REBELS INVADING SONORA

Insurgent Movement in Mexico Assumes Guerrilla Basis.

OROZCO WILL ABANDON JUAREZ

Men Who Arrived Last Night on Five Troop Trains Will Be Sent to Casas Grandes—American Store Looted.

CASAS GRANDES, Mex., July 5.—Rebels under General Salazar, commanding the vanguard of the insurgent army, have begun to terrorize this region. Tension among the Americans and foreigners was increased today with the imprisonment of C. E. Hollingsworth, manager of the general store of Kettlesen & Degetau here, when he refused to give the rebels supplies. They looted the store.

EL PASO, Mex., July 5.—Organized revolution in Mexico is so far as it simulates a military campaign of concentrated forces, was by today's movement of the rebel army showed to have ended and in its place was substituted a guerrilla warfare, threatening widespread devastation in northwestern Mexico.

Five troop trains bore the retreating insurgents from the vicinity of Chihuahua City to Juarez, opposite here, and before the day was over it was expected most of the rebels would be sent southwest from Juarez, a distance of seventy miles, to Casas Grandes, from which point it was intended to effect an entrance to the rich mining state of Sonora. Having abandoned Chihuahua to the federals, the rebels destroyed all bridges between Bachimba, where the last battle occurred, and Sauez, thirty miles north of Chihuahua, the small station at which the rebel outposts are now gathered. The evacuation of Chihuahua means that the zone of rebel control will be greatly diminished, Juarez being the only important point that remains.

General Orozco, the rebel chief, spent the night at Sauez, but was expected in Juarez today to direct the movements of the various bands into which the rebel army is now disintegrating. Juarez at present is the rebel capital, trainloads of archives having been sent there within the last three days.

Federals Move Army Into Sonora.

Though the invasion of Sonora means a rambling campaign in the mountains, the rebels, most of them mountaineers, believe themselves equal to it. The revolution in that form, they say, will prove more vexatious to the government than an ordinary campaign. To check the rebel invasion of Sonora the Mexican government is moving forces from Agua Prieta and western Sonora. Fully 4,000 men are believed to be under way to intercept the rebels.

General Sanjines left Agua Prieta today for Frontera, Sonora, to take command of the main column, and while the forces of General Sanjines are engaging the rebels on the state line between Sonora and Chihuahua, the army of General Huerta is to move up from the city of Chihuahua along the Mexican Northwestern railroad toward Casas Grandes and attack the rebels from the rear.

The next battle, if any occurs, should be at Casas Grandes. At Juarez there is little likelihood of a fight as the rebels plan to withdraw most of their forces toward Sonora.

Reports early were to the effect that no federals had as yet entered the city of Chihuahua, though a detachment of cavalry under General Rabago was said to be nearing the town.

SPEAKER OF THE DAY, AT THE SOUTH OMAHA CELEBRATION.

O. S. SPILLMAN.

minutes hundreds of delegates saw their mistake." Mr. Bryan spoke of the several little fights which had been caused in the convention on account of himself and told one incident of where the Missouri banner had been placed in front of his seat. He said that he tried to find the chairman of the Missouri delegation in order to find out what they meant by it, but he was conspicuous by his absence.

One interesting incident which he related was that as he was about to read a resolution, which, among other things, condemned Mr. Taft, he was invited to another part of the stage to be introduced to Mrs. Taft, who was present. He said that he talked to her a few moments and after that had not the heart to read the resolution, and therefore it was cut out.

He said that while Mr. Marshall, the vice presidential nominee, had been a Parker man, still he was a fine gentleman and would make a strong addition to the ticket, as he was a good speaker and stood well with the people of his state.

Mr. Bryan does not seem to feel very kindly toward the men of the New York delegation and in one of his references to them said: "Right after the vote all the crooks in the convention made their way to the New York delegation, and there were several crooks in the convention who were not on the New York delegation."

In closing Mr. Bryan said: "One of the greatest things which I have had to contend with in all my political fights is that people have contended that I was in politics for the office. I have now proven to them that such a statement is false. I have been fighting for a principle only, and now that I have won I feel that I have achieved the greatest victory of my whole political life. Still, I am not responsible wholly for this victory at Baltimore. The progressive wave was there and all that was necessary was to turn on the water. I happened to know where the faucet was and I turned it on."

Mr. Bryan left immediately after his speech for the Common office and from there took the afternoon train for Kansas City, where he is billed for an address.

Sergeant-Major Wilson was killed instantly, but Captain Loraine lived a short time, although he was unconscious when picked up.

MRS. PENNYBACKER ELECTED

Women Find Out Result of Election Before Announcement.

SECRETARYSHIP TO MRS. KEEFE

Eager Delegates to Federation of Women's Clubs Spend Day in Effort to Learn Outcome in Advance.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 5.—Election of Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker of Austin, Tex., to be president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs for the next two years was admitted here tonight in advance of the formal announcement to the federation.

Mrs. Pennybacker won by a narrow margin from Mrs. Philip Carpenter of New York.

The presidency was the only office for which two candidates were nominated. The remainder of the ticket as elected was as follows: First vice president, Mrs. L. L. Blankenburg, Philadelphia; second vice president, Mrs. Samuel E. Smith, Ohio; recording secretary, Mrs. Harry L. Keefe, Walthill, Neb.; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Eugene Kelly, North Carolina; treasurer, Mrs. John Threadgill, Oklahoma; auditor, Mrs. Charles H. McMahon, Utah.

The directors elected are: Mrs. William E. Andrews, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Francis D. Everett, Illinois; Mrs. Grace Julian Clark, Indiana; Mrs. J. Creighton Mathews, Louisiana; Mrs. William P. Harper, Washington; Mrs. A. S. Christy, Montana; Mrs. Frank White, North Dakota; Mrs. Lucy White Williams, Michigan.

Cheers for President.

Announcement of Mrs. Pennybacker's election was followed by hand-clapping, then by joyous feminine cheers and finally by what was pronounced to be a "rebel yell" chanted by the Texas delegation. Business of the convention was suspended while she was escorted to the platform, where another ovation was given her.

The vote on the presidency and the other officers was taken yesterday, and all today eager delegates pried around, trying to learn what had happened. Some twenty women served as tellers, but each was given a good-sized bunch of ballots to count.

These were turned in to Mrs. Samuel H. Hayes, chairman of the committee on elections, who worked out the totals by herself and kept them to herself. All day, however, reports that Mrs. Pennybacker had won were in circulation.

Particular interest was manifested in the election because while both candidates for the presidency are advocates of equal suffrage, Mrs. Pennybacker had made a formal announcement against bringing the subject before the federation, while Mrs. Carpenter in a similar statement, refrained from committing herself on that point.

The federation sessions end tomorrow. Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, of Denver, former president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, is recovering from an attack of intestinal inflammation. It was thought she would escape an operation.
