BISHOP BRISTOL SPEAKS
Urges Parents to Send Their Children to Sunday Schools.
CLOSE OF STATE CONVENTION
Newly Arrived Leader of Methodist Church Makes Address at Last Meeting of Session—Visitors See the City.

Bishop Frank M. Bristol of the Methodist Episcopal church delivered his first address in Omaha last night, at the closing meeting of the Nebraska Sunday School association. He was the principal speaker of the evening, taking the place of John L. Alexander, who was called to his Chicago home yesterday afternoon. The bishop spoke on behalf of the Sunday schools, saying they were the foundations of the church and without them religion would be a vacuum. In a forceful address he urged the mothers and fathers to send their children to Sunday school and urged the church heads to increase the work in this branch of the church. He said more people were converted primarily through the Sunday school than in any other department of the church.

Rev. Fred G. Paton, of the New Hebrides, told of his life as a missionary and gave many interesting incidents with the colored people. W. C. Pearce, general secretary of the International Sunday school association spoke on Bible classes and the work being done by them. He encouraged the furthering of the study in this department. A large banner was presented to the delegates from Burlington for the number of miles they had covered in coming here. The number of delegates from this county numbered 213.

View City.
Delegates took a rest during part of the afternoon yesterday and availed themselves of the invitation of the Commercial club to take a trolley ride about the city. Others went to the Lining Art gallery, and some visited the top of the City National bank building to view the city.

Several special cars were provided for the trolley ride, and each was in charge of a competent guide to point out places of interest along the way. The delegates were first taken out through the West Farnam residence district, and then through principal parts of the business district, after which the route extended out by Hanscom Park and then back down town again.

John L. Alexander spoke twice yesterday afternoon, before the secondary division conference at 1 o'clock and again at 3:30 before the general convention. Mr. Alexander brought out strongly the part played by the boy in the Sunday school, and the ways in which the teachers should encourage his religious training.

Mrs. A. A. Lamoreaux and J. Shreve Durham of Chicago, and Dr. D. E. Jenkins of Omaha were the other speakers of the afternoon. Mrs. Lamoreaux dealt with the problems presented for Sunday school workers by the boys and girls in their teens. The others spoke on social service activities of the Sunday school.

Lee G. Kratz of the Hanscom Park Methodist church directed the song service.

Officers Lie in Wait; Catch Bank Robbers

MAMMOTH SPRINGS, Ark., June 21.—Sheriff M. C. Caruthers, warned that an attempt to rob the Citizens Bank of Mammoth Springs, would be made today, secured himself and three deputies in a room in the rear of the bank and surprised three masked robbers after they had forced the woman cashier in a vault and were raking the cash into a gunny sack. One of the robbers, Ben Jones, was shot and instantly killed by Sheriff Caruthers when the robbers showed fight. The other two, Otto Burrow and Lufus Davis, promptly surrendered.

This was shortly after noon when it was expected most of the men of the town would be off the streets at their dinners. The men appeared from everywhere, however, and in the excitement, members of the crowd were declared to have indulged in promiscuous shooting. Judge J. W. Meek and John Cuningham were slightly wounded. The excitement had hardly died down when Lee Borrow, relative of one of the masked men captured in the bank, was brought to town, suffering from a serious bullet wound in the abdomen. Physicians say Burrows will die. He declared Dr. Jones, father of the robber who was killed and Howard Sears, a neighbor, had shot him because they believed he had informed the sheriff of the intended robbery. Dr. Jones and Sears were arrested.
