for popular rule. We are tired of the rule of the bosses. President Taft's expression of belief that he will win the nomination...

"I see that Mr. Taft says he is going to win," the colonel began. "Well, during his Ohio campaign he announced that the decision of Ohio would settle it. Ohio has decided and has given me forty out of its forty-eight delegates..."

COLONEL NEW TO MURKIN

Threatened Action Assisted Unusual and Extraordinary.

CHICAGO, May 26.—Colonel Harry S. New of Indianapolis, chairman of the subcommittee on arrangements for the republican national convention...

The statement follows: "It is difficult to believe that such a threat as this should be made. The republican national committee is the recognized authority..."

"Incident to this is the selection by the committee of temporary officers, whose duty it shall be to preside over the earlier deliberations of the convention and until the convention itself in the regular way can provide for its own permanent officers."

Root Well Qualified. "The name of Senator Root occurred to my mind without previous consultation with anyone as that of a republican whose great talents and eminent position made him conspicuously and prominently qualified to perform the duties attaching to the temporary chairmanship."

"The members of the subcommittee on arrangements unanimously approved Senator Root's selection and got the least objection to him had come to my ears from any member of the republican national committee."

"An open declaration at this time on behalf of any candidate to the effect that his followers propose to defy all party authority, to repudiate the action of its highest official body, and the further threat to set all regular and established order at defiance, is unusual and extraordinary to say the least."

"I have no further reason for believing it has solid foundation than the statement attributed to Mr. McHenry by the press this morning."

The national committee has proceeded with its convention preparations in its established, time-honored manner and it will shirk no duty devolving upon it."

Defeat from Taft Managers. WASHINGTON, May 26.—The statements made in Chicago yesterday by Ormsby McHenry, contest attorney for the Roosevelt national committee...

"So far as Mr. Roosevelt's determination to contest Senator Root as temporary chairman is concerned," said Mr. McKinley, "the friends of President Taft welcome the contest. It will assure a test of strength right at the outset of the convention..."

Another statement from the Taft bureau today charged that Roosevelt forces were at work on a plan to have newly endorsed national committee members come to Chicago for the opening of the committee's session...

OHIO SIX STILL UNDECIDED Roosevelt Victor in Nineteen County Conventions.

COLUMBUS, O., May 26.—Returns from thirty-three counties which held county conventions yesterday and chose delegates to the state convention to be held in June indicate that the struggle between President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt for the six delegates-at-large to the national convention will not finally be settled until thrashed out on the floor of the state convention.

Governor Harmon will be practically sure to go to the Baltimore convention with the unvisited state delegation, as sufficient counties were bound by the unit rule to insure him a full victory. He gained 26 delegates today bound by this rule. Governor Wilson received 115 instructed delegates and Governor Harmon about 100 delegates who are not bound.

Roosevelt was the victor in nineteen conventions, gaining 128 delegates, according to reports tonight. Three conventions instructed for President Taft.

Supporters of the president declare, however, that he will control the convention by a small majority. Sixty-eight counties have now named delegates. Computing the remaining counties on the basis of the returns of the primary, they say President Taft will have 36 delegates, Roosevelt 29 with seventy-six un-instructed.

Colonel Roosevelt carried the majority of counties today. His greatest victory was in Mahoning county, which has been expected to send a delegation of thirteen

Taft Predicts a Victory

In Passaic President Taft paid a tribute to Victor L. Mason, president of the Board of Trade of that city, who was recently killed in an airplane accident in England. In the campaign in 1908 Mr. Mason was assistant secretary of the republican national committee and he and President Taft became very close friends.

Just before the president reached Passaic Thomas McCram, speaker of the New Jersey house of assembly, fell from his automobile, which was the fifth car behind the president's machine, and was slightly injured. The automobiles had raised a dense cloud of dust and the chauffeur of Mr. McCram's automobile ran the car into an embankment.

Three-Year Bill Will Pass. ALLIANCE, Neb., May 26.—(Special.)—Homeleaders in this county have been anxiously awaiting the outcome of the "Three Year Homestead Bill," which has been before congress, given a hopeful "word" today in a telegram from Hon. M. P. Kincaid that "congress agreed on bill and will likely be ratified."

Indiana Man Shoots Three Others in Chicago. CHICAGO, May 26.—Otis Webb of Ft. Wayne, Ind., shot three men early today when Detectives Cronson and Topp of the Twenty-second street police station tried to arrest him. One of Webb's victims probably will die. Webb fired at the detectives, but they dodged and the bullets struck other men. The fight occurred on the south side. Webb was arrested after he had fired until his revolver was empty.

Big Firm Will Celebrate. Hayden Bros. to Commemorate Quarter Century in Omaha.

