RAISE TONE OF STATE PAPERS

Expert Will Be Employed to Travel Over State and Furnish Information on Problems that Confront Newspaper Men.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., June 4.—(Special Telegram.)—The second day of the Nebraska Press association opened with over 150 members present. The morning program as published was carried out by a paper by C. F. Bushausen of the Loup City Times-Independent on "What Shall We Do With the Out-of-Town Advertising."

Mrs. Henry C. Richmond of Omaha delighted the visitors with a solo which was followed by W. V. Stout of the University of Nebraska with an address on "Water Power Development in Nebraska." One of the most important matters before the session came up when the committee appointed to look into the proposition of having a paid secretary for the association reported. After considerable discussion the report of the committee to inaugurate the new plan was adopted. The plan is to form a sort of bureau with the director in charge as a head. A secretary will be selected at a salary who will be expected to spend most of his time on the road visiting the members of the new organization and instructing them along modern lines in newspaper work.

"Publicity and Progress," was a very able paper by C. C. Rosewater of the Omaha Bee which brought on a discussion led by Will M. Maupin of Will Maupin's Weekly of Lincoln and E. M. Marvin of the Beatrice Sun.

Mrs. Alice Armstrong of the Beatrice Gazette read a paper "The Bright Side of Newspaper Making," and the association then adjourned to take a trip to the state farm, where they were well entertained. Previous to the trip most of the members enjoyed automobile rides over the city. A theater party in the evening at the Oliver completed the day's work and pleasure.

The old power company sets forth that in 1905 it was granted by the city a franchise for fifty years, and that under that franchise it erected and has been maintaining an electric plant in that town, and that the city has no right under the law to operate a plant in opposition to the one to which it granted a franchise.

Thousands Visit Hayden Bros. on Their 25th Anniversary.

JOSEPH HAYDEN HAS RETURNED

All Records for a Monday Attendance at the Big Store Broken—Celebration to Continue All This Week.

Joseph Hayden, head of the firm of Hayden Bros., returned yesterday from a week's outing in the mountains and will be present all week to assist in the big twenty-fifth anniversary celebration which is now going on at the store. Mr. Hayden had accepted an invitation to take a week's vacation with friends in the mountains of Colorado.

All records for a Monday attendance were broken at the Hayden store Monday when all the five acres of floor space were filled with seekers for the numerous bargains which were set forth in the big twenty-four-page advertisement which was published in The Bee Sunday.

"We are making it a real inducement to the people to come to the store this week," said Thomas Flynn, manager of the woman's suit and coat department. "We have been preparing for this sale for months and our buyers have scoured the country over for merchandise which we know the people of Omaha want and which we could sell them at prices which would be an inducement. I know the hordes of people who were in the store Monday will all go out boosters and tell their friends of the rare bargains offered."

Telegrams of congratulations continue to pour in from friends of the firm all over the country, and thousands of personal friends in Omaha and the neighboring towns are paying visits to the store to extend their felicitations.

Blair Man Says H. S. Boys Are Behaving

John Blaco, farmer and stockman of Blair, Neb., still feels that eastern Nebraska could stand more rain without it doing any damage to crops.

"The earth is a little too dry even now and the recent rain did not prove enough," he said. "If the country has a good drenching in the next few days prospects certainly will look the best ever for bumper crops."

Blaco left Blair yesterday morning and is here attending the convention of Masons. Before his departure he saw the Omaha High school cadets in town. "I thought war was on at first," said Blaco. "Those boys certainly looked fine. They have taken Blair and have the sword of the town. There is a good, clean bunch of boys and are behaving nicely."

Another Record for Steers is Made on South Omaha Market

E. W. Houston of Dunlap, Ia., was a happy man Monday when he topped the market at South Omaha with a car load of steers, receiving $3.50, the record price to date for steers.

The steers were beauties and the bidding was spirited until the price was forced up to the highest price ever paid on the South Omaha market. Martin Reum, manager of the meat department of Hayden Bros., later bought the dressed steers from the packing company and will put them on display in his department as part of the celebration of the 25th anniversary now going on at Hayden Bros.

This bunch attracted so much attention at the yards that Mr. Reum received many orders for steaks and roasts from the stockmen, who easily recognized the quality of the meat.

Serpentine Crepe

Requires no Ironing

If your house gowns, wrappers, shirt waists, dresses, etc., are made of Serpentine Crepe you avoid the trouble of ironing. Simply wash as you would any cotton fabric in the regular way, shake out, and hang on the line to dry. Presto,—a clean, cool, summer garment, just as attractive in appearance as the day you first put it on.

TOURISTS

will find Serpentine Crepe shirt waists and night robes are particularly desirable for those who travel, as they do not require ironing, take up little room, do not become mussed in packing, and can be easily washed anywhere, and when dry are ready for immediate use. Fewer garments are, therefore, required on a journey by rail or water.

BUSINESS WOMEN

whose time, and sometimes whose money, are necessarily limited, will find many advantages in including garments made of Serpentine Crepe in their wardrobes. The superior wearing quality, and the ease with which they are laundered, make it possible for them materially to decrease their laundry expenses.

Serpentine Crepe is commanding the largest sale of any printed crinkly fabric in the world, because no other fabric gives so much beauty, wear and style for so little money. Look for the words "Serpentine Crepe" on the selvage of every yard and thus avoid securing worthless imitations. A large assortment of patterns and colors to suit the most fastidious on exhibit at all Omaha's leading department stores.
