What Women Are Doing in the World

Omaha delegates to the biennial con vention of Women's clubs at San Francisco will each enjoy a pleasure trip through the west before returning home. The women have written friends that the convention was unusually interesting and the California women entertained them in a royal manner. Mrs. Phoebe Hearst and Mrs. Horace Coffin were among the well known hostesses who entertained some of the delegates.

Mrs. Edward Phelan left San Francisco last week for Los Angeles, where she will spend some time. From there she will meet her husband in Winnipeg and return some time in August.

Mrs. F. H. Cole left for Los Angeles and Salt Lake, returning home the latter part of next week.

Mrs. M. D. Cameron met her husband after the convention at Los Angeles. They will travel through southern California then go up to Portland and come home August 1 over the Canadian Pacific. Other members of the Nebraska dele gation who also went to Los Angeles were Mrs. Morley of Hastings. Mrs. L. I. Cowan of Ashland, and Mrs. Carrie Peterson of Aurora. The party has set to definite date for their return. Some of them may come home the latter part of the week, while others may remain until September.

Mrs. T. J. Gist, president of the Nebraska Federation of Clubs, who was the head of the delegation, has returned to her home in Falls City.

A cold water banquet was given by the young people's branch of the Women's Christian Temperance union at the home of Miss Sarah Givans, 823 South Fiftyfirst street. Miniature circus rings, toy balloons and trapezes were in the center of the table. Twenty guests were present. Candy dolls and animals were the souvenirs. Miss Esther Karee was toastmistress, her toast being the "Young People' Branch-What it Is and What it Can Do."

The Omaha and Frances Willard Women's Christian Temperance unions each held meetings Wednesday afternoon and FETES PLANNED FOR VISITORS discussed plans for the children's rally which will be held in Hanscom park Saturday afternoon, July 20, at 3 o'clock. The following committee is in charge of arrangements: Mrs. James Taliaferro, R. Over, the wedding to take place July chairman; Mrs. Albert N. Eaton, Mrs. F. A. Fallinsbee, Mrs. R. A. Finley, Mrs.

S. I. Jeter. The object in holding a children's rally day is to awaken a more active interest invitation includes children ranging from popular girl of Omaha. 8 to 12 years of age.

A program will be given by the children at the band stand at 4 p. m. consisting of songs, recitations and L. T. L. drill. and the speaker, Dr. Edward Hislop, will give a short address. Following the ex- party at her home Saturday afternoon Tex. a picnic lunch will be served. Anyone interested may telephone Harney 4533, Mrs. Taliaferro or any other member of the committee.

Mankind has lost a friend. Sarah Platt Decker, the peerless, has passed through the greatest of all human experiences and her eloquent lips are silent, refusing to disclose the mystery of that experience. In the annals of the world's activities she should rank with the greatest of generals. Ability to lead is not restricted to New York and Mr. Schiller of Spokane. the sterner sex. To her lot fell the leading of an army, the like of which the world has never seen, in the language of Julia Ward Howe it is an "army of peace," and Mrs. Decker led them on to a glorious triumph. In the midst of the host she heard the summons, and although arrayed with all the honors a successful life could attain. they were not sufficient to withstand the call, and with her characteristic promptness, which was her "family Bible," she answered "Here am I," and the host stand uncovered before the gap in their ranks amazed, heartbroken, disconsolate.

The magnetism of her personality, the strength of her mentality, the abiding memory of her counsels, place her among the first in the heart of every club woman the world over.

It has become a time-honored custom to rear memorials to those having served a cause with devoutness of spirit and effort. It would be a most fitting thing to do if in the judgment of those in authority it were deemed wise to make the endowment of the General Fedaration a memorial to this splendid general of women, Sarah Platt Decker. ANNIE REAVIS GIST, State President National Federation of Women's Clubs.

The North Side Mothers' club held a picnic at the Rod and Gun club. A very enjoyable time was had and a delightful lunch was served in the grove. The next outing will be at Miller park July 27, at which time the members' husbands are especially invited to be present.

