Lad Travels 1,500 Miles to Lay First Brick in Theater

The first brick in "Starland Palace," the Brandeis firm's new moving picture house, will be laid by J. L. Ervine Brandeis, the young son of Arthur Brandeis, who will travel 1,500 miles from New York to Omaha to officiate at the ceremony.

This is the fourth time that this young man, who is the only representative of the third generation of the Brandeis merchants in Omaha, has officiated at a similar ceremony for a Brandeis building:

Six years ago Ervine Brandeis laid the first brick for the Brandeis building, a few years later he laid the first brick for the theater and shortly afterward he put in place the first stone in the American theater. His identification with Brandeis buildings will not cease with his masonry, as he is destined to make his home in Omaha in the future and carry on the progressive policies established by the late J. L. Brandeis and his sons.

Buckingham Buys Hinrichs Property

Everett Buckingham, general manager of the Union Stock Yards company and King of Ak-Sar-Ben, bought from F. A. Hinrichs the fine modern residence at 500 Woolworth avenue. Mr. Buckingham will occupy the property. The consideration, $11,500, is a further indication of the strength of realty values in the Field club district.

In selling the property Mr. Hinrichs is completing his plans for removal to Chicago. He recently resigned the presidency of the Omaha Crocker company, which he founded ten years ago and was elected vice president of the Merchants' Syndicate Catalogue company. Starting about two years ago with Omaha capital the company has extended its business into every section of the United States and the rapid development in the eastern states makes it necessary to expand its organization work from Chicago. Mr. Hinrichs' family will leave for Chicago about the middle of June.

Hoodlums Beat Boy and Attack Father

While "peeing" why his two small boys were beaten Friday night by a band of young hoodlums who hang about the vicinity of the Venus theater or Sixteenth street near Dorcas, William Ferryman attempted to get a civil explanation from the young men when the leader suddenly set upon him and the rest followed the leader's example. He was chased to his home and while fleeing to his home one of the assailants stabbed him in the left leg.

Dr. Peppers attended the wound and the police were called to disperse the crowd of young ruffians. No arrests were made, when the police arrived they had fled. The gang is composed of boys and men ranging in ages between 16 and 25.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS PLANNING VAUDEVILLE

Omaha council of the Knights of Columbus is planning to give a moving picture and vaudeville entertainment in the early part of June in one of the local theaters. A film in three reels entitled "The Coming of Columbus" will be presented. This picture cost nearly $10,000, the largest sum ever paid for one picture, in making the film the Knights of Columbus rendered much help. The proceeds of the entertainment will be used to help defray the expenses incurred by the Knights in building their new quarters at 205 Dodge street.

The committee in charge of the affair was appointed by Grand Knight W. A. Schall and is composed of the following: H. H. Bushman, chairman; F. P. McGaugh, John Bennewitz, John Leahy, Peter G. H. Holand, Richard Kennedy, Roy King, John Conroy, E. A. Dowd and Frank Murphy.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Modern Woodmen to Hold Big Meeting on Rates Thursday.

JEWISH SCHOOL IS ORGANIZED

People of Magic City Will Conduct One and Kosher Market Also—Postmaster Ester Succeeds Ben Thomas.

Woodmen Meeting Called. South Omaha Camp No. 186, Modern Woodmen of America, request all members to be present at their regular meeting, Thursday evening, May 23, at their hall, 2811 North Street. Business of special importance in regard to the rates in rates will be transacted.

H. B. MILLER, V. C. C. F. DENNIS, Clerk.

Local members of the Modern Woodmen of America are preparing to take up the citizens joined in showing attention to the visiting Omahans.

Question of increased rates that is proposed by the head camp Thursday evening, the members of South Omaha camp No. 186 will hold a special meeting to vote on the proposition whether a special tax of 20 cents shall be levied upon the local membership in order to assist in the fight against the increased rates.

Already the camp has levied a tax of 10 cents per capita to aid in the fight made by the district.

The officers of the local lodge refuse to put the question of the increased tax and claim the protection of the laws in support of their action. It is maintained by some of those acquainted with the question that whatever Justice there may be in the protest of the old members who are opposing the increase of rates, the bylaws permit of no relief and therefore the action of the officers in refusing to assist in a fight that is directed against the laws of the organization is logical and right.

On the part of the members, particularly the older ones, there is a certain amount of pathos in the fight made by them to keep down the rates from a stage that they claim will practically force many of them out of the ranks.

At the meeting next Thursday the matter is to be threshed out thoroughly by the local camp. A court in a neighboring state has already upheld the action of camp officers who refused to levy or pay any tax directed to the assistance of the insurgents.

Ester Succeeds Thomas.

Postmaster Ester has returned from Lincoln, where he was elected vice President of the State Postmasters' association to succeed Ben F. Thomas of Omaha. The meeting was held Friday and was for members of the executive committee alone. It was decided to call the state convention of postmasters for June 11, 12 and 13. Postmaster Ester was accorded a considerable honor in being selected to fill the place made vacant by the former postmaster of Omaha.

Postmaster Ester Succeeds Thomas.

One license only was granted and all other business was postponed. Commissioner John J. Ryan was not present at the meeting and Mayor Hooton and Commissioner Prvona seemed disinclined to proceed without a full attendance.

It is said that the board has made strenuous efforts to divide the patronage of the board between the many dealers.
