3ryan Men of Lincoln Take Steps to Head Off Any Move Looking to Rap at Grand Island

Convention.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, July 11.-xSpecial.)-Lieutenant J. H. Moorehead, democratic yesterday and held a conference with opponent, Richard L. Metcalfe, at the primaries. Soon after the result of the ject was thoroughly discussed by the head congratulating him upon his nomiservices to the successful candidate upon Grand Island and J. C. While the two gentlemen had a very pleasant seance together and tolked bytery to be held in this city at the over the general campaign, no definite plans were made regarding the part Mr. Metcalfe will take, except that it will be a speech making campaign. They will get together after the state convention and perfect a plan which will be mutually satisfactory.

Bryan Men Organize. A meeting was called this noon at the Lindell hotel which was participated in by several democrats who resent any kind of a move tending to result in "setting down on Bryan" at the Grand Island convention. W. M. Morning was very warm over the thought that any man for even a moment would think of trying to put the peerless leader to the bad when he was the greatest democrat the country has today. It was understood that something would be done at the meeting to head off any plan that might come up in the future detrimental to Mr. Bryan's standing as the real factor of the party in Nebraska, but the presence of several who are known to have felt a little "sore" at the stand taken by Mr. Bryan regarding Champ Clark prevented any definite action being taken. It is probable that another meeting will be called later and care taken that no "forninsters" of Mr. Bryan know about it until too late.

Filling a Vacancy. Attorney General Martin has been called upon to decide a case in Cedar county wherein the county judge of that county died and the vacancy was filled by the county board County Attorney O'Gara has asked th attorney general whether the appointment holds for the full unexpired term or until the next general election, and, if the appointee holds over only until the next general election, how nominations are to be made for this position. The attorney general decides that the appointment shall continue until the next general election and at such time as the person elected shall qualify. The vacancy occurred after the primary election, so no romination could be made at party committee has the right to nominate a candidate for office in a case of this kind, but that the nomination by s convention would be preferable.

The request for delay has been communicated to the senate interoceanic canals committee. It came from the summer ELLA M TAKES FREE-FOR-ALL embassy at Kineo, Me., late yesterday and was sent by Mitchell Innes, the charge, acting for Ambassador Bryce, who is in New Zealand.

While the reasons for the request are not stated, there is no doubt that the British government is concerned in the clause to grant free passage through the canal to American vessels in coastwise trade, and that relating to those railroad owned ships.
