Elastic Cotton Felt Mattresses are being recognized today as the most sanitary, comfortable and serviceable of all mattresses. They will give longer service and better satisfaction than any other mattress of equal price on earth.

We handle "Columbian Brand Mattresses" exclusively. These mattresses are made up by the Omaha Bedding Company who own and operate one of the most up-to-date and best equipped mattress manufacturing plants in America. Columbian brand felt is made from real cotton fibers, which have been combed and carded into layers that are even, buoyant and of un-wear-outable strength. Eastern critics proclaim the Omaha Bedding Company method of felt mattress making the finest in existence—no felt or method of construction and finish could be better.

We are showing a complete line of these splendid goods, and the Omaha Bedding Company have sent us a skilled mattress maker to stitch and tuft imperial French Edge Mattresses right in our window. Exhibits and Many Contests of "Know Omaha" Big Festival

"Know Omaha" is receiving due consideration at the store of the Union Outfitting company, where L. G. Doup and the Omaha Furniture company have window exhibits and demonstrations. The L. G. Doup company has a large matresse and pillow exhibit in this store. The white, airy feathers and materials that make up the mattresses are shown here, and one is able to see just what goes into the products of this firm and just how these articles are manufactured. A demonstrator gives the public a view of the inner workings of the manufacture of these goods.

The guessing contests which are being conducted by the various Omaha manufacturers in many windows about the city are causing a great deal of interest. Thousands are said to have voted in the different contests, and this fact is taken as an indication that the people of Omaha are interested in what is being done by the manufacturers of this city. In the window of the Illinois Central ticket office in the City National Bank building, the National Printing company has an exhibit. This shows several cards printed in various languages. For the person guessing the correct, or nearest number of "a's" accented and unaccented appearing in the printing in this window, a gold watch will be given. The Skinner Manufacturing company has several exhibits about the city. Two of them are located in the Courtney and Megeath store windows. They are well conceived and attract much attention. The contest of the Howard Stone Works which is held in the A. Hospe store, is one that attracts many who are looking for a good stove.

The "Know Omaha Better" campaign will last all this week, and during this period everybody who is at all interested in Omaha is requested to visit the various stores in the city and see the wonderful displays. Some of them are more wonderful than many people have supposed.

"I did not realize that the manufacturers of Omaha turned out so many wonderful things," declared one woman as she gazed into the windows of Miller, Stewart & Bacon company on South Sixteenth street. "They really are doing greater and better things here than I ever imagined, and I am going to see that all my children visit the various stores and learn just what the factories of Omaha are doing. I think that all mothers and fathers should urge their children to go down town this week and study all the exhibits. It certainly is educational, and it will tend to make them better children, give them greater knowledge and do more for them in some ways than the school books. After this week I believe that Omaha children, if their parents will send them down town to study the windows, will know more about their own city than the children of any other city of similar size in the country."

Roads Haled Into Court for Delay in Building Viaduct

Failure of the Missouri Pacific and Union Pacific railroads and the Union Stock Yards company to construct a viaduct over F street at Twenty-eighth street, South Omaha, resulted in their being haled into the equity division of the district court by the city of South Omaha. The defendants offered the excuse that their plans and specifications never have been approved by the city. Arguments are in progress.

The city ordered construction of the viaduct in 1910 and in October of that year an alternative writ of mandamus commanding the defendants to construct the viaduct or show cause why they should not be compelled to do so. The defendants agreed to build the viaduct and the case in court went to sleep.

A committee was appointed to make a contract with George G. Wallace of Omaha to handle the sale of the Bellevue real estate belonging to the college, the sale of which is to furnish funds for the gymnasium and science hall.

Dahlman and Mrs. Dick Kimball have been instrumental in securing this action of the park commissioner, who investigated conditions and found the kids without any of the ordinary sources of amusement.

TRUE LOVE NEVER DIES, SO NOW THEY ARE MARRIED

Years ago Emil Tomes of Clarkson, Neb., and his brother, George, loved the same girl. George and the girl were older than Emil and George won the heart of the maid. Emil clasped his brother's hand and the hand of the girl they both loved and wished them well. "The mind has a thousand eyes and the heart but one; yet the light of a whole life dies when its love is done." The heart of Emil was true and through the years he loved Frantiska. Though he must carry it locked in his heart no word of it, his love was not done. A few years ago George died. Emil and Frantiska were licensed to marry in county court today. He is 37 and she 28.

TRIAL OF SOUTH OMAHA MEN PUT OFF FOR WEEK

Trial of the South Omaha fire and police board bribery cases in the criminal division of district court has been postponed until next week or a week later. The reason given is that Charles A. Goss, who will prosecute for the state, needs time in which to prepare for trial. Judge A. L. Sutton said he hoped the cases may be brought to trial next week, but they may go over until the following week.
