Valley Faculty Body Puts Over the Choice of Meet Next Year

DES MOINES, Ia., May 24.—(Special Telegram.)—The faculty committee of the Missouri Valley conference decided to put off choosing the place for next year's field meet until after Saturday's meet. If the attendance is sufficient to pay expenses, Drake University wants the meet next year. Otherwise no fight will be made against Kansas in the effort to take it to Kansas City.

Following is a summary of the preliminary events held this afternoon. Preliminaries were held in only part of the events and those named in the summary are qualified to enter the meet tomorrow:

100-yard dash, first preliminary: Davis, Kansas; May, Nebraska; Dyson, Drake; Wolter, Missouri. Time: 10⅘.

Second preliminary: Wilson, Coe; Christmas, Nebraska; Tuckey, Kansas; Stall, Drake. Time: 10⅘.

Missouri Valley Teams Lining Up in Drake Stadium

DES MOINES, May 24.—The preliminaries this afternoon for the Missouri Valley track and field meet tomorrow, brought a long list of contestants to Des Moines, early today. The Kansas track team in charge of Coach Hamilton, and those of Nebraska and Coe were the first to arrive. By noon Grinnell, Missouri, Washington, Morningside and Ames were represented at the preliminaries.

SELECTION COMMITTEE BESET

Difficult Problem to Make Choices for Stockholm Events.

TERRITORY IS HARD TO COVER

Care Must Be Taken in Tryouts to Not Overlook Likely Material to Represent America in Olympic Games.

NEW YORK, May 24.—Members of the team selection committee for the Olympic games are beginning to realize the difficulty of the work ahead of them and are making plans to smooth the way as much as possible. The immense area to be taken in consideration so that no available material may be overlooked is what makes the task of the committee arduous.

In order to cover the territory the committee has been subdivided into three districts—eastern, middle west and Pacific coast—and each will supervise the trials to be held in its particular district. The task of selecting the best men from the hundreds of good athletes in the United States would be hard enough if the men in charge of this important detail had a week in which to weigh up the performances in the different tryouts, but the necessity of confirming the entries by cable within three days of the last trials is what is worrying the committeemen.

Pacific Coast Tryouts.

Tryouts on the Pacific coast are to be held today, but those in New York and Chicago had to be deferred until June 8 in order to insure the presence of the college athletes, who will not be free from their intercollegiate engagements until the Saturday previous. If the Pacific coast men could be actually picked as soon as the meet at Leland Stanford was held the matter would be simplified, but this is impossible, as it is on the cards that the middle west and eastern athletes may shine out so brilliantly as to put the coast winners in eclipse.

In talking over the matter prominent members of the committee suggested the plan of picking tentative candidates as soon as the report of the Pacific coast branch is received. In many instances it is figured that they will be able to make selections of men that are sure to be worthy of the trip to Sweden. Ralph Rose, the shot-putter, Forrest Smithson, the hurdler, and Horine, the high jumper, for instance, only have to show that they are in form to be included in the team.

Leave After Trials.

It is planned to have the middle west members leave Chicago directly after the trials with full data as to the doings of the men out there. The New York members will return from the Boston meet and the real work of selection will begin on Monday, when a meeting which has already been called for 10 o'clock in the morning begins. Even should the committee get through its work the same night it would be too late to notify the men actually wanted from the Pacific coast to come on in time to sail with the team on the Finland, which is scheduled to leave on June 15.

To overcome this obstacle arrangements have been made to get the results of the Chicago meet by wire in Boston, so that the eastern members may compare them with the performances at the eastern and Pacific coast tryouts. By this means it is hoped that sufficient information will be obtained so that the men wanted from the coast can be determined. When this is done a telegram will be sent to San Francisco asking the men selected to pack up and come east in time to catch the steamer. In case the meeting of the full committee should bring out evidence that there are better men in the middle west and east for any particular event than those coming from the coast, the committee will have the alternative of paying the expenses of these men back to the coast or taking the extra men along with the team.

COLLEGE MEET A BIG EVENT

Annual Intercollegiate Track Event at Hastings College.

STATE COMPETITION TO CLOSE

Number of State Records Likely to Be Smashed if Fair Weather Prevails for the Athletic Contests.

HASTINGS, Neb., May 24.—(Special.)—The annual field and track meet of the Nebraska Intercollegiate Athletic association in this city Saturday, May 25, under the auspices of Hastings college, promises to be one of the most fiercely contested events of its kind for a number of years.

Bellevue, Doane, Wesleyan and Hastings, all former competitors in the state meet, are believed by experts to have an even chance to win the coveted title. Besides these, Omaha university, Kearney Normal and Grand Island college have entered teams which include some formidable contenders.

If fair weather prevails, a number of state records are quite sure to be broken, for never in the history of the association has a meet been pulled off on a track as fast as the local one is conceded to be. In the dual meet with Doane a week ago two state records—the 220-yard dash and low hurdles—were tied, and in neither event was the winner pushed to his limit.

A new feature of the meet this year will be the prizes. Silk banners will be awarded to the team winners of the relay race and the greatest total number of points. Gold medals have been provided for the winners of second place and bronze medals for the winners of fourth place.

The following are the state records of the Nebraska Intercollegiate Athletic association, as compiled by Athletic Director Holste from the official records:
