

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Strongest Interest in Trade is on Buying Side of Wheat.

CORN FUTURES ARE UNSETTLED

Most Argument is that Supplies Must
Grow Less Each Month and that
Demands During Summer
Will Exceed Supply.

OMAHA, May 29.—The wheat market has the appearance of having some of the strongest interest in the trade on the buying side. If true this would mean that private advice on the growing crop fully confirms the damage to the western wheat belt, especially Kansas and Nebraska. There is also an uneasy feeling in the northwest over the excessive rainfall in the spring, which will cash sales of wheat are heavy and stocks are rapidly decreasing. If the much needed rain in the spring, which will cash sales of wheat are heavy and stocks are rapidly decreasing. If the much needed rain in the spring, which will cash sales of wheat are heavy and stocks are rapidly decreasing.

There is an unsettled feeling in corn futures until the May option contracts are settled. The call argument is that supplies of corn must grow less each month and regardless of some increase in the movement demands during the summer will exceed the supply. The bears, however, feel confident owing to the increased acreage and good growing weather.

Wheat opened strong and higher on strong cables and no rain in Kansas or Nebraska. Selling was free on the advance and closing values were lower. Cash wheat was 40c to 41c.

Corn futures were unsettled. Some complaints are being received on the newly seeded crop. Cash corn was unchanged to 1c higher.

Primary receipts were 33,000 bushels and shipments were 22,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 1,480,000 bushels and shipments of 674,000 bushels.

Clearances were 10,000 bushels of corn, 1,000 bushels of oats and wheat and flour equal to 38,000 bushels.

Liverpool closed up to 1 1/2d higher on wheat and 1/4d to 1/2d lower on corn.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing

Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, May 29.—Statements from Kansas and Nebraska bankers that crops would be almost if rain came in the next six or seven days tended to make wheat speculators go slow regarding speculative purchases sent in by field exporters. The market was quiet and closed weak with prices ranging from 1/4c to 1/2c lower to 1/4c advance. Corn was 1/4c to 1/2c lower, soybeans 1/4c to 1/2c lower, and provisions finished irregularly varying from the down to a gain of a shade.

Wheat was the feature of the market. The latest tidings of this crop were that the export trade in Kansas contained 1,000,000 acres of wheat, that two-thirds of the total was probably planted, and that the remainder promised only a small crop. East of the mouth district, the crop, it was asserted would be 35 per cent less than anticipated May 15th, however, from more conservative reports through financial channels the character of the market was much influenced by the fact of the holiday tomorrow. A general desire to reduce open risks brought about heavy realizing on the part of long and in the end helped pull down the market as a whole.

Announcement of another record breaking wheat crop in India had some bearing on the market. The effect was generally estimated at more than 1,000,000 bushels in excess of the big figures of a crop year ago. The total growth was 100,000,000 to 110,000,000, with final sales at $1.05 to $1.10, a decline of 1/4c to 1/2c from yesterday's close.

Corn—Offers of corn exhibited some increase. The weather also was in the main against the bulls. Nervous shorts, however, brought about a general desire in the May option apparently without substantial reasons. July ranged between 1/4c and 1/2c, closing weak, the net lower at 1/4c. The total growth was 100,000,000 to 110,000,000, with final sales at $1.05 to $1.10, a decline of 1/4c to 1/2c from yesterday's close.