Wonderful Growth of This Enterprise Firm to Be Shown to the Public During First Week in June.

One week from today Hayden Bros. gigantic store will start a week's celebration of its twenty-fifth anniversary of business in Omaha. This celebration will take a unique form in that startling bargains in every department will be offered as an inducement to the public of Omaha to visit the store to see what wonderful changes have been wrought in this great establishment.

To properly put the announcement of the great anniversary before the public of this section of the country Hayden Bros. will have the largest advertisement ever set forth in the western country. It will occupy twenty-four pages of The Omaha Sunday Bee June 1.

For twenty-five years the firm of Hayden Bros. has been doing business in Omaha and during that time it has built up a reputation for itself for square dealing and bottom prices that has made its founders the envy of other merchants all over the west. The firm of Hayden Bros. succeeded the firm of John Hayden at Columbus, Wis., in 1887. Four years later they moved to Chicago, where they conducted a modern store from 1891 until 1897, when the call of the west led Joseph Hayden and he induced his brothers to open the Omaha establishment. Here they have made their home and here they have prospered and built up one of the greatest mercantile establishments in the west.

In honor of the coming anniversary the entire plant with five and one-third acres of floor space and sixty-seven complete departments has been entirely remodeled, so that many surprises await those who enter to take part in the celebration.

Wonderful Changes Wrought. One of the greatest changes will be noted in the music department, which has been enlarged to accommodate the regular choral music department in which daily concerts on the Victrola are given to large crowds. The floors have been strengthened to carry the weight of the huge stock of the latest models of pianos and piano players. A modern ornament floor has been installed and the entire room decorated. On the walls of this up-to-date room are to be seen life-sized oil portraits of the old music masters and here also is carried the very latest music of all kinds.

Manager Crawford is proud of his enlarged furniture department, which has been moving forward by giant strides during the last year. Some of the big contracts secured by this department was that for furnishing the Douglas Hotel, which cost $27,000; some of the other large establishments fitted out from this department were the Wellington hotel, the Plaza hotel, the Plamoc hotel, the new wing to St. Joseph's hospital and St. Catherine's hospital.

Seven of the leading buyers of the firm have recently returned from the east where they have been buying the very latest merchandise especially for this anniversary sale. Pat Johnson has a stock of every good housewife when she visits the store next week. He has bought heavily, relying on the acknowledged splendid reputation of Hayden Bros. to have the very latest of this class of goods for the dressmaker and the women who make their own clothes.

"Try Hayden's First." "Try Hayden's first" is the motto of this store, printed with all its advertisements and it is the pride of the store that it makes good on its motto, the idea being that when an inspection of the merchandise offered by Hayden Bros. has been made, there is no need for further search. Another object of the motto is that the buyer will be so impressed with what he sees that no matter if he does so a little "shopping" he will return.

Twenty-five years ago Hayden Bros. opened up for business in a small store on Sixteenth street, between Douglas and Dodge streets, with a thirty-three-foot front and a depth of 100 feet. "It is difficult now," says Joseph Hayden. "Time and Omaha have dealt kindly with us as this monster establishment of over five acres of floor space, every part filled with up-to-date goods, will testify."

Makes His Own Prices. One of the hobbies of Joseph Hayden is that he will not let any one dictate to him the price at which he may sell his goods, and as a consequence he has had many commercial battles with manufacturers who try to name the price at which goods will sell. But Mr. Hayden is firm and as a consequence many lines are found here at a less price than in other places. He says he will not be dictated to by any trust or combination and that he will sell his merchandise at his own price.

Of Hayden Bros. it has been said that they are real public benefactors because of the fresh vegetable department which they operate the year round. No distance is too great for A. King, manager of this department to send for fresh garden truck when it is out of season in this section and as a consequence, great inroads have been made in the buying of canned goods, for the housewife has learned how much better it is to have the green.

VETERANS BOW THEIR HEADS

Post Members and Relief Corp Attend Memorial Service.

TEARS TRICKLE DOWN CHEEKS

Pastor of First Congregational Denivers Address in Commemoration of Brave Heroes Who Fought for Their Country.

Memorial services of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Woman's Relief Corps was held at the First Congregational church Sunday morning. U. S. Grant Post No. 119 attended by the corps attended in a body. The church was decorated with large flags and iris and bridal wreaths.

Special music was rendered by the choir with solos by Dr. Freeman and Mrs. Hess. The staid company of old soldiers enjoyed "Crossing the Bar," a tender solo; "The Spotted Flag," by Mrs. Hess, and other selections of a patriotic and reminiscent nature that brought tears to the eyes of the young and old.

