jury," Franklin quoted Darrew as say-ing to him on October 5, 1911. The next day he said, Darrew gave him a check for $1,000 to be used in buying the vote as a jurer of Robert F. Rain, who later became the first sworn jurge in the trial. He said that he had known Bain for twenty years and that he had arranged for the corruption of the juror.

Franklin followed George N. Lockwood examination of Lockwood by Chief Coun sel Rogers of the defence failed to shake the witness' original story. It brought out, however, and accentuated certain facts which the defense claimed would go far toward establishing an alleged conspiracy to involve Darrow in the bribery negotiations between Lockwood and Franklin, declared by the defense to have seen directed by the district attorney tion that he never had been served as a juror in the McNamara case, although he had been told by Franklin that his same would be drawn. The defense up ertook to show that Lockwood's name with the district attorney and as a par of the proposed culmination of an allege conspiracy against Darrow. Franklin took the stand after a brief

Neal Cures in 3 Days

The man who drinks to excess little realizes the peril to his health, happiness and business. Relatives and husiness associates are the ones who comprehend the truth. The excessive drinker attributes the resistence of the professional nurse at the Neuraska Methodist hospital trainformation of liquor has mastered him.

The "liquor appetite" is the result of alcohol poison. This lurks in the system of every excessive drinker and can be eradicated only by medical treatment. Three days of the Neal Treatment will destroy all appetite for strong drink. It creates instead a positive aversion for the tante of liquor. The train who is drinking away his health, happiness and financial resources will find that the Neal Three-Day Treatment will make a new man of him and will be the best investment he can possibly make.

"Yes, sir," said Franklin. The witness said that he discussed the question with Darrow first on October 5, which was six days before the Mc-Namara trial was called. "We were walking along Spring urreet," he said, between First and Second, and MS Darrow made the remark: 'R's about time for us to get busy with the jury.' He said he wanted to talk with me about it." Franklin was then asked regarding his acquaintance with Robert P. Bain. He said he had known him for twenty. years and had had numerous talks with years and had had numerous talks with ton with reference to the bribery of Bain, he said, took place on the morning he received the check for $1,000 from lng he received the casex ror sales from Darrow. He had told Darrow, said he. that Hain would be a poor puror force McNamara, because of his prejudicable against union labor. He thought have could "get him," however. "We has talked the matter over," continued Frank lin, "and had decided to spend $5.00 on Franklin then told of taking the check for $1,000 to the bank and depositing it-in his own name. After drawing a check In his own name. After drawing a checkfor $500 against the deposit, he said, he went out to Bain's house. No one was at home and later he made another call, At this point the defense raised the objection that the prosecution was not presenting its case in accordance with the law, contending that before the alleged bribery of Bain could be shown the stafe would be compelled to prove the alleged bribery of Loukwood, the offense complained of in the indictment against Dates, row.
