

ALL SEEKING BINDING TWINE

Dealers Who Cancel Early Orders Now Have to Hustle.

HEAVY ORDERS ARE RECEIVED

Early Doubtful Outlook is Changed and an Assured Crop Causes Demand Which is Now Hard to Fill.

With excellent crop conditions and the annual harvest time at hand, farmers throughout the middle west are making a wild scramble to secure the necessary amount of binding twine...

W. E. Collins, local representative of the Plymouth Cordage company of Plymouth, Mass., which supplies a large percentage of twine in the west...

Now that the crop cloud has turned out with a silver lining, a large number of farmers are without the twine and have to hold up their harvesting until the orders can be filled.

Corn Looks Good. With good weather conditions, including an average of about an inch and a half of rain during the last week...

Just at present oats and rye are at a critical point in their development and need a good soaking in order to fill out.

Harvesting of winter wheat is on in full blast and the yield ranges from fifteen to thirty bushels per acre.

Heavy rains were reported at Sioux City during the last twenty-four hours while light showers have been falling at Sheridan, Wyo., a lively hail storm at the latter place.

Few Needed Help in Month of June

Work done by the Associated Charities for the month of June shows the greatest decline in calls for charity of any month for the last year.

Altogether 24 cases were handled by the Associated Charities, sixty of them being new ones. There were thirty-nine calls for help from transients...

This report is the last made under Miss Ida V. Jontz as secretary. Miss Jontz will leave for the east July 25 to take charge of a wider field of work.

Gasoline Prices Moving Upward

Gasoline soared to 15 cents a gallon today, wholesale, a jump of 3 cents during the last three weeks.

The fact that the crude stock is running low is the cause given for the rise in price by the local branch of the Standard Oil company.

BORUFF TO ENTER PLEA FOR PASS MANIPULATION

H. E. Boruff, who was before United States Commissioner Daniel last Saturday charged with using the mails to defraud in advertising fraudulent passes for sale...

HANSKOM PARK M. CHOIR GIVES CLOSING CONCERT

The Hanskom Park Methodist Episcopal choir closed its season Sunday afternoon by rendering Ballard's sacred cantata, the "Ninety-first Psalm," at the 5:30 vesper service.

The concert was an enthusiastic and appreciative one, giving the singers a good round of applause at the close of the last number for their meritorious work.

GOV. ALDRICH INSPECTS IRRIGATION DISTRICTS

Governor Aldrich spent a few hours in Omaha Sunday evening, coming up from Lincoln with his secretary, Mr. Fuller, and State Engineer Price...

Park Land Must Be Vacated or the City Will Collect Rent

All occupants of the eleven houses on the 510 acres bordering Carter lake, to which tract the city secured title in 1908, will be compelled to pay rent or move.

Commissioner Hummel has made this announcement following a conference with the legal department. Commissioner Hummel declares that a land company has been collecting rents from residents on this tract of land...

An attempt may be made by the park department to compel the land company to pay the city for the use of this land since 1908. The legal department is looking up the question involved and will report to Commissioner Hummel on the advisability of starting proceedings in court to collect.

Selling of Decayed Fruit to Be Stopped by Health Officials

Unless peddlers have licenses before the tenth of the month License Inspector Berkowitz will order them to quit business or stand prosecution.

Joseph Becker, secretary of the Retail Grocers' association, will lend assistance in the campaign to oust the peddlers. These peddlers, it is declared, are, as a rule, selling decayed products sold them by commission merchants at reduced prices.

Health Commissioner Connell has detailed inspectors to keep watch on the stores of the commission merchants and condemn all fruits found in stale condition. Half a carload was condemned Saturday.

Gen. Smith Goes to Army Maneuvers

Brigadier General Frederick A. Smith, commander of the Department of Missouri, United States Army, has gone to Pole Mountain, Wyo., for the national maneuvers at that place. No detachments from Fort Crook or Fort Omaha have been ordered to Pole Mountain.

It was feared by some that the president's veto of the army appropriation bill would seriously impair the maneuvers in the future, but congress later passed a resolution signed by President Taft allowing the appropriation for maneuvers to stand.

CUSTER COUNTY GRASS IS BURNED IN SPOTS

Prairie grass is dry enough to burn in the vicinity of Ansley in Custer county, as a result of the dry spell, according to M. S. Mattley of Ansley. He says several places can already be seen where fires have swept the grasses for a small space.

THIRTY OLD STRUCTURES ARE ORDERED TORN DOWN

Thirty residences and business buildings in the city have been condemned by Fire Warden Ed Morris and will be ordered torn down within the next ten days.
