Astonishing and Startling Reductions on Fine Silk Dresses

To the woman concerned about a new silk dress or two for the summer and fall seasons, we would say that nowhere in the entire Middle West will you be able to find silk dresses of such sterling quality and rare beauty for less than double to three times the prices we ask Saturday—not even in a "special purchase" or "special sale." Everyone in the assortment is a favored model of the summer season as you can tell by inspecting those in our window displays. In the suit salon you will find hundreds more equally beautiful and good.

They are made of light, medium and dark colored foulards, pongees, silk, serges, etc., in plain colors and striped and figured designs. Laces and embroideries are principally used in the trimming schemes. There's a size, color and style for every taste.
