Chicken and Veal Pie. Buy chicken giblets, the necks, gizzards, hearts and livers. By adding to these half a pound of veal cutlet there is enough for an excellent chicken pie. Put the giblets into a saucepan with a pint of cold water, a slice of onion, a small carrot and a level teaspoonful of salt. Simmer until there is only half a cup of liquid. Strain this and set aside. Cut the veal into small cubes and cook slowly until well done and a light brown. Put into a baking dish with the giblets cut up and scatter a little salt fat pork cut in shreds, through the meat. Thicken the chicken liquor slightly with flour moistened with water, to a paste. Cover with good rich pie paste, puff paste if you have it, and bake in a steady oven for an hour and a half.

Speed Red Cabbage. Shave a medium sized head of red cabbage and soak for half an hour in cold water, then drain as dry as possible. In a saucepan melt one heaping tablespoonful of butter and add one tablespoonful of sugar, one teaspoonful of salt, one-quarter teaspoonful of pepper, six whole cloves and one-half cup of good vinegar. Add the drained cabbage, cover and cook slowly, then simmer gently for fully an hour and a half.

Fairy Pudding. Put a tumbler of firm jello into a saucepan, add one cupful of boiling water, stir until the jello is melted and the liquid at the boiling point. Add quickly to it two tablespoonfuls of corn starch mixed with a pinch of salt and sufficient cold water to make a thin paste; stir until clear and smooth, then draw to one side and cook slowly for ten minutes. Turn into a large bowl and when cold and beginning to stiffen beat long and hard with an egg beater until it is quite light, add the whipped whites of two eggs and continue to beat until it is a feathery mass. Turn into wetted molds and set aside, covering very cool with cream or a custard sauce. Any firm jelly will do, but quince gives a peculiarly delicate flavor.

Leaf Lettuce Salad. Use for the salad only the small leaves of the lettuce. Serve with a French dressing of mayonnaise, as desired, making sure the lettuce is fresh and crisp and the salad well chilled before it is served.
To Bake Potatoes Quickly. First boil potatoes of uniform size for fifteen or twenty minutes and then put them in the oven and they will finish baking in a short time and taste as good as though baked in the usual manner.

Plain Spinach. Take one peck of spinach, one-half teaspoonful of pepper, two tablespoonfuls of butter, one-eighth teaspoonful of nutmeg. One hard boiled egg, salt to taste. Remove roots from the spinach; wash the leaves in four changes of cold water, then scald with very hot water. This sifts any remaining grit to bottom of pan. Place in kettle or steamer top with teaspoonful of salt; don't add any water, and cook until tender, lifting occasionally to prevent burning. Drain, put in chopping tray, add seasonings and chop fine. Reheat, place in mound in serving dish, and garnish with hard cooked egg to represent a daisy.

Lemon Float. Cut four lemons in halves, discard the pits, scoop out the pulp of two and squeeze the juice from the other two. To the juice add one heaping cupful of sugar and a scant pint of water and bring quickly to a boil. Stir in three scant tablespoonfuls of corn starch mixed with one-third of a teaspoonful of salt and a little cold water and when smoothly thickened draw to one side, cover and cook very slowly for half an hour. Take off, add the lemon pulp and one orange, peeled and sliced. Serve this dessert very cold with cream and sugar.
