Walks Two Blocks With Broken Neck, Drops Stone Dead. With his neck broken from a fall from his wagon at Sixteenth and Ohio streets at 1 yesterday afternoon John R. Fix, a teamster, walked unassisted two blocks to a blacksmith shop. Just as he entered the shop he collapsed, dying almost instantly.

Fix, who leaves a wife and four children at 1807 Ohio street, was approaching Sixteenth street in his wagon, when the right front axle broke, letting the wagon bed down suddenly. The driver was thrown to the ground and in the impact with the pavement his neck was broken. He seemed dazed, but thought his injuries only temporary. He sat down on the curb hoping to be revived and Officer McDonald came along. The latter questioned him concerning the accident, and Fix declared that he would walk to the blacksmith shop to ask someone to take charge of his team and wagon. Just as he reached the shop he fell dead.

Coroner Crosby has taken charge of the body.

Rejected Lover Tries to Commit Suicide. Because his sweetheart of four days would not marry him when he popped the question Wednesday, Lee A. Plumb of Chicago, who has been in Omaha about a month, went to the Golden Eagle restaurant, 1204 Douglas, Thursday morning and took one ounce of carbolic acid. Quick work on the part of the police surgeons saved his life.

Plumb went out with Laura Weare, a waitress in the Bon Ton restaurant. He told of his great love for her and when she refused to marry him left in the morning he went to the Bon Ton and got a cup of coffee from his sweetheart and then gave her $5.50 of $6 he was keeping for her. He said he was going to get some poison with the other 50 cents and commit suicide. Laura joked him and told him not to do it. But he did, after writing a nice little note telling her that he would meet her in heaven.

Investigation of rumored irregularities in connection with deliberations of the jury in the breach of promise case of Miss Angelika Katsura against George Saletopulos, alias Saleto, are being made by Judge Willis G. Sears, before whom the case was tried, and Presiding Judge A. L. Sutton, at the request of J. E.

Rait and John O. Yeiser, attorneys for Miss Katsura. The jury gave the girl a verdict for $1,500, though on the first ballot eight jurors voted to give her $10,000, the amount she asked.

None of the judges and attorneys who are familiar with the case and know the specific nature of the rumors and charges will give out any information regarding the matter. The most that could be learned from authentic sources was that the investigation is being prosecuted and one juror may be called in and asked to explain "some things."

Refuse to Keep Agreement. Miss Katsura alleged that Saletopulos induced her and her parents to come to this country by promising to marry her and then refused to keep his agreement. After the jurors desiring to give the girl a verdict for $10,000 offered to compromise on lesser verdicts for her three jurors joined them. One juror held out for the defendant until the last ballot, which was for $1,500 compromise. L. J. Piatti, attorney for Saletopulos, has filed a motion for a new trial, in which misconduct of the jury is alleged. The motion, however, makes only the general charge of misconduct and contains no specific charge. Mr. Piatti would not say what the misconduct was. When Mr. Yeiser was questioned regarding the charges laid before the court he refused to say anything whatever about them. He volunteered the opinion, however, that the $1,500 verdict, small as it was, was "an outrage" against Miss Katsura.

DRENCHING RAINS SOAK BELT

Heaviest Downpour of Year in the Missouri Valley.

PRECIPITATION IS GENERAL

Republican Valley Receives a Liberal Share of the Moisture, as Do Other Sections of Nebraska.

General, torrential rains, following the scattering precipitation that has fallen intermittently through the grain belt for a week or ten days came again Wednesday night, giving Omaha and general sections of Nebraska the most thorough drenching they have had since last year. Colonel Welsh, observer in charge of the Omaha weather bureau, reports that during Wednesday night, or rather during the twenty-four hours ending at 7 o'clock yesterday morning 1.82 inches of rain were recorded at this point.

Colonel Welsh's observations. "The rains were quite general," says he. "The heaviest downpour appears to have been up and down the Missouri valley, continuing west in diminishing degree to the mountain ranges. The heaviest precipitation was in central and eastern Nebraska, but the western sections of the state received a liberal share of moisture. In some of the valley counties, especially in the southeastern part of the state, the downpour was extremely heavy, the storm in some parts reaching the proportions of almost a cloudburst."

