GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Early Messages Confirm Clear and Hot Weather in Northwest.

SHORTS COVER BOOSTING CORN Strong Cash Prices, Much Lighter Receipts and Heavy Shipping

> Demand Were the Bull Features.

OMAHA, June 28, 1912. Early messages confirmed clear and hot conditions over the northwest. News to-day was bullish enough to hold values at the advance gained yesterday. It was very evident that shorts had pressed the selling side too far on the theory of possible heavy deliveries on July contracts. Further action will depend on climetic conditions in the spring wheat

In corn as well as wheat the advance was due to shorts covering. The strong cash prices, much lighter receipts, and heavy shipping demands were the builteatures. Crop news is very favorable and great advancement is reported, although rain will scon be needed.

When advanced as at the opening Wheat advanced again at the opening on continued short covering. Weather reports were still builish. Cash wheat corn was not so strong. Sellers pressed

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS Features of the Trading and Closing

Prices on Board of Trade. Prices on Board of Trade.
CHICAGO, June 28.—Rain and cooler weather in the western part of the Canadian wheat country today took the price of the cereal a few pegs down. The close was easy 40 to 40%c under last night. Latest trading left corn unchanged to 40 lower, oats off 404c to 40%c and provisions varying from 12%c deciling to a shade advance.

provisions varying from 12½0 decline to a shade advance.

It was almost purely a weather market in wheat. At the outset the advantage lay with the bull side, owing to hot dry conditions in most parts of the northwest, particularly South Dakota. Information that actual damage was confined to points west of the James river checked the advance. The market railied on news points west of the James river checked the advance. The market rallied on news of continued heat and drouth in Montana and Manitobs. September fluctuated between $1.05% and $1.05%@1.05%. with last sales %c net lower at $1.05%@1.05%. With last sales %c net lower at $1.05%@1.05%. Corn showed steadiness, a fact due somewhat to possible loss of much of the short growth in the event of continued hot weather without sufficient rain. September ranged from 73%@73%c. Cash grades were in fair demand. No. 2 yellow, 77%@77%c.

A theory that the big yield of cats in prospect had been sufficiently discounted induced considerable buying, though not enough to prevent prices from undergoing a sag. September ranged from 40%c to 40%c, with the close at 40%c.

Selling credited to packers weakened the provision market. At the end of the day pork was less costly by 7%@10c to 12%c, but lard and bacon kept within 50 of last night's level.

CITY PROPERTY FOR SALE

WHEN YOU BUY A LOT

When you start in to buy a lot for your home you want it in a location that is good—a place where you want to live. When you build a home you expect to make it a home for some time. You want desirable surroundings; you want modern conveniences, city water, lights, sidewalks and other improvements. You want it convenient to good schools and churches. You want it in a residence district and in a good neighborhood. It is true that when you get all this it will cost you a little more than to buy a lot out away from car line and away from an improved residence district. But really is it not a better buy? Would it not be better to pay a little more and get what you want? When you buy a lot for your home it is perhaps the most important purchase you ever made. Get a good lot, even if it takes you a little longer to pay for it. And remember, too, that for an investment a good lot well located will always advance in price more quickly and sell more readily than a cheaper one.

GLENN PARK ADDITION

is just three blocks west of Krug Park and the Country club; it's right now in the center of a fine residence district; it's right in the heart of Benson, with city water, light, permanent cement walks and grading to every lot; it's ready right now to start a home—there is nothing to wait for. Glenn Park is right on the car line, too—it's not out in the country away from city conveniences, fire and police protection. It is in reality an ideal spot for a home. The view from Glenn Park is grand—it's high and sightly. I want you to see this high-class addition, want you to see for yourself that Glenn Park is actually the finest addition for a home in or around Omaha. And the prices and terms are low and easy.

Terms From $5.00 Cash and $5.00 per Month $25 Cash and $10 per Month

SEE GLENN PARK SATURDAY AFTER 2 O'CLOCK OR ANY TIME SUN-DAY. Salesmen on the ground all day Sunday until 9 o'clock at night. Take a Benson car and wait until you come to the entrance with massive concrete plers with a floral design between the driveways.

Steel Corporation Follows Lead in Advancing Prices.

LESSENING OF DULLNESS Several Railroad Issues Show Activ ity, but Without Excising Much Attention-London

Markets Idle.

NEW YORK, June 28.—Except for a formal statement by the United States Steel corporation announcing it had followed its chief rivals in advancing prices of finished products and the publication of a few railroad returns for May of a not very gratifying character today's stock market was no less dull than most of its recent predecessors.

