ROOSEVELT PLANS CAMPAIGN

Think it is a splendid thing." Regarding the results of the day's conference, the colonel said:

"I have written to Governor Hadley in regard to the temporary chairmanship, but nothing definite has been decided about that. The Illinois and Maine delegates who visited me today did not think the temporary chairmanship is essential. I want to hear from the delegates throughout the country before committing myself finally."

"The delegates whom I have seen today consider the matter of the temporary chairmanship unimportant. They took the ground that whatever the temporary chairman said would only represent his own opinion and the opinion of the national committee and in no manner the opinion of the convention and their belief was that no issue should be made about the temporary chairmanship."

"Both the Illinois and the Maine men also protested about the matter of the distribution of tickets to the convention, saying their delegations had been allowed only a very small proportion of the tickets hitherto allotted to them and that they felt this indicated a deliberate purpose on the part of the national committee to staff the gallery with shouters who will try by clamor to overawe the convention."

"They also made to me a point to which I heartily agree—the hearing on the contested delegates should be open to the press. All that we are striving for is the fairest possible decision in the contested delegates cases. There can be no objection to the hearings being held publicly if there is a real determination to decide each contest directly on its merits."

"The delegates from Illinois asked me to go out to Chicago. I told them my personal intention was not to do it, certainly not unless some grave emergency in the shape of unfair play should arise."

SIoux FALLS, S. D., June 2.—(Special Telegram.)—Senator La Follette addressed a large gathering of Republicans last evening in behalf of his candidacy for the presidency. He pointed out that he was the original and only progressive republican candidate for the presidency, before the people.

The address last evening brings the senator's campaign to a close so far as Sioux Falls is concerned, but other addresses will be made Monday.

O. Richardson, candidate for United States senator, also made an address. The Roosevelt campaign will be brought to a close here Monday evening, with Governor Stubbs of Kansas as the chief speaker.

The republican campaign for governor will close in Sioux Falls Monday evening, when a rally of Edge republicans will be held, at which George W. Egan, independent republican candidate for governor, will make the address.

TUCSON, Ariz., June 2.—The republican executive committee met here today, when the Roosevelt leaders made a proposal to divide Arizona's six delegates to the Chicago convention between the colonel and President Taft.

COMMITTEES GO TO CHICAGO

NEVADA EXPECTS NATIONAL BODY TO STAND BY ROOT. CHICAGO, June 2.—David W. Mulvane of Topeka, member of the republican national committee from Kansas, today declared he expected a lively fight on United States Senator Eilu Root of New York as temporary chairman of the national convention, but said he expected the action of the subcommittee on arrangements in selecting Senator Root for the place would be approved by the complete national committee.

"I expect a fight over the temporary chairmanship both in the national convention and on the floor of the convention," said Mr. Mulvane. "However, I am now confident that the work of the subcommittee on arrangements in naming Senator Root as temporary chairman will be approved by the complete membership of the national committee when that body meets here on Monday."

FEAR WIGHT OF NEW ORLEANS, national committeeman from Louisiana, was another member of the party governing body to arrive in Chicago today. Mr. Wight was quoted as predicting the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt early in the convention.

According to statements attributed to him, Mr. Wight believes that the various state presidential preference primaries have settled that point.

"As a result of the numerous state preference primaries," said Mr. Wight, "there is but one course open to the republican party. That is the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt. Any other action will be illogical and out of the question."

Committeemen Arrive. With the arrival of several members of the national committee, in addition to the active heads of the subcommittee on arrangements, the preliminaries to the national convention took on a businesslike turn late today.

Colonel Harry S. New of Indianapolis, chairman of the subcommittee on arrangements, said tonight that it would be physically impossible to take care of about 4,000 newspapers which, within the last few days, have indicated a desire to be accommodated with seats for their representatives.

ALDRICH HAS CONVICT PLAN

Will Have Some Set to Work on the State Fair Grounds.

AID ASKED OF LEGISLATURE

Indications Are that Many Nebraska Editors Will Be in Lincoln at the Meeting of the Press Association.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, June 2.—(Special.)—The proposition of "what shall we do with our convicts," which has been troubling the governor for some time, seems to have been partially solved during the last week, when a deal was made with Secretary Moller of the State Fair board for the employment of a few of them in making improvements at the fair grounds.

For a long time Governor Aldrich has been trying to study out some plan which would keep the convicts at work and at the same time not come in contact with union labor. He is strongly opposed to any plan which will bring the convicts into competition with the man who labors on the outside.

The present plan at the prison has come the nearest to it that has yet been devised, but it is not at all along lines which the Nebraska governor would like to see carried into effect.

"In another year," said the governor, "I hope to have every convict who can be trusted employed in such a way that it will be better for the state, the community and the man himself. The state owns lots of land, and I propose to improve it as possible to farming. I have two objects in view in doing this. First, it will be a source of revenue to the state, and second, it will give the convict a chance to learn a line of employment whereby, when he has served his term, he can go out on a farm away from the temptations of the cities, and find employment which will be beneficial to him and keep him out of mischief."

To Separate Convicts. "I want to see a system effected, too, which will separate the first timers and the younger men from the old timers and the vicious. We ought to use every means possible to keep the young man who may have fallen under temptation in which there were extenuating circumstances from coming in contact while in charge of the state with anything or anybody which would tend to make him worse. We should have a system which would make men of our convicts and not criminals."

"This plan, I understand, has been in vogue in Florida, Colorado and Oregon with success and I would like to see it put into effect in Nebraska. It has not as yet been tried in the middle west and I shall use my efforts along the line of Nebraska being the first to inaugurate the plan of our penitentiary being something more than just a jail in which men are locked up for a period and then are let loose to again prey upon the public."

The success of this plan will depend a great deal upon the next legislature.

Many Editors Come. The meeting of the Nebraska Press association, which will be held in Lincoln this week, promises to be the best yet held in the capital city. Several of the advance guard are in the city today and more are expected this evening. Headquarters this year will be at the Lincoln hotel.

had been viewed by 25,000 persons as it lay in state from 10 to 1 o'clock. The church from which the funeral was held was crowded during the ceremonies, which began at 3 o'clock.

The services were in charge of Dr. Maurice E. Wilson of Dayton, a Presbyterian minister, and the funeral was conducted from the First Presbyterian church, though the dead man had been reared in the United Brethren faith. He had no church affiliation at the time of his death, although his brother Orville is a member of one of the Dayton churches of the United Brethren denomination and his father is a bishop in that church.

Following brief services at the church the body was conveyed to Woodland cemetery. Only members of the family and a number of friends of long standing accompanied the body to its final resting place, the family desiring that the burial be private.

During the time church services were held at the cemetery.
