He missed the cats, but Joe Sekorisko, a neighbor asleep beside his open window, bears testimony by a gash on the forehead that Lapinus' aim was not wasted. Naturally, if a neighbor passed you the time of day by hurling a lamp into your boudoir at 10 o'clock at night you would be peeved. Sekorisko jumped from his bed with a howl and took after Lapinus. Lapinus hastily erected barricades and called for a parley with his irate neighbor. Sekorisko, however, had passed the time of parley and insistently invited Lapinus to come out and do battle. ## Police Re-Arrest People in "Hotel"

Although discharged in police court on Thursday morning by Acting Police Judge Claibourne on the charge of conducting a disorderly house, Sydney Kascer, proprietor of the Royal hotel, 124 North Fifteenth street, was arrested yesterday afternoon in a raid upon the hotel by Detective Steve Maloney and Sergeants Sigwart and Madsen. Four girl inmates and men besides Kascar were arrested.

When the officers entered the rooms of the hotel they found the four men and women drinking beer. Judge Claibourne discharged Kascer and the inmates arrested in the raid Monday night on the ground that there was not enough evidence to hold them. Detective Maloney's star witness, a girl, was released on bonds put up by the defendants, and failed to appear in court Thursday morning.

The Albert law will be enforced on the hotel. Maloney said he was going to take the matter up with County Attorney English at once.

We will make the proposition STILL stronger! Would you buy a NEW piano of unquestioned make, at $142, if you had it offered to you on $5 A MONTH PAYMENTS. Think of THAT!

Well, Sir-or Madame-we are going to offer just FOUR pianos at THAT price and on THOSE terms on MONDAY. It's just a sort of "chip on our shoulders" -a dare to you to buy a piano during our Closing Out

The four pianos in question are NEW "Hoffman" pianos; beautifully designed and exquisitely toned instruments in a glistening mahogany; instruments that are selling at $325 the country over. There are only FOUR of them remember; but remember also that EVERY other Piano or Player Piano on our floors goes at an equally close figure; because of the "Close Out" sale in force.
