

What Women Are Doing in the World

OMAHA has two organizations which have for their purpose the promotion of good stories and good story telling for children. The oldest of the two, the Omaha Short Story Tellers' league, has elected Mrs. C. W. Pollard to lead its activities next season. The Wyche Story Tellers' league chose Miss Carrie Bontelle to be its next season's president.

The Frances Willard Women's Christian Temperance union will meet Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the pavilion in Hancock park. In case of storm they will meet across from the pavilion at the home of Mrs. J. G. Hart, 1743 Park avenue.

The Woman's club of the railway mail service will have its annual picnic at the Rod and Gun club Wednesday, July 10. The honor guests will be the families and unmarried railway mail clerks.

Miss Helen Buck of Rockford college will begin a class in cooking (hot weather dishes) on Wednesday, July 3, at 3:30. This will be a six weeks' course, meeting once a week until the middle of August.

Swimming lessons are given at the camp on Monday and Thursday evenings and in the building on Tuesdays. There will be a new term of lessons beginning July 1 under Miss Grace Conklin, who will have charge of the summer physical work.

The tennis courts at Seventeenth and Jackson streets are now in good condition. Lessons are given Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings to any who wish them. Rackets are furnished by the association. Tennis shoes are required on the courts.

Miss Dowler finished her ten months of work here with the end of June and leaves for a much-needed rest. Miss Grace Conklin will be in charge of the outing work during the summer, and will continue the lessons in tennis and swimming and the recreations at Gymnastics. Miss Conklin will not stay all the time at the camp, but will go there with parties who wish to stay over night. The cottage will not be open over night except at such time as Miss Conklin, or some secretary whom she may ask to take her place, can be in attendance there. Picnics and special festivities will be arranged for from time to time, and due announcement of these given.

If any group of association girls who are not Gymnastics members wish to arrange at any time for a picnic or outing some one of the secretaries will be glad to help in making plans. Lunches can, if ordered in advance, be put up at any time in the cafeteria, provided that payment for a certain number of persons is guaranteed.

Mrs. Florian Krug set a standard at a golf tournament in New York recently, and her daughter played in the same class, which goes to prove as much as anything else that golf is a family game where mother and daughter and father and son can play with the same spirit.

Miss Emma Webster Powell of St. Louis is chairman of the national committee for the celebration of the centennial of the war of 1812, which the Daughters of 1812 will celebrate continuously for the next three years in their programs.

In the town of Ruskin, Fla., the postmaster is a woman, the physician and surgeon is a woman, the superintendent of the Sunday school is a woman, as are the majority of the teachers. The associate president of the college and five of the teachers are women. She has seen
