

TIRED CADETS RETURN HOME

Commandant Cowan Well Pleased with Discipline Maintained.

REVELLE IS SOUNDED EARLY

Second Battalion, Under Command of Major George Grimes, Takes First Honors for Keeping Company Streets Clean.

Four hundred tired and sunburned high school cadets returned from Camp Haskell at Blair at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and marched from the Webster street depot to the school campus, where they were dismissed.

The cadets were awakened promptly at 4:30 in the morning and after a breakfast of ham sandwiches and hot coffee tents were taken down and baggage packed. Before the men left the camp the grounds were cleaned of paper, tin plates, buckets, baskets and other refuse paraphernalia so that everything was left in a shipshape condition.

Shortly after 8 o'clock the regiment formed and marched to the depot at Blair where a special train awaited them. After an hour's delay the buglers sounded off and the train pulled out.

Second Battalion Wins

The second battalion, composed of companies G, D and E, in charge of Major George Grimes, won the two-thirds credit towards the Davidson cup for having the cleanest company streets and tents and the best discipline during the encampment. In charge of Major Sievers Suenam, the third battalion took second honors and the first battalion, in charge of Major Vergil Rector, was awarded third place in the scoring.

Competitive drill will be held Tuesday afternoon at Fort Omaha, individual company and battalion maneuvers making up the afternoon's program. After the completion of these drills, regimental dress parade will be held and the new promotions for the next school year announced.

At the breaking of Camp Haskell Commandant Cowan expressed himself well pleased with the discipline of the cadets and stated the camp will be continued again next year.

HIGH PRAISE FROM AFAR

Prominent Indiana Society Lady Staunch Advocate of Dresher Brothers' Cleaning.

THRICE YEARLY VISITOR.

Always Manages To Bring Swell Gowns To Omaha For a Thorough Cleaning At Marvelous Dresher Plant.

Dresher Bros., the Dry Cleaners and Dyers at 2211-2213 Farnam St., turn out a better job of dry cleaning than they do in some of the larger cities in the state of Indiana, else a certain Indiana society lady who visits Omaha thrice yearly, would not save all of her garment dry cleaning and dyeing work to be done in Omaha.

Yes, indeed; this lady knows a precise job of cleaning when she sees one, she says she wouldn't have to pack her wardrobe to Omaha for a restoration if they could do the work as well in Indiana.

And this lady wears exquisite creations indeed, if you stop in at the plant the Dresher boys may give you just a peep at some of her finer gowns and newer frocks; but her name of course must be withheld. (She visits a prominent West Farnam St. family; perhaps you might guess who it is!)

This society light from Indiana is keen; she knows the folly of entrusting good garments to indifferent cleaners; she would far rather put herself to some trouble to seek out the experts, as she is doing by employing Dresher's. After all is said and done and advertised by others, Dresher's are still the "top notchers" in the cleaning art in Omaha. Young firm? Yes. But so check full of energy that nothing good escapes them. Witness the huge $50,000 cleaning plant on Farnam St.; it's the finest equipped plant of the sort in all the U. S. A.

Get out your finest frocks; your suits; your waists; your flimsy, dainty things; your feathers; your rugs; anything; everything; then phone Tyler 3200 or Auto 2225 for a man.

Express paid one way on out-of-town shipments of $2 or over. Branch at Pampelun Room of Brandeis Stores, or at Dresher The Tailors, 1515 Farnam Street.

Oleson Family Mix Gets Head of House in Peck of Trouble

John Oleson, arrested two weeks ago on complaint of his wife and Carl Michelsen for assaulting the latter, was bound over to the district court by Acting Police Judge Barker under $500 bonds. Oleson and his wife have been separated for two years.

Two weeks ago Oleson went to his wife's home at 1128 North Sixteenth street to see their two children. He and his wife quarreled and Michelsen, who boards at Mrs. Oleson's home, returning from work found Oleson chasing her about the kitchen.

He became mixed up in the fray and was taken to the Wise Memorial hospital with five wounds in his back from an ice pick.

Michelsen testified that Oleson had threatened to kill him and Mrs. Oleson on several occasions, and because of this he carried a billy in his pocket, which the latter used with good results.

Oleson's attorney asked Michelsen if the former had not always treated him with the utmost respect. "Oh! Yes, he set me up to a couple of drinks once in a while," he replied.

The 5-year-old daughter of Oleson was called upon in court to testify against him. In a sobbing voice she said she couldn't, and stretched out her small arms toward her father, who took her in his arms and with tears in his eyes lovingly embraced her.

