He spoke of his family.

"I ask nothing because of them, or be cause of my ideal home life."

"It has been said by senators that the worst foes of Lorimer have not impeached his integrity. They have said that his word was as good as his bond; that he never turned on a friend; that he has been consistent, right or wrong.

"But I ask no consideration for that. When senators are making up their minds, when they are deciding whether they will believe Lorimer or Charles A. White, all I ask is to consider in connection with a record of forty years railway; W. G. Bierd, vice president of my truth and veracity, as stated by my enemies. I ask the consideration of senators, as to whether they will believe the bribetaker, who has lied time and again, or believe me.

Why He Refused to Resign.

"Much has been said about 'Lorimer's resigning," he continued. "If at the beginning of this case I had believed that one man had been bribed to vote principally for track improvement. for me, I would have laid my resignation on the vice president's table.
