CO-OPERATION ON ALL SIDES

Transcontinental Highway Volunteers Meet with Warm Reception All Along the Route.

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., June 19.—(Special Telegram)—The good roads boosters from Omaha rolled into North Platte at 11:30, ten minutes ahead of schedule. This was due to good roads leading into town. They were met by the members of the Lincoln County Automobile association, officers of the North Platte Chamber of Commerce, and all the good roads boosters and the farmers along the line of the Platte Valley Automobile road between Maxwell and Hershey. All of these tendered the visitors a dinner at which were exchanged views and pledges of co-operation. This is in the sand hill country where the making of good roads is necessary, but one that can be easily accomplished with the aid of the Union Pacific Railway company. Every citizen of North Platte is enthused over the action of the Omaha Commercial club and appreciate the co-operation of such an organization. They want a fourteen-mile road to follow the railroad right-of-way from Maxwell here instead of twenty-eight miles away to the south of the railroad. While Lincoln county has excellent roads into North Platte the necessity of marking them is impressed upon the citizens of the town and the farmers along the road. They are being urged to paint the poles with white, black and yellow. The officials of the Omaha, Cheyenne & Salt Lake road at Maxwell overtook and passed Ezra Meeker with his famous ox team enroute to the Pacific slope.

Brady Island on the Job.
Brady Island was on the job when the good road artists rode into town. Following speeches by Mayor Marcott, Mayor Dahiman, and K. A. Debord, William Brady, the champion of the bill recently passed by congress to reduce the Union Pacific right-of-way, told of the intent and purposes. He explained that it was not meant to and would not affect the company by dispossessing it of any right-of-way now occupied or in use by the company, but it would reduce the width from 40 to 300 feet and leave for a road a 100-foot strip on one side for the great transcontinental highway that everybody in this section wants.

Tourists Never Alone.
In every instance the Omaha mayor is introduced by the local mayor or president of the commercial club who appreciate the co-operation and leadership offered by the Omaha men. Every commercial club has a good roads committee, and such committees generally act as escorts to the visitors from one town to the other, to show the work done, or being done, and if any county supervisor is dilatory or responsible for unfavorable conditions his name is learned by the Omaha men for reference and use later on.

OLD BASE BALL CAUSES ROW

Clerks in the U. P. Headquarters Have Bad Mixup.

FUSS STARTS AT BALL GAME

One Has Shoulder Broken and Another Loses His Job—No More "Catching" Allowed Near the Building.

An old, second hand base ball, worth not to exceed 10 cents, came close to precipitating a riot between clerks of the auditing and traffic departments of the Union Pacific. It not only did this, but it resulted in Charles Longren being sent to the hospital with a broken shoulder and a fractured jaw and Tom Murphy losing his position.

The game of ball played between the teams of the two departments at the opening of the Young Men's Christian Association park week ago last Saturday was responsible for the fight, in which about a dozen or more men participated. At the end of that game one of the old balls disappeared. It is asserted that Murphy accused Longren of getting away with the horsehide covered sphere. Longren and his adherents heard of this and fighting blood was stirred up. The boiling point of this blood was reached Tuesday night.

After office hours, out in the rear of the building, a couple of the clerks were indulging in "catch." Other clerks were watching the throwing of the ball, among them being most of those who were in the Saturday game. During the proceedings, it is claimed that Murphy accused Longren of stealing the ball. Longren resented this and the two went to it. Blows rained thick and fast. Others jumped into the arena, and in less than a minute there was a free-for-all.

Declaring that there should be one standard of morals for both sexes, the Ministerial union at its last meeting passed a series of resolutions condemning the social evil and protesting against the segregation of scarlet women. The resolutions declare for an ordinance defining the punishment of men who frequent disorderly houses as well as the women, asserting that the invoking of this law would "be an essential element of good faith" in dealing with the question.

Sixteen Thousand Dollars in Profit Made on a "Sixty"

John Hilling, a farmer living a few miles southeast of Millard, has bought sixty acres of farm land adjoining his place from Donehoo & McCoun, partner farmers, who have owned the property since 1876. The deal is through the Byron Reed company.

The owners paid $2,000 for the land and are selling it for $18,000. The property has a remarkable history in that it has changed hands only three times since the government patent was issued. A mortgage of $200 was taken on it in 1857 which never has been released, an instance recalling the days when farmers took mortgages on their land for most every kind of bill.

OLD FIRST METHODIST CHURCH IS TORN DOWN

The old Salvation Army hall at 1111 Davenport street, is a thing of the past, as the last boards and shingles were carted away last evening and one of Omaha's landmarks is a thing of bygone days. About ten weeks ago the old frame structure was condemned and a small force was soon put to work tearing it down.

Regular meetings at the site of the old building will be held by the Salvation Army followers every evening hereafter, however, as the floor of the gospel room of the hall has been left intact and a tent will be pitched over the floor and seats installed. Ensign and Mrs. S. A. Moyer, local officers of the Salvation Army, will fit up the little frame cottage near the old hall site for their home.

This hall was erected in 1880 as the First Methodist church. Dr. J. B. Maxwell, deceased, being the first pastor. In 1882 Rev. Charles W. Savidge, now pastor of the People's church, was assigned to duties at the Davenport street edifice. When Rev. Mr. Savidge took charge of the congregation it numbered about 300 members and in three years a debt of $7,000 had been paid off.

In the early '90s the church was taken over by the Salvation Army workers for ten years but the scene of many stirring revivals.

"Face powder helps that 'shiny' look only a few minutes, and then, when rubbed off, a woman's appearance is worse than ever. A true complexion beautifier is made by dissolving an original package of maxators in a half pint witch hazel. Gently rub this lotion over face, neck and arms every morning. It holds 'all day long, and your complexion soon is clear, smooth, satiny and free from blemish."

"Short-sleeved waists sometimes prove embarrassing to a woman never troubled with superfluous hair on her face. Delatone will remove wild hairs. Just mix powdered delatone with enough water to cover the hairs; apply, and after two or three minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs will be gone."

"A great advantage of a dry shampoo is that one is not compelled to devote hours to drying the hair. The best shampoo powder is a mixture of four ounces of orris root and an original package of throat. Sprinkle a little on the head, brush through the hair, and it removes dust, oil and dandruff, leaving the hair clean, cool and refreshed, and the hair light, fluffy and lustrous."

"To make thin, short eyelashes grow in long thick and silky with a beautiful curl, apply plain pyroxin to the lash roots with thumb and forefinger daily. Rubbing pyroxin on straggly eyebrows will make them long and silky."—Adv.
