter to rob the owner and say they would settle later.

Cars of grain enroute west were stopped by Casper by stockmen and the corn hauled away, the shipment never reaching its owner.

We Can Clothe You Well for $20.00 or $25.00

The success we have had in the past with the Suits that our New York work-rooms send us to sell for $20.00 and $25.00 has encouraged us to show for Spring and Summer wear an unusually large assortment at these prices. All the new fabrics are here, to say nothing of staples. Novelties are here as far as woollens are concerned in abundance, and the make and style of these garments at $20.00 and $25.00 have distinctive features that will please the man who wants to be correctly attired.

At these prices we have a suit called the "Brummel", a fairly conservative sack with enough snap to give it a distinguished appearance. We think so well of this suit that we make it in our highest priced garments, but are featuring this style at $20.00 and $25.00.

Hillsboro, Texas, May 4th, 1912.
TO PACKING HOUSE EMPLOYEES

The pork packing plant of McSWEENEY & CO., will be completed and ready for operation about November 1st, 1912.

The Plant will be one of the most complete packing plants in the South. The preliminary capacity will be 50,000 hogs annually.

HILLSBORO is one of the sound and growing industrial cities of the South, with great Railroad interests, Cotton Mills, Cotton Seed Oil Mills, Gins, Wholesale Grocers and many other large industrial enterprises, all contributing to make this City a safe and logical community for investment.

The McSWEENEY company has selected eighty acres of land within the corporate limits of the City of Hillsboro, and the Board of Trade of the City of Hillsboro has purchased this land at a cost of many thousands of dollars, and deeded it to the McSWEENEY company as a bonus for locating their plant in Hillsboro. Twenty acres of this land will be used for the packing plant, and the balance will be platted and sold by the packing company. Every lot offered for sale will be within five minutes walking distance of the Court House and the business portions of the city. Every lot will be between the packing plant and the Court House. The city is built SOLIDLY up to the property offered by the packing company. Excellent drainage, Good City Water, beautiful trees, and easy accessibility to business portions of the city are particularly distinctive features of this property.

The price of the lots are Two Hundred Dollars ($200) each. Corner lots and inside lots will all be sold in consecutive order as the remittances for purchase are received. The terms of the sale are one-fourth (1/4) cash, balance in 30, 60 and 90 days. Lots fronting the packing plant will be twenty-five foot, other lots will be fifty foot front.

The total number of lots to be offered for sale is approximately two hundred and fifty. The company especially invites investment by prospective employees of the plant. Preference will be given by providing employment as rapidly as positions can be created. We will also assist the purchasers in securing all the necessary material to construct houses on their lots.

Make all payments to McSWEENEY & COMPANY, care FIRST STATE BANK, HILLSBORO, TEXAS.

the polls of the election board before the polls opened in the morning. This was adjusted without difficulty, however, and John T. Dillon and T. H. Maters led the bystanders in organizing the board.

One arrest for attempt to vote illegally was made during the day. A. J. McGary, who had but been released from jail in the morning, undertook to vote and was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Osborne.

Crowd of Challengers.
At another precinct in the Ninth ward a complaint was made that challengers for the Citizens' union were being excluded. Application was made to Judge Troup, who issued a peremptory writ of mandamus to the election board in that precinct, commanding it to permit the presence of challengers. Investigation showed that the Citizens' union had six challengers there, and the presence of the seventh was objected to only because he overcrowded the election booth.

MISSOURI CUTS AWAY SOUTH DAKOTA FARM

SIoux FALLS, S. D., May 7.—(Special.)—If the Missouri river was a corporation or a responsible individual, Julius Charlin, a Clay county farmer, would have good grounds to institute an action against it for grand larceny. About ten days ago high water in the river commenced cutting away Charlin's farm, an estate that time more than fifty acres of his fine and valuable farm have disappeared into the maw of the turbulent "Big Muddy." Land on which Charlin has been raised as much as ninety bushels of corn to the acre has entirely disappeared. The loss to him is a heavy one, as the land thus far plied by the Missouri was worth not less than $100 an acre. A large cottonwood grove, which for years has been a landmark in that part of the Missouri valley in Clay county, also has disappeared. When the rising water commenced to approach the grove many of the trees were cut down and hauled away to save them from the river, but what was left now have been carried away by the river. Numerous other farmers in that part of the state have lost from ten to twenty acres of their farms because of the high water in the Missouri.

