ROURKES POUND OUT ONE RUN

Topeka Takes the Last Game of the Series with Five Scores.

WANNER SAVES DAY FOR PA

Locals Find Pitcher of Visiting Team, but They Are Unable to Cash Their Hits in for Runs.

Inability to hit the ball stopportune times lost for Pa Rourke's tribe yesterday, Dale Gear's busy Kaws taking the final game of the series, 5 to 1. The Rourkes found Coreham, the lanky Kansan flinger, for ten safe hits, but they did not follow in succession, hence the result.

Fentress essayed to work for the Rourkes, but was hammered unmercifully during the five innings he heaved and was retired in favor of Hicks. The Kaws had too big a lead and the Omaha bunch could not overcome it, although Hicks gave but two stingy hits during the four rounds he hurled.

The Topeka wanted the game bad and went for it from the start. Four runs in the first four innings did the business. The Rourkes got to Coreham after the first four innings, but that was all. Twice the bags were filled and the heavy hitters up, but the stringy hurler with the tongue twisting cognomen tightened and wound the pill around the batter's neck. He did not pitch wonderful ball, but his support was gilt-edged. He was wild at times, giving seven free walks and struck out three men.

Only Five Find the Ball.

But five Omaha hitters found the ball, and each one of them found it for two bags. Coyle did the heavy work with the bat, getting two doubles. Thomason got two hits and was walked three times in five times he faced the hurler. Topeka changed their line up yesterday and shifted Bertie King to second base and the little fellow gave a good account of himself, both in the field and at the bat.

With two down in the first, Lee lifted a single to center for the Kaws. He stole second. A single by Gardner to center scored Lee, but the Gardner was caught trying to stretch his hit to a double.

Dulin, the first man up in the second was an easy out, Fentress to Kane. Emery singled to right. Gear advanced him a bag with a grounder, Scanlon to Kane, Chapman doubled, scoring Emery. Coreham went out, Niehoff to Kane.

Rickert opened the third with a single to center. A hit to left by King sent him to third. Lee was an easy out, Fentress to Kane. The squeeze was then worked successfully, Gardner bunted to Fentress while Rickert scored. Gardner being thrown out at first. Dulin went out, Niehoff to Kane.

Emery, the first man up in the fourth, was hit with the ball. eGar sacrificed. Chapman doubled, scoring Emery. Coreham grounded out, Fentress to Kane.

Here They Got a Run.

The Rourkes got their only run in the fifth. Wanner walked. Schoonover batted for Fentress and flew out to Rickert. Davidson advanced Wanner with a grounder, Coreham to Gardner, Coyle scored Wanner with a double to center. Thomason walked. Kane beat out a bunt, filling the bases, but Johnson went out with a long fly to Rickert.

Lee opened the eighth for the Kaws by walking. Gardner sacrificed. Lee went to third on a wild pitch, and scored on Dulin's single to right. Score:

Around the Circuit.

Kane caught Rickert sleeping off first in the seventh.

Bertie King plays as good a game in the infield as in the outfield.

Omaha and St. Joseph are having a pretty battle for second place.

Lincoln and Wichita seem to be having a nice time fighting for last place.

Rourke's men have won ten out of the last fourteen games played. A good gait, rather!

Denver's days at the top of the list are numbered. They come today for a four game series.

This weather is sure good for something, but what that something is, Pa Rourke wishes to know.

Wanner was attired in full batting regalia and got a couple of neat singles. Incidentally he made Omaha's only score.

Chapman had a clever knack of "stalling" for time in order to steady big Coreham on divers instances. He got by with it, too.

Bert Niehoff saved one tally by making a jump three feet off the ground and getting Johnson's wild throw to catch King pilfering third.

With three men on bases in the fifth inning and two out Johnson came to bat. Well, you have heard the old, old tale of "Casey at the bat."

None of the Kaws were able to get the ball past Bertie Niehoff's territory and a couple of well meant efforts on the part of the visitors went for nought.

The Kaws pulled off a pretty squeeze in the third. With Rickert on third and King on second they both made a dash for the next Bag while Dulin tapped the ball gently to Fentress.

Thomason reached the initial station every time up, getting a walk three times and slamming out well placed singles on the two other occasions. He became a familiar figure on the bags, however, as nobody seemed able to bring him across the plate.

Coreham made the only error for Topeka. Scanlon was off second. Coreham made a break to throw the ball to second, but instead sent it towards the shortstop. The ball went way high. Scanlon beat it, but was caught as he slid for home. It was a good chance to take, though.
