NEW PARTY MAKING PLANS

today that if Bryan is nominated at Baltimore on a progressive platform the third party movement would be dead. All agree, however, that if the Bryan progressive program should be defeated Wisconsin progressives would favor the formation of a new party—without Roosevelt at its head—which would embody the followers of La Follette and Bryan. Some even go so far as to predict that these two might become leaders of the ticket.
An interesting dilemma has developed today from the fact that the republicans of Wisconsin have chosen progressive republican presidential electors who, unless they resign, must appear on the platform ticket as Taft electors, and according to an unwritten law they would be morally bound to vote for the president.
Some of the electors will resign, it is expected, but political leaders are advising no action until the outcome at Baltimore is known.
Statement by Governor Aldrich.
LINCOLN, Neb., June 24.—In the opinion of Governor Aldrich, expressed today, there is no occasion for organization of the Roosevelt party in Nebraska.
"The progressives are in the majority here," he said, "and there is no occasion for a new party. To organize one would be simply to throw the republican machinery into the hands of reactionaries."
A meeting of the republican state central committee has been called for tomorrow night at Omaha for the purpose of considering the situation in regard to the presence of the Roosevelt people in the republican ranks.
Governor Aldrich this afternoon refused to say what he would do about his appointment to the executive committee of the new "progressive" party. He declared that he would wait until he had talked with Senator James and had been assured that he was not a candidate. In addition, he said that the Kentucky delegation had instructed him that James' name would not be placed before the committee.

Robert Ewing, committeeman from Louisiana, and a Wilson supporter, placed James' name before the committee. Edward F. Goltra, of Missouri, a Clark man, explained that he voted for James because he was supporting Clark. This was taken by many to mean that the Bryan forces in the convention would receive some assistance from the Clark supporters when the fight against Parker is taken to the floor tomorrow.
The conference held this afternoon between William Jennings Bryan, Judge Alton B. Parker, National Chairman Mack and Vice Chairman Hall to effect a compromise on the question of the temporary chairmanship of the democratic national convention failed.
Mr. Bryan announced that he had not changed his mind. Vice Chairman Hall indicated that Judge Parker would be named and that the fight against him would be carried on from the floor by Mr. Bryan.
Mr. Bryan said: "I had a very pleasant meeting, but beyond that I do not care to say anything. I will say, however, that I think a progressive will be named."
When National Chairman Mack emerged from the conference room he was excited and disheveled.
"There has been no agreement," he exclaimed hurriedly. "The program as originally planned still stands. The conference was without result."
The democratic national committee at 2:15 p. m. appointed a committee of two, Chairman Mack and National Committeeman P. L. Hall of Nebraska, to confer with W. J. Bryan and Alton B. Parker and their leaders with a view to preventing a fight on the floor of the convention over the selection of a temporary chairman. The committee then adjourned until 7 p. m.
Mr. Bryan did not appear before the committee.
The news that Mr. Bryan had declared he would go personally before the convention as a candidate against Judge Parker caused much excitement when the national committee members assembled.
Judge Parker will be endorsed for the temporary chairman by at least forty members of the national committee," said Roger C. Sullivan of Illinois.
"Judge Parker will be the temporary chairman. It makes no difference who opposes him."
Mr. Bryan's refusal to fight the Parker selection before the committee followed a conference with progressive leaders. The Nebraskaan was emphatic in proclaiming the approaching fight in the convention. When he declared that he would be a candidate for temporary chairman himself if the progressives could agree on no one else he made the assertion with positiveness.
"I will be in the fight when the time comes," Mr. Bryan answered, "and in it to a finish. I am trying to find a man to be the temporary chairman who will be satisfactory to all the progressives."
Adams Leads Fight.
The democratic national committee soon after meeting today took up the matter of a temporary chairman of the convention. The selection of Alton B. Parker for this position by the subcommittee of the national committee was opposed by former Governor Alvah Adams, national committeeman from Colorado.
Following ex-Governor Adams, Committeeman William of Mississippi took the floor to oppose Parker, after which Senator Newlands of Nevada, holding a proxy for Committeeman John Sutherland, spoke in opposition to Parker. He was followed by Mr. Browne of Vermont, who favored the choice of the subcommittee.
It was said the national committee probably would be unable to hear any contests before night.
As the discussion of the temporary chairmanship progressed in the committee room reports were current that the majority of the members of the committee were determined not to yield to any compromise.
After Judge Parker had been placed in nomination several speeches were made for and against his selection. No other nominations had been made when recess was ordered at 2 o'clock. Following the recess a vote will be taken on a motion to sustain the subcommittee in its recommendation of Parker for temporary chairman. Before recess Committeeman Kreimer announced that the Bryan democrats would deny the committee if Parker's name is ratified, and declared that Bryan would himself lead the fight as a candidate for the chairmanship.
Mr. Kreimer's announcement resulted in secret conferences among the party leaders.
Word reached the convention hall that the Kentucky delegation met and voted overwhelmingly to sustain the selection of Parker as temporary chairman. This action was in spite of a protest by Senator-elect Ollie James of Kentucky, one of Mr. Bryan's staunchest supporters.
Hall Leads Fight in Committee.
The national committee took no vote on the temporary chairmanship before adjournment. It was learned that Committeeman Hall had been the first to protest against the ratification of Parker for temporary chairman and was followed by Kreimer.
An agreement was reached to send a committee to the opposing leaders in the fight, to see Bryan and Parker particularly and, if possible, to suggest means whereby harmony in the party could be cemented before the convention is called to order. Thereupon Chairman Mack and Hall, representing the states of the candidates, left to take up the negotiations.
Mr. Hall in a vigorous address to the committee opposing Parker, declared the rank and file of the party would protest against it and that the delegates would not "stand for it."
Bryan Ready to Compromise.
Representative Henry of Texas, who had been a candidate for temporary chairman of the progressive wing of the party, declared after a conference with Mr. Bryan that a compromise should easily be effected since the national committee had indicated a disposition to prevent a clash on the floor of the convention.
"It will be eliminated from consideration altogether," said Mr. Henry. "We will accept any good 'progressive' for temporary chairman who can be agreed upon by Senator Kern, Representative Ollie James, Representative Theodore Bell of California or Senator O'Gorman will be acceptable to us."

