Creighton Tennis Men Start Tourney

The cream doubles in the Creighton university tennis tournament will begin Wednesday. Instead of the regular elimination tournament, in which drawings are made and a team drops out of the tournament as soon as it is beaten, there will be a regular league formed of the teams entered. Each team will play each other team once and the team winning the most sets will be the champions in doubles. This method is expected to keep up interest throughout the tourney. Eight classes have entered two-men teams. They are as follows:

Seniors—Julius Fester and John O'Connor. Juniors—Theodore Nelson and James Macaulay. Freshmen—Lawrence Bushman and William Waters. Fourth High—A-Gerald Duffy and Theodore Kastner. Fourth High—E-A. Sullivan and Charles Hartnett. Third High—Joe Adams and Ed Smyth. Special Class—James Muldoon and Ed Morrow. First High—John Dugdale and Paul Duffy.
