DUBUQUE, Is., June 6.-With an imaginary hostile army just across the Mississippi river, either in Wisconsin or encamped tonight on a plateau south of repair shop.

army or regiment brought together to paired. test new equipment, means of transportation and other experiments. The First battalion came from Fort Snelling at St. Paul, Minn., and was under command of Major Lindsay of the Tweny-eighth infantry. Fort Brady of Chippewa, Mich., sent part of the Second, while the rest is made up of companies E. F and G. of the Fourth infantry of Fort Crook, Omaha. The Third battation came from the Twenty-seventh infantry at Fort Sheridan, Chicago,

The three battalions make up what is said to be the largest and finest equipped regiment of regulars ever mobilized in the United States and with the machine gun company orderlies and others will total more than 2,000 men. Accompanying each battalion from Forts Snelling. Sheridan and Crook, comes a platoon of machine guns making a complete mathine gun company of sixty-six men and six guns.

Important Tests Planned. The mobilization of the troops at Dubuque is regarded by military men as one of the most important movements ever begun by the War department and army officers. Throughout the service officers are watching with interest the the capital. Later it became known that outcome of the experiments that are tobe made not only with the use of the automobile truck in maintaining a line of communication with the base of supplies, but also the testing of other equipment that may revolutionize the whole Chief in this experimental work is the guard. testing of the ability of the automobile ruck to deliver the goods and replace the transportation. The intention is to transport supplies between Dubuque and the regiment at all times by auto truck. During the present week the troops will comport themselves as though going into ctual warfare. They will have scouting parties out in all directions and camp orders will be as stringent as though ctual warfare were on.

Some day the first of next week the army purposes moving across the Mississippl river into the "enemy's country" for a march to Sparta, Wis., by way of Madison, Wis. All the time the army will move as though in an enemy's territory, naving spies and scouting parties in advance. Bridges will be tested and the situation of the possible "mines" explored. Arrived at the national practice grounds at Sparta, the troops will go through the value of the new equipment.

CUBANS EXPECT INTERVENTION

Result of Attack by Negroes-Gomes Confesses Needs Help.

HAVANA, June 6.-American marines have landed on Cuban soil. To the number of 450, under command of Colone Lucas, they came ashore today at Caimanera and preceeded by train to Guantanamo City.

While it is offically declared that this action was taken solely to protect American and other foreign properties, the impression became general that it was a preliminary step to American intervention. This caused considerable excitement at the landing was in response to an urgent States naval station by the Chamber of Commerce of Guantanamo to afford protection to the numberous foreign estates in the vicinity, which the government organization of the United States army. forces have been unable effectively to

One hundred and twenty additional marines were dispatched this evening to ong eared army mule as a means of Guantanamo and the American force probably will safeguard the foreign prop erties in that district.

Excitement Over Warships. There was great excitement in Havana this afternoon on the circulation of a report that four American battleships were on their way from Key West. Towards evening the rumor was current that the vessels had been signalled off Morro castle and were expected to enter the harbor within an hour. The excitement subsided on receipt of the news that warships had been ordered to Guantanamo. The senate convened late this afternoon and approved the recommendation of the committee on laws that the president be empowered to suspend the constitutional guaranties, but only in the maneuvers for several weeks to determine province of Oriente.
