SNYDER BROUGHT BACK
UPON FORGERY CHARGE

Boyal Snyder, colored, who lives at 341
Lake street, was brought back to Omaha last night from St. Paul to anawer a charge of forgery. Early in April Snyder is alleged to have forged a check for $60 on the Courtney store and also one on a local hotel, and passed both on down-town saloonkeepers. He was arrested it St.
Paul isat week and while arrangements were being made for his return, he attempted suicide by cutting his throat with a sharp suspender buckel.

Quick action upon the part of the St.
Paul police surgeons saved his life, however, and Monday the Minnespolis police officers telegraphed Chief Donahue that Snyder was in a condition to travel.

Detective Tom Ring went offers him.

The state board of parole has this week for the first time been called upon to decide whether the Perkins law which was placed on the statute books, shall be enforced at the state institutions. The law authorizes heads of institutions, upon the advice and consent of the par board, to treat insane, feeble minded criminal wards so that reproductions of the species will be impossible. The law has been on the statute books over a year and thus far no steps have been taken to make it effective, but this will be done

Insurance Business Grows.

In the forthcoming report of State Auditor Bleakly it will be shown that the insurance business is steadily increasing in lowa, also that the business of the insurance department is on the increase,
as shown by the money taken in at that department. The insurance fees received in 1901 amounted to $45,000 and last year to $71,000. In the Same ten years the taxes received increased from $224,000 to $354,000.

Qualifying examinations for the Rhodes scholarship at Oxford university will be held in lows City next October, accordheld in Iowa City next October, accord-ing to an announcement by President Bowman of the state university. Each state is entitled to have two Rhodes scholars in attendance at Oxford. The scholarships are for three years and have an annual allowance of IL50, an amount sufficient for ordinary expenses. The present Rhodes scholars from Iowa are William A. Ziegler of Grinnell and Jacob A. O. Larsen of Luther college. The former's term expires in 1913 and that of Larsen in 1914. The next scholars' terms will start in October, 1912.
