Strong Pitching of Robinson Saves the Day for the Locals.

JUSTICE DOES WELL AT SHORT

Visitors Take the Lead in the Seventh, but Lose in the Carl Robinson's remarkable hurling won the last game of the series with Des Moines yesterday afternoon. The big Rourke twirler gave but four scattered hits and should have had a shutout, but four errors gave the Hopefuls their two runs. Score: Omaha 3, Des Moines 2.

The game, although marred by errors, both the Des Moines runs figured in. The first run was scored in the sixth WICHITA HITS AT RIGHT TIME nning on a single by Hahn who came se the plate later on an error by Justice. In the seventh the Des Moines inch took the lead when Davidson dropped Thomas' long fly after Cooligan had doubled, thereby letting the latter with his heady pitching. The big fellow had the Des Moines bunch on his staff and deserved the victory he got. Not being satisfied with pitching a good game. he came across with a clean hit in the fifth inning. In this inning the Rourkes managed to get the bases filled on a hit and two walks; but Heuston settled and got himself out of a bad hole.

Justice Does Well at Short. hort yesterday, and to his fast work Des Moines was probably robbed of at mitt were gathered up on the Justice and fielded to first in catch the runner. Bill Shipke broke foined the team. Kane has been suffer-ing from a Charley horse of inte and after making a pretty hit for two bags, again hurt his leg running and Shipke was sent in to run for him and to play first base. The game, although marred by errors, was a fine one to watch and inside base ball figured all through the fraces. A squeeze play after Niehoff had gotten to first on a hit, to second on a sacrifice and stole third, brought in the winning run. Arbogast, who was handling the stick, laid down a fine bunt in front of the plate, and while Niehoff was allding across the pan, beat the bunt out.

Omaha's errors were all costly ones and both the Des Moines runs figured in.
