C. S. Hayward Tells of the Time Burgess Secured Office.

CONDITIONS ARE NOT SIMILAR

Board Members Want Bourke to Have the Job Because He Needs It—Member to Be Elected Monday.

Exceptions are taken by former members of the Omaha Board of Education to statements that conditions similar to those now prevailing in the board existed when J. F. Burgess was elected secretary. They point out that Mr. Burgess, then a member of the board, was elected because conditions had been unsatisfactory.

Since W. T. Bourke, chairman of the teachers' committee, has resigned and is attempting to secure the position of secretary, replacing Mr. Burgess, a volume of criticism and charges of "politics" have been made.

C. S. Hayward, now head of the Hayward Shoe house, was a member of the board when Mr. Burgess resigned. He said conditions justified the board's action then, but that there is now no justification for ousting Burgess, except that Bourke needs the job and for certain reasons a majority of the board appears willing to give it to him.

When Burgess accepted the secretaryship in 1900 trouble had been brewing in the board since the year 1899. A detective had been hired by the board and an investigation made.

"We didn't oust the secretary because we wanted Burgess particularly," said Mr. Hayward. "We did it because we had had such a checkered time under the old secretary and had found him on the wrong side of the issue for which a minority were then contending and which have since been proved were right. Burgess is a trustworthy man and we knew that he was trustworthy and capable then. In fact I believe in Burgess' ability and trustworthiness to such an extent that I would feel as safe if he were spending my funds as if I were spending them myself."

"An election to fill the position of Mr. Bourke will be held Monday," said Dr. K. Spaulding, a former member of the board, has been proved to be a younger and more progressive member of the board for the plan of the board and those who desire to see a secretary have named him as their candidate. He has without previous experience depended on to stand with the majority.

Dr. King's safe, sure and $1.00.

Rain Continues to Soak the Crops of the Entire State

It still continues to rain over the greater portion of Nebraska and reports at the railroad offices are to the effect that there is no place in the state where now there is a lack of moisture. Agents and others sending in reports state that there has now been sufficient rain to carry the small grain through to maturity.

Mormon Leader Has Pockets Well Picked

Jesse H. Nielsen of Idaho Falls, Idaho, had his pockets picked of $6 in money, a railroad ticket from Salt Lake City to Chicago, a ticket good for forty persons from Salt Lake City to Chicago, four steamship tickets from Chicago to Montreal to Liverpool and an order for thirty-eight tickets from Chicago to Montreal, on a Council Bluffs car at Tenth and Douglas street yesterday morning.

Nielsen is conducting a party of forty Mormons from Salt Lake City to Montreal, Canada. The delegation arrived in Omaha Friday morning and had to go to the Chicago Great Western railroad station in Council Bluffs to catch the train for Chicago.

They got on a Council Bluffs car at Fourteenth and Farnam streets. All sat down inside except Nielsen, who stood on the back platform to smoke. Besides himself there were several other men standing outside. When the car reached Tenth street one of the men jumped off without signaling the conductor to stop. Unconsciously Nielsen put his hand into his hip pocket to see if his wallet was still there. It was gone.

When the car stopped the man was out of sight. Nielsen furnished a good description of him to the police.

The wallet with the tickets minus the money was later found by a mail carrier in the mail box at Seventeenth and Cumming streets.

The party consists of Mormon missionaries going to Canada to bring new members into the church. Four of the party are bound for Europe.

TEN THOUSAND BUNS SHIPPED TO A PICNIC

The Sundgren bakery, located at Twenty-eighth and Leavenworth streets, recently shipped to Arnold, Neb., a consignment of 10,000 buns, which were eagerly devoured by the Arnold Boosters' club at a big picnic. This is the largest consignment of this nature ever shipped out of Omaha.

Disciplined Cadets Want Certificates; Officials Are Cold

Pressure is being brought to bear on Superintendent Graff and members of the Board of Education to force them to grant cadet certificates to high school cadets who were demoted.

Members of the board may take up the case at a meeting Monday evening, but it is probable that nothing will be done to interfere with the ruling of the military department.

Board members and Superintendent Graff have upheld the ruling of the officers who demoted the cadets and will interfere with great reluctance, if at all. A majority favor no interference.

Windsor Pupils Who Are Punctual

The following pupils of the Windsor school, of which Miss Eddy is principal, have been present every day of the last school year:

City Schools Are Closed for Summer

City schools closed Friday for the summer vacation. A special meeting of the Board of Education was held at noon to pass the teachers' payroll. Teachers flocked to the secretary's office, 400 strong, during the afternoon to receive their checks.

Pupils gathered at the several schools early in the morning and were dismissed. They were given their cards.

Flag day was observed in the schools only by raising flags over the majority of the buildings.

Teachers began making arrangements to leave today, Sunday and the early part of next week on their summer vacation trips.

YOUTH FALLS THROUGH SKYLIGHT OVER SALOON

Joseph Freed, 16 years old, fell through a skylight into the Philip Holzman saloon at 1419 Dodge yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. He was not injured seriously.

Young Freed, who lives at 2635 Davenport street, was visiting at the Holzman home, which is above the saloon, and while he was playing in the hallway something on the skylight attracted his fancy. He crawled out to get the object and fell through the skylight, falling with a thud on the bar room floor.

SOUTH DAKOTA LOOKS FOR SOME BIG CROPS

"South Dakota expects to have the banner season of its existence this year," said Optie Chambers of Dallas, S. D., associated with Jackson Bros. "We have had an abundance of moisture and the thousands of new settlers are already counting on heavy returns from their first crops."

Chambers is well known in Omaha, where he had charge of the Indians and South Dakota exhibit for Jackson Bros. at the Omaha Land show.
