AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Contest for City Offices to Follow Commissioner Decision.

TRAINER WILL BEGIN SUIT. City Officials May All Be Involved in Controversy that Pends in Open Air.

Fire Commissioners John J. Ryan and Joseph Pivonka will have to stand trial for malfeasance in office according to the opinion handed down yesterday by the supreme court.

The opinion of the court merely states that the commissioners Ryan and Pivonka are still serving the three year term for which they were elected. It declares the extension clause constitutional and in conclusion appoints Judge Holcomb of Broken Bow, a former governor and supreme court justice to be referee in the case against the accused commissioners.

As soon as the news was flashed from Lincoln, former Mayor P. J. Traimor announced his intention to begin a suit Monday for the seat of Mayor Hoctor.

Mr. Traimor will also be alleged former Councilman Frank C. George, Hoffman August Miller, Mat Peterson, Tom Peterson and former City Clerk Frank Good. Mayor Hoctor, who has been expecting the court decision for some time, declared that he was in no way worried over the situation.

The whole affair will, it is expected, precipitate a bitter fight between the ins and outs with annexation as the probable final settlement.

As far as the outer suit brought against the fire and police commissioners goes, it is admittedly a victory for Dean Ringer and the men who stood with him in his long fight against the board.

How would you like to go to church in the park on Sunday? That is the new departure in church cult to be adopted by the United Protestant churches of South Omaha during the summer.

Disturbed in his slumbers Friday night by the amorous yowling of a feline Romeo and Juliette, Antonio Lapinus of Twenty-ninth and T streets, leaped from his uneasy couch and huffed a convenient lamp through his window into the night.

What Was This Woman? The Long-Lost, Original Brady Civil War Photographs. If you are a judge of character, what part did this woman play in the Civil War? The profession with which you would credit her is that of a spy—and yet this gentle-faced, determined, beautiful, high-born lady, reared in comfort, surrounded with every care from birth, risked her life constantly for the cause she loved. This picture of Mrs. Greenhow, the confederate spy, with her daughter in the old Capitol Prison, is only one of hundreds of The Long-Lost, Original Brady Civil War Photographs. taken 50 years ago—now just discovered and brought to light, so that the world might learn the truth concerning the great conflict between the Blue and the Gray. North and South, this man Brady, the greatest of all photographers and his daring assistants, was constantly at work portraying everything vital to the great struggle. They were on the battlefields, in the cities, in the homes. They mingled in the street crowds, they were on the gunboats, in the forts. As a result, these priceless photographs, taken while the mighty struggle was on, show persons, events and conditions as no history has ever presented them. These remarkable pictures speak without bias, without prejudice—they speak the truth. In them you behold the humor, the tragedy and the stern reality of the four years' war, from the firing on Sumter to the surrender at Appomattox. What We Have Done For Our Readers. This paper has entered a nation-wide alliance with leading publishers to place in the patriotic houses of America, these long-lost photographs of Brady's and Elson's New History—a lasting memorial of national valor known as the Civil War Through the Camera. In Sixteen Superb Sections—10c. One Each Week for Coupon and 10c. Each subscriber can obtain this wonderful work of Elson's and Brady's fascinating, beautiful photographs for such a trifling sum that it will never be felt. Just cut out the War Souvenir Coupon each week and bring or send it to our office with 10 cents to cover necessary expense such as cost of material, handling, clerk hire, etc., and get your copy. Three cents extra by mail. NOTICE: For the convenience of those who have not yet secured Sections 1, 2 and 3, THE ONE COUPON (with amount required) will obtain any or all of the first four sections. Section 4 Now Ready. Contains a Complete and Thrilling Narrative of the Seven Days' Battles Before Richmond. Engagements at Mechanicsville, Gaines' Mill, The Retreat of the Federal Army, The Battle of Malvern Hill, The Battle of Corinth. —Doing Double Duty—A Vain Ride to Safety—A Grim Capture—The Tangled Retreat—Heroes of Malvern Hill—On Daring Duty—The Colonel Who Bluffed an Army—and many more including A Colored Frontpiece—"Flanking the Enemy"—ready for framing. Remember, the Original Brady War Photographs and Elson's New History of the Civil War Can Be Only Obtained in This City Through This Paper.
