

BIG PROFIT IN OMAHA BONDS

Firm that Buys at Private Sale Expects Profit of $175,000.

OFFERS THEM AT THAT PRICE

Other Cities Have Realized Much More on Similar Issues Which Have Recently Been Disposed of.

That the purchasers of the $2,000,000 water bond issue recently sold by the Omaha water board at private sale expected to net $175,000 clear profit is shown by the advertisements sent out by the Harris Trust and Savings bank of Chicago offering the bonds at 90 3/4 and interest. The premium asked now for the bonds amounts to $227,500. The premium held by the buyers was $52,500, making a profit of $175,000.

The bonds were sold privately for a nominal premium, while bonds of other cities similarly situated sold for a much greater premium. St. Paul making its issue at 4 per cent which Omaha pays to bond subscribers getting a premium of 3/4.

As an illustration of Omaha's loss in the bond transaction Kansas City recently disposed of an issue of $45,000. These bonds are redeemable in twenty years and bear interest at the rate of 4 1/2 per cent. They were disposed of to Keuntze Bros. for par and accrued interest, and a premium of $30,250. On the same basis the Omaha water bonds should have brought a premium of not less than $200,000.

In the circulars sent out the selling company states that the plant should earn 8 per cent on the entire investment, taking commissions on the earnings from 1908 to 1912 and ignoring the income to be derived from extensions. It is also stated that the bonds should yield about 4 1/2 per cent.

Trial of Gross is Taken Up by Court

Trial of Arthur W. Gross, former claim agent for the street railway company, charged with bribing John A. Kemmerling, a petit juror, to secure a verdict for the company in a damage suit more than a year ago, was begun before Judge Sutton Monday morning.

W. F. Gurley and J. W. Woodrough of Greene, Breckenridge, Gurley & Woodrough, counsel for the defendant, searchingly examined the ventruman for cause and at noon it appeared unlikely that a jury satisfactory in both state and defendant would be secured before evening.

County Attorney James P. English's examination required but little time, but the defendant's attorneys went into the ventruman's associations and feelings at great length. Three jurors were challenged for cause and excused by Judge Sutton when they said they felt they were prejudiced against the street railway company and might not be able to give Mr. Gross a fair and impartial trial.

ALIENATION SUIT ON TRIAL

Intercepted Note Used by Attorney in Gering-Redman Suit.

ASKS FOR A $50,000 VERDICT

Attorney Matt Gering, representing his brother, says he will show a suit is not being waged in good faith.

Interception of an anonymous note alleged to have been written by Henry R. Gering to Mrs. Benjamin Redman convinced Redman that his wife was untrue to him and that Gering was the third person in the lateral triangle, according to J. A. McKennie of McKennie, Howell & Cox, counsel for Redman, in his opening statement to the jury yesterday in a $50,000 alienation damage suit of Redman against Gering. The trial was begun before Judge Estelle in the law division of the district court. Nearly the entire morning was spent securing a jury and examination of witnesses was begun early in the afternoon.

In his opening statement Mr. McKennie said Gering first met Mrs. Redman when he was living in Plattsmouth and Mrs. Redman was visiting her parents in Plattsmouth, her father being custodian of the Masonic home there.

Frequently, said the attorney, Mrs. Redman visited her parents and Gering called upon her at the home. On one occasion, he said, Redman dropped in unexpectedly when Gering and Mrs. Redman and her parents were playing cards and drinking.

Police Commissioner Ryder Issues Order to Clean Up the City.

STARTS A VIGOROUS CAMPAIGN

Every Effort to Be Made to Enforce the Alcohol Law and to See that the Lid is Kept Tightly Closed.

Police Commissioner Ryder has detailed a man to round up all the so-called bootlegging joints in the city and issue temporary orders to them to close up. "If they are not closed up we will close them up," said Mr. Ryder.

Evidence against bootleggers will be obtained by the man detailed by the police commissioner and no unlicensed dispenser of liquors will be allowed to operate. If any disobey the orders of the man detailed by the commissioner, prosecution will follow.

This is the first step taken to enforce the alcohol law and it is given out that it is not only for the protection of the saloonists who have paid license, but is also a warning to any saloon keeper who may be violating the law by selling after hours.