Des Moines Judge Tells Grand Jury to Watch Candidates

DES MOINES, May 7.—Judge Hugh Brennan of the criminal division of the district court today admonished the members of his grand jury to "keep their eyes on the behavior of candidates for political office, with a view to indicting for violations of law." These instructions applied to all candidates, local, state or municipal, within the court's jurisdiction. Judge Brennan told the inquirers he had no specific cases in mind, but that it was one of their official duties to see that candidates conduct themselves in a becoming and dignified manner in their efforts to induce people to vote for them.

LARRABEE PRESENTS SCHOOL TO HOME TOWN

CLEARMONT, Ia., May 7.—(Special.)—Ex-Governor Larrabee has again endeared himself to the people of his home town by donating to the school district a new and modern school house, built entirely at his own expense on a half block of land which he also deeded to the district. The style of architecture is of such a character that it will take a year to complete the building. The dimensions of the building will be 100 feet. The basement will be fitted up for domestic science, manual training, etc. The first story will have four school rooms, a recitation room and teachers' room; the second story will contain high school room, music and art rooms, a library and auditorium. There will be a large attic which will in all probability be fitted up for athletics. While the governor has repeatedly showed his benevolence upon this community this is considered the greatest gift of all.

GUST OF WIND ROLLS BABY CAB INTO A DEEP CREEK

NEW HARTFORD, Ia., May 7.—(Special.)—Left asleep in its cab while the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burns were fishing near by, their babe Mabel, aged 11 months, and her cab were trundled to the bank by a strong gust of wind, which pitched the cab over the brink and dumped the babe and vehicle into the water. It so happened that the cab remained right side up and the babe was not dumped out. The father plunged into the water, which was eight feet deep and rescued the child before it in its fright had overturned its temporary craft.

IOWA FALLS PIONEER COMMITS SUICIDE

IOWA FALLS, Ia., May 7.—(Special.)—J. H. Carleton, pioneer resident of this city and one of the wealthiest citizens of this part of the state, committed suicide at his home here this morning by cutting his throat. Poor health for several months, is supposed to have deranged his mind.

Wedding Bells Ring Thrice at Iowa Falls

IOWA FALLS, Ia., May 7.—(Special.)—Announcement has just been made of the marriage of three well-known young women of this city. Miss Harriet Green became Mrs. A. J. Lombardo by the nuptial knot route. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Green. Mr. Lombardo was formerly engaged in the fruit business here, but is now located at St. Paul, where the young couple will reside. David Warner of Nara, Wis., K. M., and Miss Myrtle Huntley of this city were married in Des Moines last week. Mr. Warner formerly resided here and was for a time manager of the Hogan bus and transfer line. He is now managing a big ranch owned by himself and brother in New Mexico. The bride is a daughter of C. M. Huntley of this city and a highly esteemed young woman who has been engaged in teaching for a number of years. Mr. C. A. Garrison of Watkins, Ia., and Miss Rose Pierce of this city were married by Rev. William Hardcastle of the Congregational church here Saturday evening. Mr. Garrison for some time past has been engaged as timekeeper on the Panama canal work. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Pierce.

EXTRAORDINARY SALE OF GOWNS AND DRESSES WEDNESDAY, MAY 8TH

On page 4 Julius Orkin, 1310 Douglas St., announces a sale of high class gowns and dresses—while there are only 100 garments, the variety is quite extensive and only one or two of a kind. Most of these gowns and dresses are copies of foreign models and are made of fine imported materials such as French voile, chiffon taffeta, pongee, etc.
These gowns and dresses will be offered to the women of Omaha for half and less than their worth. Every one bears the usual Orkin's high standard of style and quality and every woman in Omaha owes herself the duty to attend this extraordinary sale Wednesday at Orkin's, 1310 Douglas St.

Wash your clothes with GOLD DUST

Good soap washes clothes well—if you use enough elbow grease; but Gold Dust washes them more thoroughly—and with little or no rubbing. Gold Dust saves half your time, and spares your poor back.

Another great advantage of Gold Dust—use any kind of water you like. Gold Dust softens the hardest water, and makes it soft as rain water.

Gold Dust is just a vegetable-oil soap in powdered form, with other cleansing ingredients added to make it work more thoroughly, and quickly than soap ever can.

Just try Gold Dust next wash day, and see how much time you save.

Gold Dust is sold in 50 size and large packages. The large package means greater economy.