TAXES ON CORPORATIONS WILL SOON BE DELINQUENT

Money is coming into the United States treasury at a rapid rate in response to the call on corporations for payment of the one per cent tax on their net earnings.

The tax becomes effective June 1 and delinquent July 1. Collector Ross L. Hammond has issued a reminder to corporations having their home office in Nebraska to pay up before the tax becomes delinquent and require of them an addition 5 per cent on the tax. At the present rate it appears that very few corporations in this state will be required to pay the added assessment.

Aged, Wrinkled Faces Easily Rejuvenated

(From The Beauty Seeker.) An aged face is often only a mask to a comparatively youthful person. Beauty is a countenance young and fair to look upon. It is a simple matter to remove the mask. Ordinary mercerized wax, to be had at any drug store, gradually absorbs the worn-out surface skin in a week or two the user has the loveliest pinky white complexion imaginable. An ounce of the wax usually is sufficient to complete the transformation. It is put on at night like cold cream and taken off in the morning with warm water. This remarkable treatment is invariably effective, no matter how muddy, yellow or discolored the complexion, freckles, moth patches, liver spots, pimples, blackheads and other cutaneous blemishes, naturally vanish with the disordered skin. To remove wrinkles and flabbiness, here is a recipe that cannot be too highly recommended: Powdered sassafras, 1 oz.; wash lotion, 4 oz.

Commission Row is All Cleaned Up in a Day After Warning

Commissioner Kugel paid a visit to the wholesale commission district Friday afternoon to see how the commission dealers were obeying the orders issued last Wednesday to keep the streets and walks free from spoiled fruit and vegetables. Nowhere could he find any signs of the filth and rotten fruit and garbage which has been scattered about in the street and on walks in the past.

"Never have I seen the streets in the wholesale district as clean as they were yesterday," he said. "We are going to keep a special officer in the district and all the dealers guilty of scattering refuse about the streets will be heavily fined."

A. J. Weinstein of the Weinstein & Adler Co., 1025 Howard street, was arrested and his case continued until next Tuesday.

Peddlers will also have to toe the mark. They will not be allowed to scatter their spoiled goods about the streets. Morris Jacobson and Samuel Greenberg were arrested by Special Officer Coffey on this charge. They were discharged in police court with the warning if guilty of this offense again they would be harshly dealt with.

Burglaries Increase During Cold Nights

Alert burglars are taking advantage of these cool nights to pull off a few extra jobs before the summer vacation comes in real earnest. The accomplished burglar knows in a semi-scientific way that persons sleep sounder during cold nights, and that in their nocturnal expeditions they are less liable to be disturbed when temperatures are low.

A Wernher, 1125 South Thirty-second street, reported to the police that a burglar entered his home through a pantry window sometime during Friday night and bagged jewelry valued at about $20. More than a dozen such robberies have been reported to the police within a week.

Pedestrian Waylaid and Robbed by Thugs

The firemen, however, were not granted a raise in salary. In the past they have worked seven days a week. They were offered an increase of $2 if they would continue to work seven days a week. They chose to give up the raise and work but six days a week.

CALLS "CORNHUSKERS" BACK

Chancellor Avery Issues Public Appeal to University Students.

CRISIS AT STATE INSTITUTION

Executive Head Declares Confidence in Management of Book Betrayed and Demands that Official Expurgations Follow.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 8.—(Special Telegram.)—The aid of parents of university students was yesterday invoked by Chancellor Avery to secure the return of 1,500 copies of the Cornhusker, in order that the "joke" department might be removed and the books rebound. Action was begun yesterday by Chancellor Avery when he passed public censure on Dana Van Dusen, editor-in-chief of the book, for allowing matter to appear in it which he claimed was questionable.

Chancellor Avery today issued a second statement declaring that it was the greatest internal crisis in university affairs in many years and a bitter humiliation to the university that matter would be allowed to go out reflecting on the honor of the students. The chancellor's statement reads:

"Deeply humiliated that our confidence in the Cornhusker management to produce a clean book, worthy of Nebraska ideals, has been grossly betrayed and feeling that the existence of the copies of the edition as it now stands will have a tendency to dull the moral perception of young people who peruse its pages and to work immeasurable harm to the institution, I hereby appeal to all right-minded students to help us in suppressing the indecent features of the book. This is the greatest internal crisis that has come to the university in many years. Will the students arise to the occasion and help remove this blot on the good name of the institution by repudiating a book filled with suggestions of drunkenness and immorality?"

The chancellor has indicated that all students who fail to return their copies of the book may have their credits removed.