Miss Katherine E. Conway, adjunct professor at St. Mary's college, Notre Dame, Ind., was recently decorated with the "cross pro ecclesia et potifico" in recognition of her services in the education of Catholic women. Miss Conway is a native of Rochester, N. Y., and within a year after leaving school she published a book of poems which won for her the admiration and friendship of Edmund Clarence Steadman.

Other women who have received the same decoration are the Countess of Turin, Lady Dungil, wife of the chief justice of Malta; Mrs. M. B. Brent, the English naturalist and writer of children's books; Miss Katherine Johnston of Brooklyn and the Countess Saint Fournier.

Miss Clara Grant is at the head of an unusual settlement which was opened in Bromley-by-Bow, London, something more than a year ago. Miss Grant and her fellow workers, most of whom are trained nurses, concern themselves only with the families of children attending gone to Atlantic City for a few week's the council school of that district. Salary Advances for Clerks and Carriers

Thirteen of the clerks and carriers of the Omaha post office were made happy raise varying from $100 to $200 per year each. Those receiving $600 per annum were raised $200 to make their annual salary $800, while others receiving $1,100 were allowed the raise of $100 per year making their salary $1,200. The total calls for an increase in the payroll here of $2,000 per annum. Having received the concessions desired, the postmaster expects to ask for other raises for certain clerks and carriers before long. Postmaster Wharton sent a letter of congratulation to every one of the lucky ones and told them he hoped their ser vices in the future would be as com mendable as they had been in the past.

The whole Cleaners and Dyers Association meets right here in On the next year; 500 strong or more; the wisest wiseacres that ever cleaned

This year's convention, held this week at St. Louis, was the scene of a hot contest as to which city should secure next years' meet; New York, Atlantic City, Louisville, Fort Worth and Cincinnati making vallant efforts, but the

Every member of the national association conceded that Omaha, of all cities, has the finest equipped and most progressive cleaning plants in all America, and here at home every Omahan surely knows that Dresher Bros. are the most progressive among even half a dozen other "progressive" Omaha cleaning establishments. To sun up the situation in a nutshell you are able to secure a better job of cleaning and dyeing right here at home, than in any other city in this wide and glorious America.

One of the most beneficial outcomes of this years' convention in St. Louis, was the framing up of a resolution to present a proposed "pure fabric" law to the law makers of the government. The United States will most likely make a law of it the moment it is presented. The proposed law will cover everything that Drenher Bros. have advocated since their advent in business; under the new law when passed, each manufacturer of silk, wool, cotton, or any other fabric must brand each yard of his goods for just what it is. Thus one may look at cover at a glance whether it is silk or a near-silk; he may as quickly prove to himself that a piece of wool goods is wool and not shoddy. Dresher Bros. and the other Omaha cleaners even advocated a bill requiring manufacturers to stamp shoes, leather goods, rubber articles, etc., in a similar manner, so that the innocent buyer may examine the stamp and thus see what he s securing for his hard earned money.

Remember, Omaha cleaners and dyers have few equals and no superiors in all America, and that Dresher Bros. are the most able cleaners among even the rest of the progressive Omaha cleaning establishments. Don't send another dollar's worth of cleaning out of town, for the St. Louis convention with one voice. admitted that the best work is done

Next year, during the National Cleaners' convention, Dresher Bros., will show many a point to hundreds, of brother cleaners from all over the country, and these cleaners expect instruction, else they wouldn't let Dresher Bros. and a few others swing the convention into Omaha in 1913.

Note it: a mere phone message to Tyler 1300 or Auto A-2225 will put you in touch with Dresher's experts or, you may leave your work at Dresher's branch station in the Pompeian Room of the Brandels Stores, or at Dresher The Tailors establishment, 1515 Faruam St. Dreshers pay express charges one way on all out-of-town shipments amounting
