YOUNG WOMEN SIT ON TRACK AND STOP TRAINS

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., June 12.—(Special.)—Engineers on the Chicago & North-western railway line which extends through Clark county complain bitterly of the practice of two young women residing in that county, who recently on several occasions have taken their place on the track in front of approaching trains and remain there until the engineer has been compelled to stop his train, when they make their escape. Their latest escapade in the train stopping line was on a stiff grade and the engineer had a strenuous time stopping his train on the down grade in time to prevent the young women being run down and killed. The unusual pastime of the two young women has been reported to officials of the road and arrests may follow if the practice is not stopped.
