(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, June 3-(Special Telegram.)-A quantity of meat, estimated at 18,000 pounds, property of John W. Dorr and the Dorr Cattle company, was confiscated by the health department and was taken to the rendering works. The council ordered the meat destroyed last week, following a report from the city physician that it was bad. The owners have expressed their intention of suing the city. The meat was found to be covered with mildew, it is alleged.

was chosen temporary chairman. Joseph H. Kibbey, former territorial governor protested against the methods of the central committee in making the temporary roll. The Roosevelt men at this juncture escorted Thomas Molloy of Yuma to the platform and installed him as chairman of a separate convention. The Roosevelt men rushed to the stage and Reddick, as chairman of the regular Taft convention and Molloy, as chairman of the Roosevelt gathering, matched voices to be heard above the din. Reddick named a credentials committee which seated only Taft delegates. Ignoring this, the contesting Roosevelt men rushed through their business of naming six delegates to the national convention.

The Taft forces then proceeded to name their delegates. The Roosevelters named Thomas Molloy, Ben Daniels of Pima county, Dwight B. Heard of Maricopa, John Redmond of Pinal, E. S. Clark of Yavapai, J. C. Greenway of Cochise. The Taft forces selected James T. Williams jr., of Tucson, J. L. Hubbell of Apache, R. E. Morrison of Yavapai, Dr. E. T. Wright of Cochise, D. P. Freudenthal of Graham, J. C. Adams of Maricopa.

Ralph Cameron, former delegate in congress, was named national committeeman by the Taft convention.

END OF FIGHT IN DAKOTA

Primary Campaign Winds Up. After Hard Battle. SIOUX FALLS, S. D., June 8.-The primary campaign in South Dakota closed tonight with addresses by the candidates at various points over the state. Tomorrow the battle of ballots, which will determine a number of interesting contests, will take place.

From a national standpoint, interest centers in the contest for the capture of the ten delegates, who will represent the state in the republican national convention at Chicago and in the democratic national convention at Baltimore.

There are three separate and distinct republican lists of delegates in the field one standing for President Taft, one for Theodore Roosevelt, and the other for Senator LaFollette. With the lists clearly designed under three separate mottoes, there can be no mistake on the part of the voters in expressing their choice between the republican candidates for nomination to the presidency.

President Taft's supporters are hopeful hat with the division of the anti-Taft vote between Roosevelt and La Follette they can elect their ten delegates. The Roosevelt men of the state are confident that they can wrest victory from both the Taft and La Foliette followers, and advance the claim that the Roosevelt delegates will be elected by pluralities. ranging from 10,000 to 15,000.