at state headquarters in a hotel here. While the New York progressives assert they have from fifteen to twenty votes among the ninety states will cast in the convention, no question has been raised about the binding force of the unit rule. Upon the fact that Norman Mack, the New York member of the national committee, supported Judge Parker for the temporary chairmanship, the Clark men base their hope that New York's ninety votes will be cast for their candidate.
Of the other pivotal states—Illinois and Indiana—the delegates from the former may discuss at their caucuses in what direction, if any, they shall swing if the voting goes beyond the first ballot and they think themselves released from their instructions for Clark. The Indiana delegates, instructed for Marshall, also may decide upon a second choice.
Convention hall tickets will be distributed today.
Each delegate will receive three in addition to his own seat and each alternate one.
Streets Gay with Banners.
Trainloads of delegates began to arrive at daylight and the streets leading from the railroad station to the hotels were gay with flaming banners and reverbant with the music of many bands. National Committeeman Roger Sullivan of Illinois came from a talk with National Chairman Mack and announced that Judge Parker would have at least thirty-one votes out of the fifty-two in the committee.
There has been no change in the situation," said Mr. Sullivan, when asked if he had heard any talk of a compromise. Senator-elect Ollie James of Kentucky, after a talk with Mr. Bryan, made it known that he was not a candidate for temporary chairman and was of the opinion that his name would not be presented to the committee.
Harmon Delegation Arrives.
Nearly 600 Harmon men, supporters, arrived today on the "Buckeye special." Harmon headquarters took on new life. Statements were issued reciting instances when Mr. Bryan had made complimentary references in his speeches to the Ohio governor.
Gaynor Boomers Leave.
NEW YORK, June 24.—Many democrats bound for Baltimore left New York today in special trains. Among them were 200 supporters of Mayor Gaynor, traveling on one train, and six special train loads of Tammany members.
Each member of the Gaynor delegation carried a large umbrella bearing a likeness of the mayor. These will be opened when the boomers march from the station to their hotel. Badges with the mayor's picture and the inscription: "For president, he can win," were also conspicuous.
New York supporters of the candidacy of Woodrow Wilson will hold a mass meeting at Cooper Union tonight, at which plans to increase the Wilson delegation to Baltimore will be carried out. A special train of Wilson adherents will leave for Baltimore after the meeting adjourns. Six cars already have been reserved.

