Missouri Again Cuts INTO BANK AT FOLSOM. GLENWOOD, Ia., May 18.—(Special.)—The Missouri river is again making some trouble at Folsom in western Missouri. The Burlington railroad has been at work repairing the damage done last month and is redoubling efforts to avoid a repetition of its experience at that time, when a portion of their Kas-

City branch was hurriedly moved to prevent it going in the river. One thousand cars of rock have gone through Pacific Junction in the last week to work into the riprap protection. The cutting is a few hundred yards below the April one. The old D. W. Bennett house went in yesterday. This was at one time a very nice farm home on a very productive farm.
