and it is credited at the statehouse as simply being one of many circulated by parties who find it to their personal advantage to retail sensational allegations. Knox Indian Problem. P. H. Peterson, county attorney of Knox county, has written the attorney general, reciting that a considerable portion of that county is occupied by the Ponca and Santee Indians, whose lands are not taxed. He wants to know whether when these Indians sell their lands and invest the proceeds in improvements on lands not taxed under the law the improvements are taxable; also whether when their lands are sold the money is taxable, like the cash of white men.

gas meter was discussed at length this forenoon, some pointing to it as a solution of one of the most perplexing problems of the business, viz. the collection. Others maintained it had no place in the modern home on account of its danger through careless use. Efficiency of employees was the topic of a paper read by J. E. Perry of Omaha. Negroes Under Arms Rapidly Increasing in Numbers in Cuba HAVANA, May 24.—In spite of reiterated protestations by the government that military conditions in the province of Oriente are most satisfactory and that it is only a question of a few hours before the negro insurgents, under Generals Estomas and Iruya, are scattered, additional troops were rushed to the front tonight. In addition President Gomez issued a decree authorizing the enlistment of volunteers for active service.
