ROURKES OUTPLAY GRIZZLIES

Take Opening Game by All Around Better Ball Playing.

MANAGERS PUT OUT OF GAME

Arbogast Sent to Club House for Striking Umpire Knapp on Jaw and Hendricks for Disputing a Decision.

A three-base clout to the right field fence in the third inning by Bertie Niehoff, with two men on bases, gave Omaha a lead which the Grizzlies could not overcome and the Rourkes romped away with the first game of the series, 5 to 3.

The game was filled with accidents and all kinds of feature. From the second inning both teams played without a manager. Manager Arbogast was ordered to the club house for smashing Umpire Knapp on the jaw over a disputed decision. Manager Jack Hendricks of the Denver team was sent from the grounds over the same dispute.

It all came about in the second inning. Denver had a man on first and another on third, when Kenworthy sent a grounder to Wanner, who fielded it clean and shot it to Scanlon, who was running to second. Scanlon caught the ball, but tripped over second base and fell to the ground, striking his head hard, rendering him unconscious. However, he held to the ball and was lying across the bag. The runner did not reach second until after Scanlon had fallen. Umpire Knapp called the runner safe. Arbogast objected and the dispute ended with Arbogast hitting Knapp, after which the "umps" called the runner on second out, retiring the side. Jack Hendricks here objected so strenuously that he was ordered from the grounds also.

Lindsay Out of Game.

In the eighth inning, Lindsay, the Grizzly first sacker, was put out of the game for a few days, when he was hit with a thrown ball on the right wrist, which broke a tendon.

The Rourkes outplayed the leaders in every department. Although the Grizzlies made one more hit than the Omaha boys they came at times when they could not materialise. The Rourkes ran bases far better than the Denverites, fielded better and showed better knowledge of inside base ball.

Davidson opened for Omaha in the first by drawing a walk. Coyle sacrificed. Thomason beat out a bunt. Davidson going to third. Kane sent one to Quillin, who threw Davy out at the plate. A single by Scanlon scored Thomason and an infield hit by Niehoff scored Kane.

With one down in the second Johnson got to second on Lloyd's bad throw to first. Ryan singled to center, scoring Johnson.

Game Tied in Third.

Denver tied it in the third. Healy struck out. Lloyd singled to center. Quillin followed with one just over short. Beall forced Quillin at second, Lloyd going to third. Cassidy tripled to center, scoring Lloyd and Beall. A single by Kenworthy sent Cassidy across, tying the score.

Thomason was an easy out in the third, Healy to Lindsay. Kane beat out a bunt. Scanlon got to first on Kenworthy's error. Niehoff sent both men in with a triple to left, and scored on a squeeze play with Wanner sending an easy one to Healy.

In the eighth Omaha made two more. Kane singled and stole second, and scored when Olmstead made an error of Scanlon's easy grounder. Niehoff forced Scanlon at second. He stole second and scored on Johnson's single to center. Score:

Notes of the Game.

Over 4,000 fans witnessed the game.

Things happened fast and unexpectedly in the first round.

The game progressed just as merrily without the managers.

Lindsay got a tendon in his wrist broken from a bad fling to first in the eighth inning.

Thomason limbered up in the second and made a successful lunge for Coffey's fly over low second.

The "squeeze" jumped into prominence in the second when Wanner sacrificed, Thomason tallying from third.

Just to liven things up, Jack Ryan hit to center in the second, scoring Hickory Johnson from the second pillow.

With the bags full in the first Beall was caught napping off second and Jimmy Scanlon ran him down in quick order.

Bertie Niehoff has the batting blood in his veins. His three-bagger to deep right in the third put the game on ice for the locals.

The two versatile managers, Arbogast and Hendricks, found the club house favorable quarters after that momentous first period.

Flocks of the gentler sex took advantage of the fact that Pa Rourke has designated Friday as a red letter day and all sorts of spring toggery filled the stands.

The "occasional" fan is awakening to the fact that Omaha is playing classy ball all the time, and yesterday saw one of the banner week-day crowds of the season.

Good Luck Horseshoe Torn Down When Prospects Look Bad.

ALTROCK TAKES MADDOX' PLACE

With Score Tied in Eighth, Two Singles and Hit Batsman Fill Bases and Carr Drives Out Double.

KANSAS CITY, May 17.—A "good luck" horseshoe which has hung in the press box was torn from its place here today after Ferris had hit for a home run and two other Minneapolis players had singled in the second inning, and thrown outside of the ball park. Shortly after Altrock relieved Maddox and the locals defeated Minneapolis, 6 to 3. With the score tied in the eighth two singles and a hit batsman filled the bases that Carr's double cleared. Carr was thrown out trying to reach third. The first three times Owens was up he hit the first ball pitched for a single. Score:
