Society Will Indulge in Pyrotechnics and Dinners.

ACTIVITY AT SUMMER PLACES

Omahaans Are Doing a Great Deal of Entertaining, Guests Coming Here from Far and Near.

Social Calendar.

MONDAY—Golden wedding celebration dinner at Hotel Loyal reception and dance at Metropolitan building of Mr. and Mrs. E. Seligson; wedding of Miss Winifred Terry and Mr. Clyde Burdette; Toyon Players' club meeting at Miss Kimball's; children's matinee dance at Field club; Miss Nell Encell, afternoon bridge for Miss Alma Eitel of Kansas City.

TUESDAY—Wedding of Miss Irene Kessler and Mr. Morris Bennett; Mrs. John A. McPherson, luncheon for Mrs. James Viles of Chicago; table d'hôte dinner and dance at Happy Hollow and Rod and Gun clubs.

WEDNESDAY—Mrs. J. A. Monroe and Miss Eider, luncheon at Field club; Mrs. Will Hampton, meeting of W. W. club; wedding of Mr. J. E. Baum, Jr., and Miss Gertrude Fitzgerald in Chicago; table d'hôte dinner and dance at Country and Field clubs; Columbian circle, card party; Mrs. Mark Cavanaugh, bridge luncheon for Miss Eitel.

THURSDAY—Ladies' day at Field and Happy Hollow clubs.

FRIDAY—Entertainment by young women of First Christian church; Mrs. William Moran, afternoon bridge for Miss Eitel.

SATURDAY—Table d'hôte dinners and dance at Country, Field, Happy Hollow and Rod and Gun clubs; wedding of Mr. Frank J. Coad and Miss Irene Dyer in Berkeley.

Already the clubs are planning their fourth of July celebrations and the outlook is that Independence day will be a lively one for society people. The Country club will have a display of fireworks following a table d'hôte dinner and dance. It will be on the lawn east of the grounds. The day will be further enlivened with a golf tournament.

The Field and Happy Hollow clubs will not have fireworks displays this year, but each will have a special table d'hôte dinner and dance in the evening. The Field club will have a band concert to play classical, popular and patriotic airs from 8 to 9 o'clock in the afternoon, and a golf match from 12 to 3 o'clock.

The Rod and Gun club is planning an elaborate pyrotechnical display. The fireworks, Roman candles and other sky-rockets will be sent off from a floating dock in the middle of the lake and seats will be provided on the shore for spectators. Aquatic and field sports will continue all day and evening and there will be a table d'hôte dinner and dance.

Omahaans are doing a good deal of entertaining this summer. Many young women and even several young men are, or have been or are going to be, guests in Omaha homes. Miss Gertrude McCarthy, daughter of Major and Mrs. Daniel McCarthy of Chicago, formerly of Omaha, where the major was quartermaster of the Department of the Missouri, will arrive this week to visit Miss Marion Kuhn. Miss Martha Dalman of St. Joseph is the guest of Miss Margery McCord. Miss Marguerite Winters of Marshalltown, Ia., formerly of this city, is visiting Miss Eleanor Mackay. Miss Bull of Pasadena is the guest for a few days of Miss Caroline Congdon, having accompanied the latter west from Vassar college.

A much-entertained guest is Mrs. James Viles of Chicago, who is visiting Mrs. F. J. Davis. Mrs. Isaac Raymond of Lincoln is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Connell.

Mrs. Mary and Miss Helen Martz, who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Mel Uhl, will return to their home in Greenville, O., the early part of the week. The marriage of Miss Helen Martz and Milton Uhl will take place September 1.

Mrs. E. V. Krug of St. Louis, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. J. F. Coad, leaves today for Berkeley to be present at the wedding of her brother, John Francis Coad, which takes place Saturday. Erving Forbes, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Forbes, formerly of this city, now of Evanston, Ill., is visiting Raymond Low, William Crosby Adams of Denver. He is visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Cowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison A. Trelxler of Baltimore arrived yesterday morning to visit Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Miller. They will also visit Mr. and Mrs. Philbert Trelxler.

To Commemorate.

Mr. George L. Fisher, who goes this week to the commencement exercises of the University of Michigan, at which his son, Robert C. Fisher, will receive his degree from the department of architecture, will attend while in Ann Arbor the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of the university. Mr. Fisher is an alumnus of the class of 1880 and goes to the anniversary celebration as delegate from the Alumni Association of Missouri Valley. He and his son will visit in Detroit and Pontiac, returning home next week. Miss Edith Fisher, who is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, goes this week to Evanston, Ill., to attend the national convention of Pi Beta Phi sorority at Northwestern university. She has been visiting college friends in Madison and Milwaukee.

Summer Trips.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther L. Kountze and little daughter, Gertrude, left last evening and accompanied Master Harkness Kountze and Miss Brandt as far as Chicago. The latter two are enroute to Sweden to attend the Olympic games. Mr. and Mrs. Kountze will go to Mackinac for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kountze and family and Mr. Samuel Burns, Jr., left Thursday for Mackinac for the summer.

Mrs. Rose Spicer and Miss Jeannette Jesop have planned to spend the next two months in England. The former sails from Montreal June 28 on the Ascania and the latter from New York, June 30, on the Kaiser Wilhelm II. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haller expect to sail in July for two months in Europe and will be accompanied by Bishop A. L. Williams as their guest. Bishop Williams and his family will go to their summer home at Richard's Landing in Canada early in July and Mrs. Williams and the bishop's sister, Mrs. Griffith, will remain there during his absence abroad. Mr. and Mrs. Haller stopping there for a short visit on their way to Montreal, whence they will sail.

The Rev. T. J. Mackay will leave about July 1 to spend his summer vacation in Europe. This trip is the gift to him by the Parish Aid society of All Saints' church, who presented him with a purse which will enable him to have three months' travel and a much needed rest from his parochial duties. Mrs. Mackay

OMAHA'S MOST EXCLUSIVE GARMENT STORE

318-320 SOUTH 16TH ST.

Closing Out Omaha's Most Exclusive Garment Store and Closing Out Every Garment in It!

Our Great Removal Sale

Is the Sensation of the Hour

Judged by every standard of comparison this is the greatest garment sale ever brought to your attention in Omaha or elsewhere.

STOP AND THINK WHAT IT MEANS TO YOU to buy the most advanced style-ideas at a mere fraction of their actual intrinsic value.

Every garment in this great stock was selected for our regular selling to the most particular clientele in this territory—the envy of all competition.

And here we are face-to-face with the necessity of closing out this great stock at once and without reserve—regardless of cost.

We bought the Bennett Company and it requires our entire attention. Our one course to pursue is a sweeping sacrifice sale of every garment—AND OUT THEY GO.

In the midst of this most extraordinary sale, we again emphasize the fact that we will exert every effort to please our patrons as heretofore.
