piness is reached only through motherhood, in the clasping of her child within her arms. Yet the mother-tobe is often fearful of nature's ordeal and shrinks from the suffering incident to its consummation. But for nature's ills and discomforts nature provides remedies, and in Mother's Friend is to be found a medicine of great value to every expectant mother. It is an emulsion for external application, composed of ingredients which act with beneficial and soothing effect on those portions of the system involved. It is intended to prepare the system for the crisis, and thus relieve, in great part, the suffering through which the mother usually passes. The regular use of Mother's Friend will repay any mother in the comfort it affords before, and the helpful restoration to health and strength it brings about after baby comes. Mother's Friend

CREIGHTON GLEE CLUB GIVES SUCCESSFUL MUSICAL FARCE

Two hours of entertainment were accorded an ample audience at the Creighton auditorium last night when the University Glee club presented the musical farce, "Cox and Box," being a revelation in song and story of heart-rending mishaps and rejuvenating rediscovery of long-lost twins. The principal characters were Bouncer, a retired militiaman keeping a boarding house; Cox Hatter, who works all day and hires a room, and Box, a painter, who works all night and hires the same room, the innkeeper being the net gainer. An unexpected holiday brings Cox back home at 9 a. m. one day and the braska, occupying a special train and meeting of the two tenants develops some going on a trade extension trip. Mayor Hoctor Getting Results from His Cleanup Order.

TRAINOR DENIES HAS BADGE to Give Him Authority to

Ride Free Upon Street

In his own way Mayor Tom Hoctor succeeded in successfully carrying out a crusade for order and cleanliness approach every effort is being made to wipe out the last vestiges of tin can piles, garbage accretions and ash heaps on the streets and alleys of the city. The idea of the mayor and his assistants has been to minimize the fly evil during the hot weather. Physicians and members of the women's clubs have made repeated efforts to find some means of destroying the fly test in the city with but little success. In his campaign for a cleaner city Mayor Hoctor took the stand that old tin cans contained drippings of different joulds attractive to the files. Manure heaps and garbage piles also proved good breeding places for the vermin and in the hot weather these flies spread through the city and cause fevers, especially in the thickly populated districts where the children of the foreign poor receive less attention than in other Yesterday the mayor announced that the heavy work of the campaign was done and the sub-sanitary inspectors ; laid off. Some of the residents of the city were made to realize the necessity of obeying the commands of the law Harry Brown has returned home after and in some instances force had to be a month's visit at York. exerted by the authorities. When once the determination of the administration to carry out the reform had been grasped the response was immediate upon the S. D. part of the delinquent or careless citizen. The ash heaps disappeared, the garbage piles were carried away and the tin cans were carted to the river or some convenient ravine. Now the city is in a more or less presentable physical while en route to their home at Nash-condition and the alleys and streets are condition and the alleys and streets are rapidly taking on an appearance of comparative neatness.

Trainor Has No Badge. "I never in my life wore a police badge, either on a street car or elsewhere," said former Mayor Trainor last night, in criticising the resolution of the city council, which used his name as an exofficial, who still retained possession of police badges. Mr. Trainor was plainly nettled by the charge that he would condescend to use badge as means of beating the street car company of a fare. "I speak for myself only," continued the former mayor, "and I do not know about the "As to the former council wearing badges I never authorized such a thing until the police system had to be curtailed for lack of funds. At the time a big robbery and shooting affray caused the council to recognize the need of more policemen. At the time the funds were short and the council or some of them at least volunteered to act as police if the badges were issued. > Many Horses Stolen. Is there an equine legion of the lost; This is the question that is now agitating the minds of the South Omaha police department as it considers the strange disappearance of horses within the last The missing steeds are not always the shiny coated high steppers that appeal to the artistic eye of the socialistic road agent. Nor are the missing ones confined to frisky colts led away by their own hot blooded impatience of eurb and the halter. Some of the staidest and most reliable citizens of the local equine lodge have quietly forsaken comfortable stalls and plentiful pastures within the last few weeks. Respectable old Dobbins who have grown venerable in their observance of the family traditions of steadiness and loyalty have dropped out over night and left their owners in a state of perturbation and worry over their disappearance. The worst part of the affair is that according to the police the horses never return
