seemed to want supplies, but there was a feeling that the market at this point was out of line as compared with Chicago, so that the trade was a little slow. As compared with the high time the middle of last wask the market is soon account. dle of last week the market is now safely 25@50c lower on the general run of cows and heifers. As a matter of course good to choice cornfed cows and heifers would not show so much decline as they would sell proportionately better than grass in sell proportionately better than grass in sympathy with the steady market on

As has been the case every day of late stockers and feeders were in light supply, there being only a small sprinkling of that kind of cattle. The prices paid were firm, but otherwise not quotably different from last weak stronger than last week's close. On the stronger than last week's close. On the other hand after the more urgent orders were filled the market eased off and closed as much as ic lower. Fortunately the most of the hogs had been sold before the break occurred, so that, as noted above, the general market was not far from steady. The trade was reasonably active at current prices. Receipts were quite liberal for a Monday, being larger than for several weeks back. Still the demand was good and the big bulk larger than for several weeks back. Suit the demand was good and the big bulk of the offerings changed hands before 10 o'clock in the morning. As will be noted from the representative sales below, the hogs sold largely at $7.40\text{gr.59}, with a liberal sprinkling at $7.55 and on up as high as $7.60, which was the top today, the same as on Saturday. Nebraska and the Third Party Talk

CHICAGO, June 24 .- (Special Tele gram.)-The Tribune tomorrow will say: Victor Rosewater, pale but calm, said today that he didn't see how the Roosevelt forces could command the republican organization in Nebraska, in spite of the plurality given Colonel Roosevelt in the primaries. But he was anxious to admit that he might be mistaken, and made it plain that he would not assume the role of prophet.

The republican electors have been named in Nebraska, Mr. Rosewater said. Under the circumstances these electors will have to vote for President Taff. Some of them may not do it, but I shall be astonished if they don't. Roosevelt electors may be named, and may be voted on in the election, but they will have to go under some other name than republican in Nebraska. The door is open for a new party in Nebraska and one can be formed by complying with a few simple conditions. I don't know just what success a new party will have in Nebraska, and I do not care to prophecy.'

"Mr. Rosewater seemed to think conditions in Illinois were similar as far as the electors were concerned, and that a new party designation would be necessary in order to permit the Roosevelt electors to appear on the ballot. "Governor Aldrich of Nebraska at one time indicated that he expected to support the man nominated by the republican national convention. He was one of the governors who issued the call for has not announced his intention since the Coliseum convention adjourned."

most rousing success. At the convention of the Nebraska Stock Growers' association, held Thursday at Alliance, the boosters were accorded a big ovation. Omaha's great industry was boosted to the skies and the local market was declared the most convenient for the farmers and stockmen of the state.

After leaving Alliance on Friday the stockmen from the yards went to Minatare, where they were taken in charge by a large delegation of Scott's Bluff and Mitchell citizens, who took the boosters in automobiles to Mitchell, Gering and Scott's Bluff on a sight seeing tour. Supper was served at Mitchell, after which the party returned to Scott's Bluff, where the whole town turned out to wel-NEW YORK, June 24.—SUGAR-Raw, steady; Muscovado, 89 test, 3.36c; centrifugal, 96 test, 3.86c; molasses sugar, 89 test, 3.11c. business men participated in the turnout. After returning to the Union Pacific line the party stopped at every way station where delegations of stockmen and farmers met them. > Speaking of cattle men, the visitors from the yards declare that the Scott's Bluff country of Western Nebraska is a mine of undeveloped wealth. More fortunate than the cattle country of Wyoming, South Dakota or Montana, the Scott's Bluff country did not suffer greatly from the effects of last winter. The herds and flocks sustained little or no loss. Feeding grounds are in exceptional condition and the farmers expect to take off a large crop of feed after the cattle have been finished up. Another revelation to the local men was the evolution of the country from a raw range country into a well tilled agricultural district. It was the consensus of opinion that the locality had changed to such a degree that henceforth the farmers would profit more from the finishing of feeder cattle for market than from the maintainance of large range herds.

Several attractions in the different parks brought large crowds to these particular spots. A band concert at Hanscom park was heard by an ever-changing crowd which in the aggregate ran into thousands. Courtland Beach, Lake Manawa and Krug park all attracted crowds of pleasure seekers and picnickers. To the Shades of the Parks.

Many who chose only a walk in order to get out of doors found themselves moving toward one of these parks before the day was over. The sun made it desirable to seek shade in some cool and restful spot.

Riverview Cordovia Bemis and other city parks were frequented by large throngs from morning until late in the evening. Sunday was the first warm Sunday of the year, the thermometer topping above 90 a great portion of the afternoon. A quiet picnic was enjoyed by members of the Navy club at Courtland Beach. Baskets containing sumptuous "eats" were unloaded and spread upon the grass under the trees, after which a sail boat, which had been chartered, was boarded by the blue-jackets and their wives. The boys were back at "the old game" and they showed how they could tack in the face of any wind and get the speed. The later part of the afternoon was spent taking in the concessions and dancing. The day wound up with refreshments after a solid round of good fun. About 125 attended the second annual picnic of the congregation of Israel, which was held at Hibbier's park. The proceeds of this picnic go towards the synagogue at Eighteenth and Chicago