Rev. Frederick T. Rouse, pastor of the church, spoke from the words of David as he received from the priest, the old sword of Holiath: "There is none like that, give it to me." "Make friends with your memory," was his theme, and he spoke of the "slender cord on which hang all the riches of the past—the chord of memory."

Teach Children Heroic Deeds. "This cord may be broken by accident so that at once is effaced all the treasures of one's history, or it may be atrophied by neglect. It will bring the greatest loss to our nation if our school children are not taught the heroic deeds of the past, that they may know who founded and who sustained our country."

"The richest treasure that a man lays up is not the treasure of property, but the treasure of memory of noble deeds."

"Although it has been nearly 100 years since we have had war with England; although it has been over a generation since our great civil war; although we may hope that the age of war with arms passing yet there will still be need of brave men and sound hearts and the fighting edge."

Slavery of the Low Wage. "Does it not demand brave men to rid our land of the white slave traffic, as well as to bid the black slave traffic? Shall we not need a courage to eliminate the slavery of the low wage and the slave-driving of unjust financial power? Our contest may not be with the sword, but it will require the same courage and the same sacrifice."

Commander W. H. Russell, U. S. Grant Post No. 119, thanked the congregation and the choir for the courtesy of the service. All remained standing while the veterans and their relief corps

HOLD SERVICES AT CEMETERY

Spanish War Veterans Have Memorial at West Lawn Cemetery.

Impressive memorial services for the soldiers who met death in the Spanish-American war was held at the grave of Charles Hanson on the Camp Lee Forby lot at West Lawn cemetery by CPAMP Lee Forby No. 1, United Spanish War Veterans and General Henry W. Lawton Ladies' auxiliary yesterday afternoon.

The high wind marred the beauty of the day, but despite the breeze and the clouds of dust that occasionally swept over the burial ground more than 100 persons attended the services.

City Commissioner John J. Ryder gave the address of the day. He congratulated the men who left their homes and went forth to fight against the Spanish oppressors of a helpless people and dwell upon the thought that the United States is the nation that is known as being as ready to take up arms in defense of the oppressed outside its borders as to take up arms in defense of its own people against a foreign foe. Mr. Ryder praised the women of the country who defend the home and make it a home that makes men who will fight in a just cause whenever called upon, forgetting self and shrinking from no sacrifice. They are the makers and defenders of the home, Mr. Ryder said, and after all, the home is the genesis of the nation.

Veterans in Charge of Service. Commander Jerry W. Vance, Chaplain R. B. Porter, and Marshal of the Day Howard B. Havens, who is commander of the department of Nebraska of the United Spanish War Veterans, were in charge of the service. They read the ritual for memorial service while small boys and girls stood over the grave with flags. The grave had been covered with flowers by members of the auxiliary.

Following the ritual reading and the address by Mr. Ryder members of the auxiliary softly sang, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and a squad of Nebraska National guardsmen fired a revolver salute over the grave. The squad was in charge of Corporal Parkin and was composed of Privates Simmons, Orr, Speal, Wyman and Rose. The service closed with the sounding of "taps" by C. B. Mapee, of Mapee's life and drum corps.

The veterans marched to the cemetery from Fifty-sixth and Leavenworth streets, the life and drum corps accompanying them. Members of the auxiliary followed in carriage. The auxiliary under the leadership of Mrs. W. B. Blackett, Mrs. Howard B. Havens, Mrs. Jerry W. Vance and Mrs. Mason held its memorial ritual service and covered the grave with flowers. Then followed the veterans' service.

Within the year Camp Lee Forby expects to improve the lot and make it one of the most beautiful in the city. It is to be the burial place of all Spanish

BRAVE BIRD GETS THOUSAND FOR WIFE'S AFFECTIONS

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., May 26.—(Special.)—One of the few cases in the history of the state or northwest in which a Sioux Indian sued another Sioux Indian for the alienation of his wife's affections has just been disposed of by a jury in the state circuit court of Tripp county.

The plaintiff in the action was Brave Bird, a Sioux warrior belonging on the Rosebud reservation, while the defendant was one of his brethren, named Curtis. A great deal of testimony was introduced by both the plaintiff and the defendant, and after wrestling with the testimony for some hours the jury awarded Brave Bird damages in the sum of $2,000.

Compare the taste of Schlitz in BROWN BOTTLES with beer in light bottles

Schlitz is as pure when poured into your glass as when it left the brewery. It's the Brown Bottle. It keeps out the light. Light develops in beer a peculiar taste and a disagreeable odor. This is not a theory. It is a fact proven by scientists. Schlitz is properly aged before leaving the brewery. It will not cause biliousness, nor ferment in your stomach. Schlitz in Brown Bottles costs you no more than common beer in light bottles.