Prices hovered a fraction above or below yesterday's closing quotations, except in specialties, which included General Electric, Westinghouse, Baldwin Locomotive, Woolworth and more obscure issues. In the railways Eric, Louisville & Nashville, Wabash preferred and Kansas City Southern preferred showed activity, but without exciting much attention. Suspension of the regular 2 per cent dividend on Ontario & Western common, which fell sharply, was without effect on prices, which rose to their best in the final hour. American Tobacco, Republican Iron preferred and local tractions were the features of the late trading.

London markets were as idle as our own. Our banks stand to lose a large amount of cash tomorrow, with a probable expansion of loans. Union Pacific for May decreased its net returns by $438,000.

CATTLE—Cattle receipts were very light this morning, not enough being re-ported in to really make a market. At the same time the quality was poor, there cattle of any kind on sale. The demand, as is apt to be the case so near the end of the week, was none too urgent and the market as a whole slow and of a very indifferent and uninteresting character. It was, in fact, a typical Friday's market. Such cattle as buyers wanted sold at about steady prices while common and inferior stuff was slow and hard to move. hard to move.

The market for the week to date might been steadily working downward this week and at the present writing is 80@75c lower than the high time the middle of last week. As a matter of course the best cornfed stock would show the least decline, while the grassy and shortfed kinds would show the most.

Stockers and feeders are right around 80@75c lower than they were at the high time ten days ago. The decline has been the most noticeable on stock cattle, while the best feeders have not gone off so much.

Once trade was under way, however, shippers bought a few of their kind strong Once trade was under way, however, shippers bought a few of their kind strong to this higher, but packers were making the most of their purchases at steady figures. Trade was rather slow from the start, but a pretty fair run was here for a Friday and everything changed hands in good season. On the whole the market may be quoted as little better than steady with yesterday. As on yesterday the bulk of the sales was made within the range $7.2507.40, with a top at $7.50, identical with yesterday's high price.

Receipts this morning were fairly liberal for a Friday, as 173 loads, or 11,829 head, were reported in. This is about 3,000 head more than for the same day last week and almost 3,000 head more than for the corresponding day a year ago. Receipts for the first five days of the week foot up $7,117 head as compared with 38,241 head a week ago. Quality of today's supply was not quite so good as on yesterday, the bulk of the receipts being light and butcher weights. Snippers and speculators bought a good share of the supply.

SHEEP-As usual on a Friday at this time of the year, the sheep and lamb market was practically barren, only about one deck of drive-ins arriving at the yards. about one deck of drive-ins arriving at the yards.

For the week thus far, receipts of sheep and lambs foot up about 13,800 head which is almost 5,200 head more than for the first five days last week, but 9,200 head less than for the corresponding time a year ago. The slight increase in this week's supply may be attributed to a larger number of western res showing up during the forepart of the week, but as yet the number of western sheep and lambs has not been so great as to have much influence on the market. A great part of the receipts still consists of tallends and odds and ends of fed or native stuff with a small sprinking of fairly good spring lambs. On the whole, quality of the supply showed no marked improvement over the shipments arriving here for several weeks back.

Trade and demand during the forepart of the week was good for anything of desirable quality, but as very little good stuff appeared on the market values were not very well tested. Toward the surfragettes brought out

Toward the close of the week, however, trade seemed to have weakened and most salesmen are calling the general market about lugible lower than the close of last week. It is claimed by the packers that prevailing prices for some time back were too high when compared with eastern points.

year the feeder branch of the trade was not very large, only about 1,000 head of sheep and lambs being reported as sent out into the country. This is, however, about 1,000 head more than last week.

This plan was suggested by the lion's own conduct. Aware that the beast was ahead o

He began to steal gradually toward the foe. who now, in a complete state of doubt and fear, turned tail and decamped, leaving the plucky and ingenious little Bushman master of the situation.

LAWLESSNESS AMONG WOMEN Honorary President of Federation Makes Unexpected Charge.

ONE HANDICAP TO RECRUITING Albany Woman Complains of Lack of Uniformity in the Tenure of Office of State Federation Officers.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.-The surprise of today's session of the convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs came in the declaration of the platform of Mrs. Dimies T. S. Dennison of New York, honorary president of the federation, that "lawlessness among wo-

Lack of Uniformity. Mrs. Elmer B. Lair of Albany, N. Mrs. L. L. Blankenburg of Philadelphia announced that Mrs. Imogen B. Oakley of Philadelphia, chairman of the civil service department, was seriously ill at her home and her report was read for her. Although no formal choice for the next biennial has been made, Mrs. Frederick Cole of Nebraska, in mentioning Mrs. Granger of Chicago, added: "Whose hospitality we're next to ac-