claimed all sorts of political crimes.
"From the character and makeup of the crowds that attended the convention I would say that the Roosevelt supporters were possessed of a great deal of lung power and a desire to use it for their candidate. The Taft men on the other hand had come down there to make the convention an orderly, business-like affair, and they did not whoop and yell out their energy."
GOVERNOR WILL SAY NOTHING
Nebraska Executive Declines to Express Himself on Politics.
(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, June 24.—(Special Telegram.)—When told this afternoon that he had been selected to represent Nebraska by the Roosevelt bolters Governor Aldrich refused to talk.
"I don't know anything about it, and I won't talk about it," said the governor. "When I have been notified that I have been selected then I may have something, but now there is nothing doing in the political game here."

Pretty Mothers
Health is the foundation of all good looks. The wise woman realizes this and takes precautions to preserve her health and strength through the period of child bearing. She remains a pretty mother by avoiding as far as possible the suffering and dangers of such occasions. This every woman may do through the use of Mother's Friend, a remedy that has been so long in use, and accomplished so much good, that it is in no sense an experiment, but a preparation which always produces the best results. It is for external application and so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate every muscle, nerve and tendon involved during the period before baby comes. It aids nature by expanding the skin and tissues, relieves tenderness and soreness, and perfectly prepares the system for natural and safe motherhood. Mother's Friend has been used and endorsed by thousands of mothers, and its use will prove a comfort and benefit to any woman in need of such a remedy. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers, which contains much valuable information.

Aunt Sally's Advice to Beauty Seekers

Lydia says: "I've tried most everything for my freckles, but can't lose them. What do you suggest? See answer to 'Stella.' The treatment suggested, I've never known to fail in any case of freckles or other cutaneous blemish.
P. J. K. asks: "In there anything better than massage to remove wrinkles? Too much massaging may aggravate a wrinkled condition, tending to stretch and loosen the tissue. I advise bathing the face in an astringent lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxatite in a half pint witch hazel. This is remarkably effective.
Stella writes: "My complexion is horribly muddy. What shall I do for it? Get an ounce of mercurized wax at your druggist's. Apply this nightly like you'd use cold cream, washing it off mornings. This will cause the offensive cuticle gradually to make way, by a process of gentle absorption, for the clear, velvety, healthy-hued skin underneath.—Woman's Realm.—Adv.

Two Hundred Soldiers Desert to Avoid Long March

MADISON, Wis., June 24.—Two hundred soldiers have deserted the provisional regiment since it started on the trial march from Dubuque, Ia., here today when twenty-five deserters were brought in to camp Randall in Irons. Some of the runaways went to Fort Sheridan, and others to Fort Snelling and still others to Sparta to avoid a 200 mile march on foot. The government has a standing offer of $50 reward for the capture of the deserters. On a late train last night, six were brought back from Sparta. All were fined and thrown into the guard house.
The 2,000 soldiers today broke camp at Camp Randall and resumed the march to Sparta.

ROSEWATER'S RULINGS FAIR

The Roosevelt leaders had counted noses they found that they in reality had enough men to swing things their own way, and they did so on the assumption that there was then the party state convention. This was the basis of the disputed point and was the chief matter over which the fight was waged as far as this contest was concerned.
In California, according to Mr. Burnham, the question of the operation of the unit rule was the chief feature. The Taft men claimed that inasmuch as it had not prevailed in conventions for years and years past it should not prevail in the 1912 gathering. The Roosevelt men claimed everything in the state because the state vote decided for the colonel.
"There has been a great deal said about the steam roller and the way it operated, but I failed to see where there was any unfairness entering into the transactions of the convention, at least to the extent that the Roosevelt men
