WOLF'S DUAL LIFE LAID BARE

Motive Behind Death of Cattleman Still Remains Mystery.

BIG INSURANCE IS INVOLVED

Paranour Takes Stand and Without Demonstration Tells of Her Life with Louis Wolf in Central Apartments.

How Louis Wolf, the cattleman found dying under mysterious circumstances last Thursday morning at 1:45 o'clock, led a double life and betrayed a pretty young woman was brought out at the coroner's inquest which opened at 10 yesterday morning.

Rose Wolf, the woman in the case, was the principal witness, and the supposition that she would have a sensational, if not lurid story to tell brought hundreds of curious people, who crowded into the small front room of the Crosby undertaking parlor. Nine witnesses were examined in the morning, after which Coroner Crosby ordered adjournment until 3 o'clock. The testimony of nearly all of the most important witnesses was given. Most of the evidence adduced tended to strengthen the theory of suicide, although no one testified as to having found the gun. Rose Wolf, the cattle broker's paramour, said that on the day before the shooting, Wolf had said to her that he had lost $6,000 in speculation on the stock market. If this is true, in all probability it will be shown later that such a loss drove the cattleman to desperation, as he was already in hard financial straits. He had to keep up payments on $100,000 worth of life insurance, besides being under the expense of keeping two homes. Detective Ring says he has information that a week before the shooting Wolf mortgaged everything he had that was not already mortgaged, securing $15,000. He owed many persons about town and was continually pressed for payment.

Night Before the Tragedy.
Burton H. Hubbard, traveling salesman for the Old Crow distillery of Frankfort, Ky., was the first witness examined. His testimony was practically the same as the story he told the police Thursday. He said that Louis Wolf had asked him to take Rose to his room at the Paxton for the night, and this he did. He said that Wolf appeared nervous and claimed that he had received information from Mayor Dahlman that the Central Apartment flat was to be raided. They parted at Seventeenth street and St. Mary's avenue and this was the last

FRY'S SHOE CO.

16TH & DOUGLAS.

Rose, Wolf, Hubbard or Hubbard's wife saw of the cattleman.
Peter Wolf, father of Rose, testified that four years ago the daughter became acquainted with Wolf and that soon after she formed the acquaintance, she became wayward. He quarreled with her and she left home. He knew that she was living with Wolf and although he resented it, he did not interfere. Mrs. Mary Wolf, the girl's mother, said that she often visited her daughter and that on the day before the shooting she was in her daughter's flat talking to Louis Wolf. It was here that Wolf asked her if she noticed a dark colored man hanging around near his automobile. Mrs. Wolf said she saw no one.
Rose Wolf on the Stand.
When Rose Wolf took the stand she did so without demonstration. She told of her first meeting with Louis Wolf; of how she was renounced by her father and how she finally went to live with Wolf. She said Louis Wolf paid all of the expenses of the Central Apartment flat and kept her in funds. According to her statement, Wolf told her Wednesday afternoon that he had lost $6,000 in speculation and he appeared very much agitated. On Monday he took a party of friends to a down town cafe and made the remark, "Never mind the expense, before a day or so I'll want you to forget that there ever was a Louis Wolf." The remark was not significant at the time, and Miss Wolf says she did not remember it until after the shooting.
Other witnesses were Detectives Ring and Van Dusen, Mrs. Jennie M. Patrick, 1711 Jackson street; Mrs. Florence Williams, 418 South Seventeenth avenue, and

Money for Water Plant Ready to Be Given Old Company

Checks totaling $4,332,730.17, payment in full for the water works plant, have been prepared by the city and are ready for delivery to the New York companies representing the water works. There are seven checks. The Mortgage Guaranty & Trust company of New York, will receive $1,543,730 of the purchase money, which will go to stockholders in the company. The remainder of the amount, $4,332,730.17, will be delivered to the Farmers Loan and Trust company of New York and will be applied on mortgages held against the plant. These checks will probably be taken to New York by a representative of the eastern companies. They are now held by City Treasurer W. G. Ure.

Saturday, June 29th, Will Be Your Chance

Beginning Saturday, June 29th, we will close out seventeen genuine porcelain lined solid oak wood Cold Storage Refrigerators, ranging in size from 100 to 200-pound ice capacity, at prices from $10.00 to $20.00 below regular prices, and that on $4.00 per month payments or a still further cut in price for spot cash. These won't last long at these cut prices and easy terms, so if you are thinking of buying a Refrigerator now is your chance to get a real bargain. First come first served. We have decided to discontinue handling the porcelain lined styles because Mr. Hurd's patent white enamel has proven so satisfactory to users of the Cold Storage that those who know its good qualities will not pay the difference for the porcelain over the white enamel. Still those who are closing out will be lower in prices than the white enamel kind. The Cold Storage is distinctly a hot weather refrigerator. Nothing spoils in the Cold Storage in hot weather. The extreme hot weather is now setting in and there will be three long months of it. You can get more solid comfort out of a Cold Storage Refrigerator the next three months than out of an automobile. Remember that we are the people who sell the Ideal Gas Stoves and connect them free.