Heavy Rainfall in Valley. In some sections along the Missouri river two inches of rain fell. From O'Neill east to the Missouri river the gauges showed from one to two inches. In the neighborhood of Stanton about the same amount of moisture is reported. In the Republican valley, where rain is always welcome, there was a liberal downpour, McCook reporting one inch. The only point in Nebraska reporting no rain during the night is Alliance, in the sand hill district. Rain is still falling at some points.

According to the reports received at the railroad offices, there are many lowlands in Nebraska and Kansas where farmers are beginning to pray for a cessation of the rains which have been so general over the two states during the last ten days.

CRIED DAY AND NIGHT WITH ECZEMA

Baby a Mass of Sores. Looked for His Death any Minute. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Brought First Good Sleep for Two Years. Soon Cured.

R. F. D. 4, Mt. Gilead, Ohio. "When my little boy was a week old he was taken with eczema and I was looking for his death any minute. First his face turned so red, but I did not pay any attention to it. It began to get worse and he just tossed his little head to and fro on the pillow and cried day and night. He began to scratch himself so that I had to muffle his little hands, and then the rash began to go over his whole body until he was a mass of running sores. The more I doctored the worse he got. He had it so bad that his little ears began to rot off and his scalp was something awful to look at. I saw the Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertised and got a bar of Cuticura Soap, making a lather all over his body with the Soap and hot water and then I dried him off well and anointed him with the Cuticura Ointment. He went right to sleep and slept four hours, the first good sleep he had had for very nearly two years, so I kept on using the Cuticura Soap and Ointment and it was no time before his skin began to get well. Soon he was completely cured. He is sixteen years old now and has not had a sign of the eczema since he was cured by the Cuticura Soap and Ointment." (Signed) Mrs. N. M. Beecher, Sept. 12, 1911.

No stronger evidence than this could be given of the success and economy of warm baths with Cuticura Soap and gentle applications of Cuticura Ointment in the treatment of torturing, disgusting humors of the skin. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. book. Address, "Cuticura," Dept. 7, Boston. Tender-faced men should shave with Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick.

Corn Wants Some Real Hot Weather

"Hot weather versus cut-worms" will tell the story of the yield in corn this fall, believes Ira Burnham of Wisner. "The weather has been entirely too cool lately" and cut-worms have got in their work," he said. "The rains of the last ten days have done wonders to the North Platte country and wheat throughout that portion of the state is in excellent condition.

"But for the corn, the next thing on the calendar are the 90-in-the-shade days. If we won't have them corn will have to be replanted the third time. This will make it too late and frost will get in its work before it can be harvested. The whole key as to whether we have bumper yields in corn rests on whether we are favored with hot weather from now on."

WOULD PLEAD GUILTY RATHER THAN STAY IN JAIL

Joseph Albert, saloon keeper of Chicago, is in Omaha endeavoring to raise a bond of $5,000 to free his son, Michael, who, with Harry Allen, both of Chicago, are in jail charged with bringing two girls to Omaha for immoral purposes. The younger Albert is willing, however, to enter a plea of guilty if bail can not be furnished and take what punishment the court will give him rather than to remain in jail.

The elder Albert is willing that his son should plead guilty, and it is probable that a motion to this effect will be made today. If such a motion is made it will necessitate the calling of a special grand jury by which to indict him. Allen is noncommittal and is waiting to see what Albert intends doing before he acts. If Albert gets off with a small sentence he, too, may wish to plead guilty.

BOND FILED IN LIEU OF WATER COMPANY PROPERTY

Thompson, Belden & Co.'s suit against the Omaha Water company for $6,500 damages for the flooding of the Thompson-Belden store two years ago would have prevented the transfer of the water company's property to the city of Omaha, but for the action of Mahoney & Kennedy, attorneys for the plaintiff, and Stout & Rose, counsel for the water company. To protect the claim Mahoney & Kennedy attached lands owned by the water company. Attached property cannot be transferred. Stout & Rose filed a $10,000 bond to secure the Thompson-Belden claim if it is allowed and Mahoney & Kennedy released the attachment.
